FOR THE FAY FAMILY

Building Fund Starts With a Boom

The Fay building fund has struck a popular chord, for only yesterday did The Sun announce that a committee, headed by William A. Ingham, had undertaken to raise money to build a house for the Fay family.

The conditions have already been stated. The family is living in a pasture. The husband is ailing and the wife is a courageous woman, who says "We only want a roof over our head, to get along."

The Sun has already conveyed several contributions of money to the family, but the contributions here announced are for the building fund, to give the family a place to sleep and to live, other than the open air.

Already plans are in preparation for a cottage; land has been secured and can be leased at a nominal rent, and the charitable people of Lowell and vicinity are appealed to to help along the good work until this destitute family, evicted from their home, shall be supplied with a new home not encumbered by any mortgage.

The following communication sets the ball arolling:

STRIKE TROUBLE

Led to Shooting Affair in Chelsea

BOSTON, June 10.—Because he had been repeatedly menaced and fearing that his wife was in danger, Fred J. Lessard, 21 years old, employed as a cutter at the Charles F. Kelly company shoe factory on Everett avenue, Chelsea, early last evening, whipped a revolver from his pocket while on Everett avenue and fired a 32-calibre shot at Philip A. Smith, 25 years old, of 11 4th street, Chelsea.

The bullet struck Smith in the right side of the abdomen, passing through the intestines and lodged in his back. Physicians performed an operation on him at the Frost hospital, but were unable to locate the bullet. His condition is extremely serious.

SILVER WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. BEAN CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Bean of 15 Hastings street observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Bean is a native of Augusta, Me., the son of the late Rev. G. W. Bean, a former pastor of Paige Street F. B. church. Mr. Willis Bean has been a resident of Lowell since 1876, and has a stair and house finish manufactory in upper Dutton street. Mrs. Bean was Miss Annie A. Simpson, a native of that part of Chelmsford which is now annexed to Lowell. The late Rev. E. W. Porter performed the wedding ceremony twenty-five years ago, and a number of guests present at that time called yesterday to offer congratulations. Yesterday two children assisted their parents in entertaining visitors—Miss Alice Gertrude Bean and Master Winthrop Simpson Bean. Beside a large number of Lowell friends, guests were present from Boston, Southboro, Jamaica Plain and Natick. The gifts included a number of silver articles and cash.

WAGES ASSIGNED

DECISION THAT MAY OVERTURN SOME CONTRACTS.

A case was heard in the civil session of the police court yesterday for the recovery of two weeks' wages assigned to a local credit company. The assignment gave the assignee power to change the name of the employer in the assignment in case the assignor changed his place of employment. He did change and the claim was presented to his new employer. Judge Fisher on the bench decided an employe could not assign wages to be paid by a future employer. An appeal was taken. J. W. McEvoy had the case for the defendant.

BOSTON, June 10.—For injury to the Westminster chambers in Copley square by reason of the enforcement of the act of 1898 restricting the height of buildings in that neighborhood to 90 feet, a jury in the fourth session of the superior court yesterday, after deliberating about five hours, assessed damages at $481,970.48, inclusive of interest.

BOTH DEAD

YOUNG COUPLE MADE A SUICIDE PACT.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10—Mabel Gates, aged 18 years, and George Job, Jr., were found in a dying condition from the effects of strychnine poisoning at Rosedale, Kansas, early today and both died before medical aid could be administered. They both protested when an effort was made to save them, and it is supposed that they had made a mutual agreement to commit suicide.

HEAVY LOSS

DAMAGE CAUSED BY FLOOD IN GRAND RAPIDS.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 10—The loss in this city attributable to the flood which now seems to be subsiding, is estimated at $250,000. The loss in all western Michigan is placed at $1,000,000. The river gauge at 8 o'clock last night showed 17.6, a fall of .4 since last midnight. A fall of .5 is anticipated by morning. Railway service is partially resumed on all lines in the flood district, except the Grand Trunk.

Grand Haven is the critical point of the flood tonight. That city is completely isolated. Grand river is higher there than it was during the spring flood of 1904. So far five lives in western Michigan have been lost in consequence of the flood.

MILL HANDS IDLE

Spoolers' Strike is on at Chicopee

CHICOPEE, Mass., June 10.—About 500 out of 1300 operatives of the Chicopee cotton mills have been thrown out of work by a strike which occurred in the spooling department.

At first the strike had little effect on the large plant but today many of the hands in the other departments are unable to continue because of a lack of warp. The strike was caused by changes in the wage scale of about 40 girls who claimed their pay had been cut about 8 per cent. Agent Lord will endeavor to get sufficient warp from mills elsewhere to keep the plant running, but it is said the other operatives may decline to use it and compel the entire plant to close. Agent Lord and the strikers have held a conference, but they were unable to agree and appear to be further apart than before.

LOSS IS HEAVY

Casket Buildings in New York Burned

NEW YORK, June 10.—A heavy financial loss was incurred in a fire which started in the factory of the New York and Brooklyn Casket company in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, and swept through adjoining buildings, including the six story factory of William Vogel and brother today.

William Sheehan, a casket company employee, was asleep in the fourth floor of the factory. He jumped into a life net and rebounded, falling on the sidewalk, and his leg was broken and internal injuries, which may prove fatal, sustained. Practically every building within the block bounded by Wythe and Kent avenues and South Ninth and South Tenth streets, was either destroyed or badly damaged by fire and 90 families were rendered homeless. The total loss is estimated at $300,000. The Casket company's factory was gutted, entailing a loss of $210,000.

STREET RIOT

ONE JEW KILED AND TWENTY OTHERS WOUNDED.

WINSK, Western Russia, June 10.—The report published in a London newspaper that 100 persons were shot during rioting here recently is incorrect. There was a street riot here Thursday on Cathedral square between soldiers and Jews. It was provoked, according to the official version by the theft of a purse from a soldier off duty. His comrades beat a Jew thereupon a crowd of about 800 of the latter's co-religionists gathered to rescue him. The Jews used stones and revolvers and armed troops were summoned. They fired into and dispersed the crowd with the result that one Jew was killed and 20 were wounded and a soldier was shot. The chief of police was hit on the head with a flying missile and one policeman was severely wounded.

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 10.—Governor Ferguson has received a telegram from the president saying that a protest has been filed with him by the president of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, against the Indian dances and buffalo hunt to be given on Sunday at the "101" ranch at Bliss, Okla. Governor Ferguson has ordered two companies of militia to be on the grounds Sunday to insist on the prevention of possible cruelty to animals.

FOUGHT OVER WOMAN.

ANNUAL GAME

Between Exeter and Andover Academies

EXETER, N. H., June 10.—Excellent weather favored the players in the annual baseball game between Phillips-Exeter and Phillips-Andover academies today and there were many hundred visitors in town to see the contest. Exeter has made an unusually brilliant record this season and was generally looked upon before today's game as the probable winner. Andover, however, has an excellent team and has made a strong showing in games with the large colleges. Lanigan will go into the box for Andover and if necessary will be relieved during the game by Clow or Merritt. H. Jones was settled upon to pitch for Exeter. The game was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock. It was expected that the batting order would be as follows:

Andover—Schildmiller lf, Clough 1b, Payette or Murphy cf, Reiley 2b, Taylor rf, Williams 3b, Mallory ss, Jones c, Lanigan p.

FUNERALS

CASSION—The funeral of the late Catherine Cassion took place this morning at 8.30 from the chapel of J. F. O'Donnell & Sons, and was largely attended by sorrowing friends and relatives. The cortege proceeded to St. Peter's church where deceased had been a devout communicant for many years. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was celebrated, Rev. Fr. Heffernan officiating. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Warburton, sang Schmidt's mass and during services rendered appropriate selections. Mrs. Josephine McKennedy presided at the organ. The bearers were T. H. Flynn, C. E. McCarthy, John Thompson and Thos. Garvey. At the grave Rev. Fr. Heffernan read the committal prayers and the burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

LYNN, June 10.—Mount Carmel Masonic lodge today is celebrating the centennial of its institution with a parade, banquet and historical exercises, entertaining as guests Grand Master Sandford and the grand officers. The oration of the day at the First Methodist church is by Lieut. Governor Curtis Guild, Jr.

STOCK MARKET REGAINED.

NEW YORK, June 10—The stock market was revived today by the reports of a settlement effected in the long standing Equitable Life dispute. There was a momentary check to the rise on account of the inviting profits offered on the overnight advance, but the prices then began to go forward again. The holiday in London deprived the market of one usual source of demand. Advances of from 1 to 1½ points became fairly general during the course of the first hour of trading. Metropolitan Street Railway was conspicuous with a gain of three points.

SIXTY-ONE INDICTMENTS.

BOSTON, June 10—Sixty-one indictments, one of the longest lists ever returned were reported today by the Suffolk county grand jury. Five Italians were indicted on a charge of assault with intent to murder, the alleged crimes having been committed in the North End of this city. Many persons were indicted on charges of breaking and entering.

CUT WIDE SWATH

Spotted Fever Claims Many Victims

One case of measles was reported at the office of the board of health today. No new cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis or smallpox were reported. Cerebro-spinal meningitis, or spotted fever, has made a terrible inroad on life since it struck Lowell. Its record is 87 cases and 51 deaths. Four new cases were reported last week and there were four deaths.

ATTACK BY JAPS

Is Expected by Gen. Linevitch

TOKIO, June 10, 3 p. m.—General Linevitch is reported to be with his headquarters at Fenghwa busily engaged in the personal inspection and direction of his troops for the purpose of strengthening his line of defence along the Chanchun-Kirin line, evidently expecting a Japanese onset.

The Russian methods of making reconnaissances in force are said to have remarkably improved. They have ceased to be disorderly but owing to the Russians over faithfulness to the text book orders they are still placed at a disadvantage, their movements being anticipated by the Japanese who prevent them from realizing results commensurate with the amount of sacrifice.

NOT GUILTY

BANK OFFICIALS WERE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., June 10.—The preliminary examination of J. R. Young of the Goldfield Bank and Trust company and Francis L. Burton, on the charge of conspiracy and obtaining money under false pretenses, has resulted in their acquittal.

Young was remanded into custody pending his trial on the charge of embezzlement. Cashier Beales testified that the bank's capitalization, which was said to be $100,000, was only in reality $17,000 cash.

Y. W. C. A. HOME.

The Young Women's Christian Association opened their new home on John street this afternoon at 2 o'clock for all who desired to inspect it. The ladies of board of directors were present to extend a cordial welcome to all who came, and will receive until 9.30 p. m. They desire to express their sincere regret that hundreds who came to their opening on Wednesday evening could not gain admission, because of the size of the crowd inside. Among those outside closed doors were directors and special friends of the association.

The society acknowledges the gift of sheets and pillow cases enough for all the rooms from Mr. Horace Stebbins of New York.

ALL ESCAPED

LIVES OF TWELVE PERSONS WERE IN DANGER.

BOSTON, June 10.—The prompt action of a pedestrian saved the lives of twelve persons in the North End today when a determined attempt to burn a four-story brick building was made. The occupants of the house were aroused when the rooms were filled with smoke and when the ground floor was flaming. All escaped safely, through the assistance of police and firemen. An investigation showed that the fire had been started by igniting kindlings which had been placed in a baby carriage on the ground floor. The monetary loss was inconsiderable.

DEATHS

MEEHAN—The many friends of Hannah Meehan, mother of John Meehan, of the firm of Meehan & Meehan, stonecutters, will be pained to learn of her death which occurred this morning. The deceased was 83 years of age and spent about 35 years of her life in Billerica. Besides her son she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Martin Conway of North Billerica, also four grandchildren ,Messrs. Thomas, John and Frank Meehan and Mrs. Mary McMahon.

The funeral will take place Monday morning from the Sacred Heart church.

GOING TO LABRADOR.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 10.—The widow of Leonidus Hubbard of New York, who perished while on an expedition in the Labrador interior, who has planned to continue Mr. Hubbard's work, has arrived. She will leave next week on the steamer Harlow for Gilliasport on the Labrador coast and thence she will continue explorations from the point where her husband was forced to stop.

Mrs. Hubbard's party will include five members besides Indian and other guides. Mr. Wallace who was associated with Hubbard in the previous expedition passed through here a week ago en route to Labrador with the same object in vie was that of Mrs. Hubbard. Mr. Wallace said nothing about joining Mrs. Hubbard.

PIG OWNERS FINED

For Keeping Them Within the City Limits

Lawyer Donahue Claims That They Were Responsible For Spinal Meningitis—Both Defendants Appealed From the Court's Decision

Judge Fisher this morning, in police court, imposed two stiff fines for keeping pigs within the city limits, and although both cases were appealed, the health authorities want it understood that this is the beginning of a crusade against persons who keep pigs within the city limits in violation of the city ordinances and the rules of the board of health and both defendants were charged on two complaints, one under the ordinance and the other under the rules. The court did not bother with the rules, finding the defendants not guilty under the rules but found them guilty under the ordinance.

The defendants were Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick of Chapel street and Byron W. Johnson of Crosby street.

The health department retained Lawyer Donahue as counsel while Judge Pickman appeared for both defendants.

When the son of Mrs. Fitzpatrick was called Judge Pickman appeared in court with a physician's certificate to the effect that she had heart trouble.

Lawyer Donahue then addressed the court as follows: "The existence of cerebro-spinal meningitis in this city is traceable, according to the health authorities, to hogs and it is a matter of record that there have been more cases of this fatal disease in the immediate neighborhood of the place where these hogs are kept than any other place in the state. This complaint was made out on May 19th and has been continued several times. Now at the last moment they come in with a physician's certificate and want another continuance. The health department has received several letters of protest that these continuances are simply a make-shift to avoid trial. This is a serious menace to public health and I do not propose to allow this matter to go along."

Judge Pickman in reply said:

"I object to this attempt to prejudice the court."

"That's wholly untrue. That's like the speech up to Pinkstow," interrupted Lawyer Donahue.

Judge Pickman then resumed: "We have made no attempt to have the case continued again. I came here to dispose of the case and when I found that the woman could not be here I suggested that her son be substituted as defendant and this was not acceptable to the prosecution. Then I sent for her to come to court and she will be here in a short time. I would suggest that pending her arrival we proceed with the Johnson case."

This was agreeable to the prosecution and the trial proceeded.

THE EVIDENCE OFFERED.

In the case of B. W. Johnson charged on two complaints with keeping pigs within the city limits one complaint was drawn under the statutes and the other under the rules of the board of health.

Mr. Johnson through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

Sanitary Inspector Frank O'Hare testified that on May 15 and 17 he visited the stable kept by the defendant in the rear of 15 Crosby street and found five pigs in the cellar of the stable.

On cross examination Mr. O'Hare was asked if he knew of places in Lowell where pigs are kept and against which no prosecutions have been made but the question was excluded.

Inspector Bates testified that on June 7 he visited the stable and saw three pigs and Mr. Johnson claimed ownership.

Agent H. H. Knapp after producing the rules of the board of health said that Mr. Johnson had had a conversation with Agent Knapp in regard to the case.

At this point Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick, the defendant in the other pig case came in and her case was taken up.

Inspector O'Hare visited her house on June 17, and spoke with her son. He saw one pig in her cellar.

Inspector Bates said that he told Mrs. Fitzpatrick to get rid of the hogs and she said she couldn't, as they were a benefit to her, as she would be unable to dispose of the manure were it not for the pigs.

Judge Pickman put in no defence in either case, but filed a motion to the court to dismiss the complaints on the ground that the government had not made out its case.

Judge Pickman argued at considerable length for the dismissal of the complaints on the claims that the rule of the board was unreasonable. Lawyer Donahue, for the prosecution, argued that the statute and rules are plain and that the violations thereof are clearly shown.

Judge Fisher then found both guilty under the ordinance, but dismissed the cases under the rules of the board. Mr. Johnson was fined $20 and Miss Fitzpatrick $10.

Judge Pickman, in behalf of both defendants, appealed, while Mrs. Fitzpatrick said: "They're not my pigs; they're my son's.

"I want to serve public notice on you," said Lawyer Donohue, "that this being a continuing offence, you must get rid of those pigs right away or we'll have you in court again next week. You must get those pigs off that street, Johnson."

PETITION IS DENIED

Judge Peckham Has Decided Against Mary Rogers

ALBANY, N. Y., June 9.—Judge Rufus W. Peckham, of the United States supreme court, today declined to grant a writ of error which would allow the case of Mrs. Mary M. Rogers of Vermont, now under sentence for the murder of her husband, to go to the United States court. The application was made before him at his office here today by Attorney F. M. Butler.

Mr. Butler argued that there was a federal question involved from the fact that the Vermont laws provided no means for a retrial of Mrs. Rogers upon newly discovered evidence. The highest court of the state had refused a new trial, and since the legislature which alone has the power to pardon will not meet until October, 1906, the only recourse is the United States court. He held that the state court should not have fixed the date of execution until after the next meeting of the legislature.

In refusing the writ of error, Judge Peckham said: "It would be trifling with the administration of the federal courts to presume to grant a writ of error upon these allegations. There is nothing to support a pretense of a federal question, nor the allegations that the state constitution and the 14th amendment have been violated. The misfortune of your client is that she has become convicted in the state court."

Mr. Butler said after the decision was rendered that the only hope that remained for Mrs. Rogers now was further reprieve from the governor and that her attorneys would immediately apply for such a stay. If it is not granted she will be executed under the sentence of the Bennington county court on June 23, when the present reprieve expires.

The new evidence referred to, he explained, was the alleged discovery that Rogers had a fracture of the skull, which his wife could not possibly have inflicted, also that the physician's testimony showed that Mrs. Rogers was insane.

NO SURPRISE

ATTORNEY MOLONEY PREPARED FOR COURT'S DECISION.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., June 9.—When Thomas W. Moloney of Rutland, counsel for Mrs. Mary M. Rogers, who was here on legal business today, was shown the press dispatch announcing that Judge Peckham of the United States supreme court had refused to grant a writ of error in the case of Mrs. Rogers he stated that he had not yet received official announcement of this fact. He stated that he was not surprised at the result of his petition to Judge Peckham.

Mr. Moloney, previous to the time the petition was placed before Judge Peckham, had expressed his opinion that there was little hope that it would be granted. Later when Judge Peckham's comment on the case was placed before Mr. Moloney, he said that he was prepared for a ruling of that sort. He said:

"I don't feel like giving the thing up. Still I cannot state at this moment what further step can be taken. It seems to me that the woman ought to be permitted to live until after another session of the legislature.

"During the last legislature nothing could be brought to the attention of the body except what was against the woman. Since the adjournment of the legislature and subsequent to the trial of the case new evidence has been found of such importance that the supreme court of the state is divided on the question of granting a new trial, two of the seven judges dissenting from the finding against the accused. That being so it seems to me that a stay should be given until another legislature, that body under Vermont laws alone having the power of commutation, meets in order that the new evidence may be placed before it."

With reference to making application to the governor for a further stay Mr. Moloney said that while the governor before issuing his first reprieve in the case was understood to be reluctant to interfer, the changed conditions resulting from the presentation of new evidence and the decision of the supreme court might be expected now to influence his position.

Governor Charles J. Bell also was in Middlebury on business today. When informed of the decision of Judge Peckham he made the following statement to an Associated Press representative:

"My stand in the Rogers case is precisely the same today as when I first reprieved Mrs. Rogers. Under the law I was obliged to grant the second reprieve. Now that the writ of error has been denied, the law must take its course." The governor said this entirely covered his position in the matter.

GOV. BELL

HAS A CHANCE TO COMMUTE SENTENCE.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 9—The decision of Judge Rufus W. Peckham of the U. S. supreme court declining a writ of error in the Mary M. Rogers murder case is taken by those interested in the case here as meaning that the last hope of saving the woman's life, except by possible executive action by the governor, is exhausted, and it is still possible for Governor Bell to commute sentence to life imprisonment. It is considered doubtful that he will take further action as all the state courts including the supreme body, the legislature and now the U. S. supreme court has refused to interfere. In granting the last reprieve until June 23, Gov. Bell said that it was his desire that no question of the constitutional right of the prisoner should remain in doubt.

J. H. Senter of this city, who with T. W. Moloney of Rutland has acted as Mrs. Rogers's counsel in the attempts to save her life, said today when advised of Judge Peckham's decision:

"I am afraid the woman must hang. I see no other legal step which can now be taken. It has been intimated that if the decision of Justice Peckham be unfavorable there are still other methods. I do not wish to prejudice the case in any way but if there are other possibilities, I do not know what they are. I have thought of habeas corpus proceedings, but in view of the decisions already given by the Vermont courts and by Justice Peckham I am convinced that such a step would be as fruitless as those already taken."

THE SHERIFF

EXPECTED COURT WOULD DECIDE AGAINST MRS. ROGERS.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., June 9.—Sheriff Henry H. Peck, who has charge of the arrangements of the hanging of Mrs. Mary M. Rogers, commented upon the announcement that the requested writ of error in the case of Mrs. Rogers had been denied by the United States supreme court, by saying that the action of the court was what he had looked for. He stated that he would not at this time inform Mrs. Rogers of the court's decision, believing it best to postpone the notifying of the woman of her fate until all the possible legal steps to save her life had been adopted by her counsel.

NO DAMAGE

AN ITALIAN CRUISER WENT AGROUND.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—The Italian cruiser Umbria, now visiting British Columbia waters, has arrived here safely. She ran aground while entering the harbor but got off with the tide and apparently is none the worse for the mishap. While the Umbria was steaming between Esquimalt and Vancouver, firing practice was held. About a hundred rounds were fired and many shells which seemingly over-carried, fell among blue jackets from H. M. S. Egeria, camped ashore on South Pender Island, and among the residences of the town, which has a population of 100 persons. No one was hurt and no damage was done.

BRIEF TRIP

PRES. ROOSEVELT WILL BE GUEST OF OLD FRIEND.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—President Roosevelt left Washington at 11.16 a.m. today on a brief trip to Rapidan, Virginia, where he will be the guest of Joseph Wilmer, an old friend of himself and Mrs. Roosevelt. Mrs. Roosevelt, who recently purchased a tract of nearly 20 acres of woodland adjoining Mr. Wilmer's farm, left here yesterday for the Wilmer home. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt will remain there probably until Sunday night or Monday morning unless the president's presence in Washington should become necessary before that time. The president was accompanied only by M. A. Latta, his personal stenographer, and Frank B. Tyree, a secret service officer. The president travelled in a regular Pullman car instead of in a private car.

The small children of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt left today for Connecticut on a brief visit to friends prior to going to Oyster Bay for the summer.

LARCENY

CHARGE AGAINST TREASURER OF EXPRESSMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

BOSTON, June 9.—Charged by other officers of the association with having stolen $798.37, George B. McLaughlin, 29 years of age, living at 24 Ibbitson street, Somerville, treasurer of the Expressmen's Relief association, was arrested late last night by Inspector Gustafson, after an exciting chase, and locked up at the city prison.

It is claimed by the officers of this association that this larceny has been going on since April 8, 1904, small amounts having been taken at various times during that period. According to their statements they have seen McLaughlin many times about the loss, but the latter did not seem to be able to make up the deficiency.

Last night in company with Inspector Gustafson they went to the Adams Express office at the south station and had a talk with McLaughlin. While the conversation was being held, the inspector waited outside. McLaughlin knew nothing about the inspector being in the next room until the other officers called him in.

When the inspector entered, McLaughlin recognized him at once and knew he was about to be placed under arrest. In an instant he rushed for a side door and ran for the street. The inspector followed, although the accused man had a good start on him.

The fleeing man and the inspector ran down Atlantic avenue, up Kneeland street and into South street, where McLaughlin, exhausted, fell to the street and told the officer he would go with him without further trouble. The inspector and his prisoner, both exhausted from their long run, came to headquarters.

NEW REGIME

IS APPROVED BY THE PEOPLE OF NORWAY.

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, June 9.—Baron Von Wedel-Jarlsberg, who has been minister of Sweden and Norway at Madrid and who is a Norwegian, is leaving the Spanish capitol today for Christiania. He has telegraphed asking to be immediately relieved of the post owing to the dissolution of the union. His example will be followed by the ministers at Washington and Rome, both of whom are Norwegians.

The government of Norway and the Storthing continue to receive from all parts of the country expressions of gratitude for their action and the communal authorities are voting addresses approving of the new regime.

A telegram from Bjornstjerno Bjornson, the Norwegian dramatist, published here today, sums up the popular feeling as follows:

"The address to the king is an expression of the will of the entire Norwegian people. The dissolution of the union is a blessing for the entire north."

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 9.—President James Golden and Secretary Albert Hibbert of the United Textile Workers of America announce that a strike of weavers at the Great Falls cotton mills at Somersworth, N. Golden and Hibbert were called to Somersworth and the trouble was adjusted, both sides making concessions. Forty weavers were out.

NO NEW PEACE CONFERENCE

Walkout of 8000 Teamsters Threatened

CHICAGO, June 9—That the teamsters must meet all the conditions laid down by the employers or declare the strike off without making any settlement now seems from the employers standpoint to be the logical outcome of the struggle. Another attempt to arrange for a new peace conference has resulted in a reiteration by the employers that they will make no further concessions.

A general meeting of the Chicago Team Owners' association will be held tomorrow night to vote on the proposition to deliver to strike affected houses. An affirmative decision would precipitate a walkout of 8000 teamsters.

Announcement was made today by the Employers' Teaming company that men were reporting daily to its agents in seven cities and that it would be possible to rush to Chicago 400 men a day in the event of a further extension of the strike.

The Garment Workers, the original cause of the present strike have come to the conclusion that the teamsters have forgotten the "sympathy" which two months ago prompted them to strike in aid of the tailors. At a meeting of all the special order locals the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved that in the event of the teamsters union calling off their strike it be the sense of the organization that such action shall not terminate in any way the struggle which the Garment Workers are carrying on against the National Wholesale Tailors' association unless the teamsters' settlement carries with it a satisfactory settlement of the Garment Workers' question."

Geo. J. Jackson a tally man employed by a lumber company has been attacked by three alleged unionists and probably fatally injured. His assailants escaped.

M. BONPARD

DISCUSSED PEACE SITUATION WITH PRES. LOUBET.

PARIS, June 9, 1.10 p. m.—M. Bonpard, the French ambassador to Russia returns to St. Petersburg tomorrow after a long conference with Pres. Loubet at the foreign office in which it is understood the peace situation was fully considered. This will place the ambassador in a position strongly to co-operate in the pacific efforts of the United States and it is intimated that he may carry an autograph letter from M. Loubet to Emperor Nicholas along lines similar to President Roosevelt's message. The general feeling here keeps hopeful, the officials considering that the emperor's hesitation and Japan's military aims are the chief obstacles remaining.

BANK CREDITORS

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 9—At the regular weekly meeting of the German Bank Creditors association the committee appointed to look into the action of F. D. Kilburn, state superintendent of banks, in regard to the German bank reported censuring Mr. Kilburn's methods. The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved that Supt. Kilburn should and ought to be removed from office and some person selected and substituted in his stead more capable and efficient to perform the duties of that office."

PAUPERS STRIKE

They Wanted to Go on the Pay Roll

NEW YORK, June 9—Considerable merriment has been caused by a strike of paupers in a country almshouse just outside Jersey City. The men detailed to act as bakers organized and elected a walking delegate who notified the county board in charge of the institution that his fellows would not knead the almshouse dough until their names were put on the pay roll with the attendants and other employes.

The delegate explained to the committee that the bakers were entitled to pay because, unlike many other paupers they do not desert the institution during the summer months to recuperate at the seashore and in the mountains but remain at their duties in the bake-shop and work faithfully for the county. The committee rejected the demands and informed the strikers that they would be put to work in the stone quarries, if they do not return to work in the bake-shop.

BODY OF A MAN

Was Found Floating by Fisherman

NORTH KINGSTON, R. I., June 9—While setting traps near Quonset Point today, Leland Shippee, a fisherman found floating in the water the partially decomposed body of a man apparently about 50 years of age. The body had evidently been in the water for about three weeks. The feet were tied and two window weights were found in a pocket of an overcoat in which the body was dressed. The hands were free and there was no indication of foul play.

The clothing on the body was of fine texture and several of his teeth were gold filled. The man was about 5 feet, 7 inches in height and rather stockily built. Medical Examiner Harold Metcalf stated that he believed that death occurred from suicide.

It is thought the body may be that of Herbert H. Gunn, formerly of Brattleboro, Vermont, who has been missing for about two weeks and who on the eve of sailing from New York to Providence on one of the Joy line steamers wrote a friend in Brattleboro of his intentions of committing suicide.

FREIGHT

WILL BE HANDLED BY CHICAGO SUBWAY COMPANY.

CHICAGO, June 9.—By the last of August, the Chicago subway company will be handling freight to and from practically all the railroad terminals of Chicago. Work on the bore is being rushed day and night, an added impetus having been given by the teamsters' strike.

A remarkable record in tunnel construction has been made in the last two months, more than five miles of underground passages having been finished. The strike began just before this period of unusual activity. In the last two months 60,000 cubic yards of material have been excavated. The concrete hauled through the tunnels to finish the new workings amounted to 25,000 cubic yards.

The company now has nearly 32 miles of bore, interlacing the district bounded by Twelfth and Halstead streets, Chicago Avenue and the Lake. This is being equipped with trolley wires and laid with heavy rails for the use of the electric road on which the merchandise will be carried 40 feet beneath the level of the city streets.

NOT GAMBLING

SUPREME COURT SAYS DEALING IN COTTON FUTURES IS LEGAL.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 9.—The supreme court of Alabama has ruled that transactions in cotton futures are not gambling, but a legitimate business. The decision was handed down in the case of a dealer who gave a mortgage on some property as security for margins and an effort was made to foreclose the mortgage. He contended that the mortgage was invalid inasmuch as it was given to secure a gambling debt.

BOARD OF POLICE

Regulation of Liquor Traffic Discussed

The board of police today submitted its annual report which in part is as follows:

The board of police of the city of Lowell has the honor to submit herewith the annual report of its administration.

The Lowell police force as at present constituted consists of one superintendent and one deputy superintendent of police, one captain, four lieutenants, five inspectors, three sergeants, and one hundred and eighteen regular and reserve patrolmen. The employes of the department are an electrician and assistant, a signal service operator, a messenger, four patrol drivers, a hostler, a charman, a matron and stenographer. Of the patrolmen, only the regular officers are a charge to the city, the reserve men being paid only for actual duty done, by reason of the absence of the regular officers, or for the police work done for private purposes.

The discipline of the force throughout the year has on the whole been satisfactory. The case against one officer was dropped, the charge being trivial; another officer was reprimanded in general orders; and two were dismissed from the service, the gravity of their offence warranting such action. One officer resigned during the year; and one was retired on a pension, his death following shortly after his retirement. 21 special police without pay from the city were appointed.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The regulation of the sale of intoxicating liquors and the enforcement of the laws governing the traffic constitute the most vexatious problem the board has to face, and the problem is not made less complicated by the general lack of public knowledge of the liquor laws and limitations of the authority of this and every other licensing body in the commonwealth. It is difficult at times to convince that portion of the public, which has a passion for cavilling, that the board of police cannot apply and enforce the laws which do not exist; and that it is equally futile to attempt to make many worthy, earnest and otherwise intelligent people understand that licensed liquor dealers have any right they are bound to respect, which this board as an executive body cannot ignore. The laws governing the keeping and sale of intoxicating liquors are made by the legislature and their intent and meaning are interpreted by the courts; and the board of police cannot assume to possess more power than the general court, nor more wisdom than the supreme bench. The legitimate function of this board is to regulate and control the traffic, conducted by the licensees and not to harry and suppress it; and it would be manifestly in violation of American spirit of fair play and justice to assume that men conducting a licensed and legalized business are criminals because that business is not especially popular. The fees for licenses are high; the logic of high license being that responsibility and respect for law are cultivated where disregard of them entails large financial loss. A majority of the voting population favors the license system at the polls, and the sum added to the municipal treasury from license is not unwelcome under the present financial condition of the city.

HOTEL QUESTION.

In the matter of hotels it should be understood that their license compels hotels to be open and ready to do business on all days and at all time, under reasonable conditions. A hotel keeper cannot refuse to cater to any sober and respectable person without imperiling his license. While many bona fide guests patronize hotels on Sunday, there are doubtless persons visiting hotels whose purpose is to obtain liquor, but the fact that people go in and out a hotel is not an evidence that illegal traffic is being conducted; and as long as the business is conducted in an orderly way the positive evidence of illegality is difficult to secure. Ample precautions have been taken to make illegal business difficult and dangerous; inspectors visit the hotels frequently and take cognizance of the business transacted; but the difference between the bona fide and the thirsty guest in appearance and conduct is so shadowy that the question of illegality is not an easy one to define and settle.

Unless the evidence obtained is positive and satisfactory to the courts, convictions are hard to secure and much expense to the county is entailed. Under the circumstances the best that can be done—and this is the general experience throughout the state—is to secure quiet, order and decency by vigilance and supervision; and that these results are secured is shown by the fact that if any illegal business is transacted it is sly, secret and surreptitious.

Patrolmen and their superior officers are required to visit and inspect personally all the licensed premises on their routes and to report daily in writing the conditions observed to the superintendent of police. The board believes this constant supervision has an excellent effect upon the licensees, who realize that any laxity in the observance of the conditions of their licenses will be unpleasant and costly in results.

Quite recently the mayor invited the attention of the board to a provision of the law—specifically to section 6 of chapter 102 of the Revised Laws—which requires that the premises of an applicant for an innholder's or a common victualler's license must be equipped with the necessary implements and facilities for cooking and so forth at the time application for a license is made, if the license is to be issued. The possession of an innholder's or a common victualler's license being a prerequisite to the issuance of any license to sell intoxicating liquors of the first class—liquors to be drunk on the premises—the matter and law in question had, of course, a necessary connection with the premises of licensed dealers, although the two licenses are different and separate. There is no doubt that the law which is a very old one, antedating the introduction of the licensed liquor system, contemplated the ordinary victualling places, which existed in earlier days in the commonwealth, when it was expected the victualler must be prepared to do business when his license was applied for and granted.

The custom all over this commonwealth has been to ignore the letter of this law and to see that victualling establishments when connected with the liquor business, should be properly fitted up before the liquor licenses were granted and issued on the first day of May annually. Since the introduction of the limited license system, when applicants outnumber those to whom licenses are issued, it would appear to be a real hardship to insist that an applicant fit up a place at an expense of hundreds of dollars when he had no absolute knowledge that a license as a liquor dealer would be granted him.

It has been the custom of the board of police to make a provisional grant of licenses with a view of acquainting the public with the names of those who are to engage in the business of selling intoxicating liquors during the ensuing year and to advise the applicants which of them have been selected. This serves the double purpose of giving information the public is expecting and of serving notice upon all successful applicants that if they have applied from premises that do not come up to the legal requirements they must at once apply again from premises which do meet these requirements. When at a later date the regular, official and formal granting of licenses is made and recorded, and illegality and hardship are obviated.

It is only just to add that if there has been any failure to observe this technical and literal interpretation of he law, it has resulted in no evil consequences affecting the well being or morals of the community; and possibly a seeming hardship of its enforcement could be mitigated by making the application for liquor licenses precede that for innholder and common victualler licenses, and the granting of them later.

The list of offenders during the year ending May 31 is as follows:

Against public order—Adultery 15, bastardy 13, city ordinance violating 30, common brawler 1, cruelty to animals 8, disturbing the peace 21, drunkenness 3710, escape from prison 8, fornication 23, idle and disorderly 4, indecent exposure 4, lewd cohabitation 6, lewdness 3, liquor law violating 19, neglect of family 54, peddling unlicensed 3, interfering with officer 2, stubbornness 32, vagrants 16, suspicious persons 143, insane 39, truants 48, gambling 64, capias, etc., 32, neglected children 18, health and food laws violated 15, Lord's day violating 12, miscellaneous 26; total 4379.

Against the person—Assault 179, assault, felonious 18, murder 1, threats 16, totals 214.

Against property—Arson 1, breaking and entering 44, embezzlement 4, evading fare 6, larceny 312, malicious mischief 19, receiving stolen property 6, trespass 19, unlawful taking 5, suspicion of breaking and entering 1, suspicion of larceny 28, sale of mortgaged property 4, illegally removing baggage 7, concealing personal property 4, false answers to tablemen 1, total 460.

ANOTHER STRIKE

Carpenters Didn't Have Heavy Hammers

Five carpenters called at The Sun office this afternoon and said they had been discharged from the employ of the subcontractor to the Bishop company of Providence, R. I., because they could not furnish big striking hammers to spike down floors. The Bishop company was awarded the contract for the erection of a new mill by the Bigelow Carpet company and a great deal of the work was sub-let. The carpenters who called at The Sun office said that the man for whom they worked told them they would have to provide big striking hammers or get out.

"He told us," said the spokesman for the five, "that he could get carpenters by the carload. We told him it was not customary for carpenters to carry big striking hammers. He said we would have to provide the hammers or get out and we got out."

THE TRI-COLOR

Norwegian Flag Was Hoisted Today

TAKES PLACE OF UNION FLAG

Great Enthusiasm at Akershus Fort

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, June 9.—Norwegian Tri-color was hoisted this morning over Akershus fort and throughout the country in place of the Union flag. The substitution was attended by great ceremony at the fort where the members of the Storthing were assembled and 60,000 of the people witnessed the event from points of vantage. The garrison was paraded in front of the quarters of the commandant of the fort and the commandant read the resolution of the Storthing dissolving the union with Sweden.

As the clock in the tower of the fort chimed 10 the Union flag which had floated there since 1814 was hauled down, the troops presented arms, the band played the patriotic air "Sons of Norway," and after only a momentary interim the first gun of a national salute boomed, the flag was broken out and the troops again presented arms. The people then uncovered and cheered wildly, the band adding to the general enthusiasm, by playing the popular air "Yes, we love this country." First one and then another took up the words of the song until the whole crowd joined in after which round after round of cheering again greeted the flag. Three cheers were next given for the fatherland and the singing of the national anthem concluded the ceremony.

CROWN PRINCE

GREETED BY LARGE CROWD OF PEOPLE.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 9—Crown Prince Gustave on his return from Berlin today was met by the royal family, the ministers and a large crowd of people, who cheered him enthusiastically. The city is decorated with flags.

King Oscar decided at a meeting of the council of state today to summon the Riksdag for an extraordinary session June 50. The Crown Prince was present at the sitting which had before it the resolution of the Norwegian Storthing, which the premier denounced as revolutionary.

"By this revolutionary proceeding," said the premier, "the Storthing has not only without the co-operation of the King but without the least consideration of Sweden and on its own authority determined upon the rupture of the union that existed by virtue of a mutual convention drawn up in accordance with laws and which can in no way be broken without the assent of the two countries. Inasmuch as the resolution of the Storthing is a great and profound violation of the rights of Sweden, it is indisputably necessary that the Riksdag should be summoned in extraordinary session without delay to deliberate on the measures to be taken by Sweden in view of what has passed."

The resignations of the ministers of Sweden and Norway at Copenhagen, Rome and Madrid were tendered by telegraph and accepted.

WORLD'S BICYCLE RECORD.

OGDEN, Utah, June 9.—Walter A. Bardgett of Buffalo has broken the world's bicycle record for three quarters of a mile professional at the Ogden Saucer track in the fast time of 1.26 3-5. The former record, 1.29, was made by John M. Downing at Salt Lake City in 1900.

GERMAN APPEAL

Moroccan Situation is Becoming Grave

PARIS, June 9.—Germany's note to the powers proposing an international conference on the subject of Morocco is regarded in the highest quarters as renewing the gravity of the situation almost to the point of making it menacing. France has received a copy of the note showing that Germany acted openly in appealing to the powers now from the official statement from Berlin that Morocco invited the conference. The officials here interpret the German note as showing that Germany is the real upholder of the conference. The text of the note shows that Germany relies mainly on article 17 of the treaty of Madrid, signed July 15, 1880, in which General Lucius Fairchild signed for the United States.

Article 17 recites that Morocco recognizes the most favored nation treatment in the case of all the powers represented at the conference. The German note holds that this gives the powers equal rights to consider the affairs of Morocco.

The French answer is as follows:

Article 17 refers to the proceeding articles which deal solely with the protection of the lives and property of foreigners residing in Morocco. Therefore article 17 gives the powers equal treatment concerning the protection of lives and property but does not warrant the German claim that the powers agreed to exercise equal political control of Morocco.

It is desired that Washington and other capitols receiving the German note observe the limit application of article 17.

A cabinet council tomorrow will consider the note. The nature of France's official answer is still in doubt owing to Premier Rouvier's desire to avoid widening the breach between Germany and France.

PARDON

FIREBUG SENT PETITION TO THE GOVERNOR.

BOSTON, June 9.—William R. Buchanan, secretary to his Excellency Governor Douglas, got the first jar he has really felt in the six months he has spent at the state house when Joseph Stoddard of Brockton, who is serving a 30-year sentence for burning Mr. Buchanan's house and other houses, asked Governor Douglas for a pardon.

Stoddard confessed to have set a large number of fires, and in 1898 he was sent to Charlestown for a sentence of 20 to 30 years.

His most sensational fire was upon the home of Mr. Buchanan, one winter midnight, when Mr. Buchanan was barely able to get his family out of the burning dwelling and escape himself.

The letter stated that Stoddard wanted to get out in order to contribute to the support of his own family, and the latter was sent, without the knowledge of Mr. Buchanan, to the prison commission for further facts upon the Stoddard case.

It was not until yesterday that Mr. Buchanan learned who the new applicant for a pardon really was.

At the executive chamber it is said that the secretary fortified himself with a glass of ice water, and then went into executive session with his excellency the governor.

Later it was hinted that there would be no pardon for Mr. Stoddard during the present democratic administration.

THE DEFENDANT

Tells Story of Killing of Malloy

PLYMOUTH, June 9.—The story of the shooting was told at today's session at trial of Antonio Carpenito and James Del Grosso of East Boston charged with the killing of reserve police officer Thomas C. Malloy of Brockton in that city on the night of February 8. When Carpenito was placed on the witness stand, he testified that he and Del Grosso were loading a wagon with some wire alleged to have been stolen near the Boston and Maine railroad tracks just outside of Brockton when Officer Malloy and a man named Fred R. Howard came along. The policeman, Carpenito said, ordered the two Italians to get into the wagon and drive to the police station. When the officer made a motion as if to draw a revolver, Carpenito said, he and Del Grosso started to run. Carpenito fell in climbing a fence and, becoming frightened, he claimed, drew a revolver and fired behind him without aiming. He said he did not know that any of the shots hit Malloy.

The defence expected to rest its case late in the afternoon.

OFFICER SHOT

GIRL SAID THAT HE ASSAULTED HER.

WATERVILLE, Me., June 9—City Marshal Adams has been notified of a complaint made by Miss Lena Clark, aged 14 years, daughter of Mrs. Mary Rue of The Plains, against Special Officer B. C. Chamberlin. The girl alleges according to the story told her mother, that she was assaulted by him about 10 p. m., Tuesday, in a small grove in the vicinity of her home. She went directly home and told her mother and the marshal was notified shortly after midnight, but Chamberlin was not to be found.

Chamberlin was shot in a leg late yesterday afternoon by City Marshal Adams, and arrested. A warrant was sworn out Wednesday night for Chamberlin's arrest, and City Marshal Adams and Deputy Sheriff Toulious began a search for him. As they approached his house yesterday afternoon Chamberlin ran from the rear entrance toward Fairfield Centre. He stopped at Mountain Pond to secure a horse, and was just mounting when the officers arrived.

It is claimed that Chamberlin was attempting to pull a revolver when he was fired upon by City Marshal Adams, who had anticipated such action. The bullet struck Chamberlin's leg, and he surrendered. The wound was dressed at the station house.

FEZ, Morocco, June 7.—Gerard A. Lowther, British minister to Morocco, had an hour's private audience with the sultan this morning and the political situation was fully threshed out. The cordiality of the Sheriffian ruler noticeably differed from his attitude at the official reception of the British minister. It is still hoped here that an agreement will be reached directly between France and Germany as otherwise a long diplomatic struggle disadvantageous to all is foreseen.

Hudges, James Sullivan and James Henry, all of Lowell, were indicted on the charge of breaking and entering. James Cornton, also of that city, was indicted on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Robert E. Kenney of Lowell was discharged by the court, the grand jury having failed to indict him.

ANNA VALENTINA, THE NEW JERSEY MURDERESS

Two Women Will Pay the Death Penalty

Two women sat in the shadow of the hangman's noose when last night's sun went down; for with the sun's setting there went down also their last hopes of escaping the gallows. To Mary Mabel Rogers in Vermont and Anna Valentina in New Jersey only a few days are left before they pass into the hands of the executioner.

It has long been claimed that no woman ever again would be hanged in the United States.

That such prophecies have been erroneous is proven by the fate that certainly awaits these two murderesses, unless something in the nature of a miracle intervenes to stay the vengeance of the law.

In neither case is there any doubt as to guilt.

Mary Mabel Rogers—young and called pretty by many—killed her husband in cold blood.

Anna Valentina—middle-aged, grim and homely—murdered the rival who stole the affections of the man she loved.

Everything that can be done has been done to save these women from the hangman, but all has been in vain.

Mrs. Mary Rogers, now under sentence of death at Windsor jail for the murder of her husband, Marcus, at Bennington, Vt., must pay the penalty for her crime.

She will be hanged a week from next Friday.

In spite of the extraordinary efforts made to save her from the gallows, her fate was sealed yesterday, when Justice Peckham of the United States Supreme Court refused to grant the writ of error necessary to take the case before the United States Supreme Court at Washington.

No further hope remains to the condemned woman, and her attorneys now admit that her execution can no longer be delayed.

The only hope left was that Governor Bell might grant a further reprieve, but that Governor Bell will interfere no more is evident from the statement made by him when he said yesterday: "The law must take its course. I was obliged to grant the second reprieve under the law, but I shall not interfere again. This covers my position in the matter."

MR. SILK SUES

Town of Tewksbury for Damages to Land

Mr. Fred Silk of North Tewksbury, has brought suit against the town of Tewksbury for damage done by drainage of surface water through his land. A local morning paper stated that the town has not damaged Mr. Silk's property in any way.

To a representative of The Sun, Mr. Silk said that the article in the morning paper did him an injustice. "I have been living in North Tewksbury for 15 or 16 years, and I am not looking for trouble with the town or with individuals, but I have rights that must be respected.

"A few years ago I put a drain through my farm for my own convenience and it served the purpose well. Later, the town connected a catch basin to my ditch and the result was that an overflow that injured my property. The town did not have my consent to attach the catch basin and I am seeing to recover for the damage that was done my land."

AL DELMONT

KNOCKED OUT WILIE MACK IN SIXTH ROUND.

LAWRENCE, June 10.—The West End A. C. closed its season of boxing last night by presenting in the feature event Willie Mack of Lawrence and Al Delmont of Medford. Delmont won in the sixth round after one minute of fighting in that round.

It was a pretty go, although Mack was outclassed in ring generalship by Delmont. He made a good showing, always having a dangerous wallop, but Delmont's cleverness stalled him from landing it.

Mack made his best showing in the fourth. He sent the Medford boy spinning with a hard right to the chin, but Al was back like a flash and he kept Mack working fast for the remainder of the bout.

In the sixth in an exhange from a clinch, Delmont swung his right over to Mack's jaw, and the latter went down, his head striking the canvas heavily. He was counted out.

Kid Grady and Kid Barrett sparred six rounds to a draw. Johnny Reagan of Andover beat Kid Gray of Boston in six rounds, and Lew Doestader of Philadelphia went down and out in the fifth before Jone Nelson of Chelsea.

The latter bout was the gamest exhibition ever seen in a local ring, the loser, a negro, taking fearful punishment.

THE RED MEN

WILL PARADE ON THE FOURTH OF JULY.

At a meeting of Passaconaway tribe of Red Men held last night it was voted to ask the Great Council for permission to turn out in full Indian garb in the parade to be held in this city on the Fourth of July, similar to that worn at Worcester last Fourth. The tribe turned out in a Fourth of July parade about a dozen years ago and captured the first prize. They also participated in a Fourth of July parade at Lawrence a year or two later.

Chevalier lodge, Knights of Pythias, has appointed this committee to have charge of the ceremony of decorating the graves of departed brothers a week from next Sunday: Lyman Hodgman, Eugene Collins, Clarence Wheeler, Charles Haskell, Lester Mason. There is no union memorial movement among the lodges this year.

The girl is rather tall for her age, light complexioned, with blue eyes. She wore a black and gray skirt and blue coat trimmed with lace, and on her hat were red and white roses.

READY TO MEET

Russia and Japan Accept Roosevelt's Terms

NEW YORK, June 10, 9.04 a. m.—The Associated Press has definite knowledge that both the Russian and the Japanese governments have accepted President Roosevelt's suggestion and that a meeting of representatives of the two contending powers is assured.

JAPAN

WILL INCLUDE AN INDEMNITY IN HER DEMANDS.

LONDON, June 10, 10.40 a. m.—The keenest interest is manifested in President Roosevelt's note endeavoring to bring Japan and Russia to an understanding. While the British government is not taking any part in the negotiations it is giving the most cordial support to the president of whose actions in the matter it has been kept fully informed. Diplomatic and official circles speak in the highest terms of the diplomatic manner in which the president handled the matter and are fully in accord with what they considered to be the only way in which the difficulty could be overcome. The United States not being entangled in any way was really the only country which could take action but even Pres. Roosevelt could not do more than endeavor to start direct negotiations between the belligerents.

Japan, it can be stated, refused to start the negotiations until fully assured of the earnestness of Russia and that her proposals would be seriously considered. Her demands will include an indemnity, the amount of which has been fixed by the Japanese government and on this point the president is urging lenient treatment. It is considered here that Japan is entitled to an indemnity and it is pointed out that while the payment of an indemnity might affect the standing of Russia among the powers it is not so serious as the loss of territory, besides the payment of an indemnity would be forgotten sooner than the loss of territory and would leave no feeling for revenge. Financial circles in London are of the opinion that the Japanese will demand an indemnity amounting to about $1,000,000,000, that being their estimate of the cost to the Japanese of the 16 months' fighting. This is considered in some quarters to be too large an estimate of the expenditure which is thought to be nearer $500,000,000.

M. WITTE

SAYS CRISIS WILL COME WHEN WAR IS OVER.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10, 12.35 p. m.—The radical press which hounds the government no matter which way it turns, is promptly seeking to take advantage of the new situation created by the possibility of peace. Although for months it has been preaching peace and the abandonment of the whole of the Manchurian adventure at any cost, it has already veered around and pretends to be horrified at the fact that Russia can contemplate the possibility of surrendering her position on the Pacific and purchasing peace at the price of an indemnity after the sacrifice of millions of the people's money and thousands of the people's lives and declares that only the people shall decide whether the country shall submit to this humiliation. These tactics will produce all the more effect since so far as the indemnity goes the radical papers undoubtedly reflect the views of the masses of the Russian people as well as those prevalent in official circles. The status of Vladivostok and the question of indemnity are sure to be the main obstacles to an agreement once the belligerents are brought together, but the crisis for which the solid elements of the opposition are waging war against the government and trying to precipitate constitutes the chief danger.

Solemn words of warning such as those uttered by the Moscow zemstvoists and the mayors of the principal cities who joined with them in the All-Russian zemstvo congress cannot be lightly thrust aside although the government is getting accustomed to hard words. The organization known as the league of professional leagues yesterday, at Moscow, threatened to translate their words into acts unless the government yielded and resolved not only to inaugurate a strike of all the professional classes but to arm in self defense. They also bound themselves not to testify at political trials and to provide for each other's families in case any members suffered a railroad accident or exile. Months ago M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, said to the correspondent of the Associated Press: "There will be no internal crisis now or while the war lasts. The crisis will come when the war ends."

His words seem like a prophecy.

GREAT HOPE

BERLIN OFFICIALS EXPECT PEACE WILL BE MADE.

BERLIN, June 10, 2.30 p. m.—The text of Pres. Roosevelt's message on the subject of peace to the governments of Russia and Japan is regarded at the foreign office here as admirable in spirit and phrasing and positive hope now exists of comparatively early peace. The Russian emperor in fact invited the action of the president and had much to do with the form that the president's representations took. Emperor Nicholas, through the counsel of powerful personal influences in Russia, became disposed toward peace some days in advance of the president's action. It is recognized at the Russian court and at this court also that no man in the world could so well make an appeal for peace as President Roosevelt. His known views, the detachment of the United States from the European system and the good will Japan feels toward the United States, made the president the solitary statesman who could take such a step without either side distrusting him or feeling annoyed by his solicitude. The conviction here is that Russia is now ready for peace and seeks peace, and that the only difficulties not insurmountable by negotiation which might arise lie in the Japanese government's intentions and terms. Emperor Nicholas, now won for peace, would again decide for war should the Japanese attitude be unconciliatory or even one of long hesitation and reserve though it is understand Japan also gave the president some assurances before he acted.

BUILDING NOTES

WHAT THE LOCAL CONTRACTORS ARE DOING.

The city carpenters are busily engaged in laying a new hardwood floor in the office of the chief engineer at the central fire station. The men started ripping up the old floor yesterday and expect to have the new floor laid by tomorrow night. The place was badly in need of a floor as the last flooring laid looked like a crazy quilt, the floor consisting of the odds and ends of the old Huntington hall, the high school annex and some other buildings, many of the pieces being not over a foot long.

When the floor is completed the work of repairing the interior of the central fire station will be practically finished. During the time the workmen have been at the fire house a new floor was laid on the truck side in Palmer street and one where the chief's wagons are kept in Middle street, while stall pans were installed and the stalls repaired. The interior of the building was touched up by the painters and the brick work in Middle street, which was damaged by the falling of the Fellows block, was also repaired.

Attention is called to the John Ayer estate of about 14,000 square feet, corner of Moody and Tilden streets which is offered for sale for the first time for many years. The heirs and trustee are not obliged to sell, but as they have no capital to develop the property for business purposes they have concluded to offer it for sale if a suitable price can be obtained. No better chance could be had for any one wishing to buy the property and either develop it at once for business purposes or do it gradually. Parts of it could be bringing in an income while other parts were rebuilding. It is well rented now and a purchaser taking it now could go on with it as it is until ready to develop it. See advertisement in another column.

Ground for the erection of the new Ennell street school was broken Tuesday by employes of Cyrus Barton, who has the contract for the erection of the foundation. As soon as the excavation has been completed the work of erecting the foundation will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible.

Several recent fires have thrown a little work in the way of several contractors. The fire at the Gray house in Madison street, which destroyed the roof and a good portion of the interior, will cost the owners about $1000 for repairs. A permit to make repairs was taken out at the office of the superintendent of lands and buildings this week.

Carpenters are now at work repairing the buildings of Michael Cohen & Son at 75 and 81 Suffolk street which were damaged by fire last month. The cost of repairing will be about $300.

No permits for the erection of new buildings were taken out at city hall this week, and only three permits for alterations were granted.

During Monday and Tuesday of next week the elevator at city hall will be out of commission as six new cables are to be installed. At the last inspection of the elevator the liability company, which insures the elevator, notified the city officials that several of the cables were wearing, and while the elevator was not in a dangerous condition they would request that new cables be installed before the next inspection or they would not assume any further liability.

TECH MEN

IN FAVOR OF A UNION WITH HARVARD.

BOSTON, June 10.—The corporation of the Institute of Technology at a special meeting yesterday afternoon voted to unite with Harvard university on the basis of the tentative plan which was drawn up some months ago by a joint committee from Harvard and Tech.

There were 32 members of the corporation present at the meeting, with Pres. Pritchett in the chair. The discussion lasted two hours and when the vote was taken it showed 24 in favor of the merger, and 16 against it, including four pairs.

In all there are 47 members on the Tech corporation, including the governor of the state and the chief justice of the supreme court. Neither of these would vote on such a question as it will have to go before both of them later in their official capacities. This left a total of 45 to possibly vote on the question and it is a well-known fact that 20 of these 45 are against the merger. When the vote was polled it showed four pairs, making it 24 to 16 in favor of the merger at yesterday's meeting.

NEW DEPARTURE

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE WILL BE INCORPORATED.

The Lowell Commercial college is to take a long stride in its work as a business educator. The college is to be incorporated, with Mr. Lepaul E. Kimball, the present proprietor, president, Mr. C. C. Dexter of the Lynn Business College, vice president; Mr. George P. Lord, proprietor of the Salem Commercial school, secretary, and Mr. F. A. Spencer of Salem, treasurer.

Mr. Spence will be actively associated with Mr. Kimball in the management of the college. He is a graduate of Brown university, has had nearly fifteen years' experience as an instructor and associate with Mr. Lord in Salem, and during the past year was assistant manager and "model office" expert of the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston, also superintendent of the Boston Situation Department, which has become famous for its success in placing graduates of the three schools already mentioned. Mr. Spence is a practical accountant and will assume charge of the Commercial Department. He will also organize and direct the "model office" of the shorthand department.

The penmanship and shorthand courses will be in charge of Mr. N. D. Clawson, who has at present a similar position with the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston. Mr. Clawson is an expert penman from the Zanerian Art College, Columbus, Ohio, and is an experienced teacher of both the Gregg and Pitman systems of shorthand. He has also been manager of one of the notable Brown Colleges of Ohio.

Miss Bertha F. Hamilton, a former teacher in Tilin's Business Institute, Keene, N. H., who has given excellent satisfaction in the Lowell Commercial college during the past year, will be retained as one of the teachers in the book-keeping department.

A valuable asset of the Lowell Commercial college will be the free services of the Boston situation department in obtaining situations for those of its graduates who desire to locate in Boston and other New England cities.

Extensive additions and improvements will at once be made in both the rooms and the courses of study, the floor space being nearly doubled.

The aim of the Lowell Commercial college is to illustrate to the youth of Lowell and vicinity the highest business principles, to provide the most practical methods of training for business, and to assist its graduates to the largest possible success in business. A catalogue of the college will be issued about July 1, and a copy will be mailed free in answer to request for the same. Callers will be welcomed at the college office, 7 Merrimack street, over the new waiting room, any day throughout the summer.

GOING TO HENLY REGATTA.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Fourteen representatives of the Vesper Boat club of Philadelphia, who go abroad to take part in the rowing competition for the grand challenge cup at the Henly regatta, sailed on the American liner New York today.

CAME TO LOWELL

A Missing Haverhill Woman Was Here

HAVERHILL, June 10. Jennie Sargent, an actress with whom Arthur Williams says is his missing wife, Lizzie, left this city two weeks ago last Monday, returned to this city yesterday and admits that Mrs. Williams has been with her.

"I had nothing to do whatever with Mrs. Williams leaving her husband," she said, "as she went away voluntarily, having been dissatisfied with the conditions at her home. The newspapers have published stories that I lured her away and that is absolutely untrue.

"Mrs. Williams had made up her mind to leave her husband. She is not 18 years old, as has been stated, being only 16, and I know this as I have known her for a long time. We left here Monday, May 22, and went to several places in this state and Connecticut. Some of the places we visited were Hartford and Norwich, Conn. We came back here last Tuesday, intending to secure my trunk and we left again, going to Lawrence.

"I have since been in Lowell, but Mrs. Williams is not with me now, as she is en route to Daytona, Fla., where she is to visit friends. She is coming north again in August, and will join a repertory company, with whom we both have secured an engagement. The company will play in this city late in the fall.

"Before going south Mrs. Williams consulted a lawyer and learned that her husband could not force her to live with him again, and she says she has made up her mind not to, as she has arranged to file a petition for a divorce. She left her trunk with me and I intend looking after it."

Miss Sargent came to this city to try and secure the express company's voucher for the articles that had been shipped to North Adams, but she was unable to, as Mr. Williams said he had lost it. When Miss Sargent confronted Mr. Williams at his photographic gallery, he accused her of having enticed his wife to leave him. She denied this.

Mr. Williams then accused Miss Sargent with having tried to prevent his marriage to Mrs. Williams, and this she admitted, saying she thought then that Mrs. Williams ought not to marry him.

OPEN FRAUD

SAID TO BE COMMITTED AT LEAGUE ISLAND NAVY YARD.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—D. H. Warren, diary and food commissioner of Pennsylvania, yesterday personally furnished to President Roosevelt and the acting secretary of the navy with evidence, alleging that fraud was being committed at the League Island navy yard in the matter of supplying that station with oleomargarine when the contract calls for pure butter. The commissioner furnished the Washington officers with evidence showing that instead of butter, oleomargarine colored in imitation of butter was being sold at 21 cents a pound by a Philadelphia dealer, who has the contract of furnishing various food supplies to the ships at the navy yard, while colored oleomargarine is being sold in the markets where the law does not prohibit it at a much lower rate.

MAJOR CROWLEY

Rosigns From the State Committee

BOSTON, June 10.—The suggestion was made yesterday that Col. A. A. Pope would be brought forward by the democratic leaders as the candidate for governor this fall.

Col. Guston is authority for the statement that so far as he is concerned nothing definite has been done in the matter and no overtures to Col. Pope have been made or are contemplated by officials of the state committee.

Major Robert J. Crowley of Lowell yesterday morning mailed to Capt. John J. Flaherty his resignation as a member of the democratic state committee.

The Crowley resignation is the result of differences in the democratic state committee. A week ago Hon. Charles S. Hamlin resigned as a member-at-large, and today Capt. Flaherty will send to the secretary of the committee at the democratic headquarters in this city his own resignation.

Mr. Hamlin gave no reason for his resignation from the state committee, and the letter which Maj. Crowley sent to the chairman yesterday contains nothing in explanation. It is known, however, that Mr. Hamlin and his friends have been in a minority on the state committee, the supporters of Col. Guston being in a decidedly substantial majority. Mr. Crowley has always been a consistent supporter of Mr. Hamlin.

Major Crowley has been a member of the state committee five years. He was secretary of the executive committee during the Douglas campaign.

EX-MAYOR QUINCY BRINGS ACTION AGAINST BROCKTON MAN.

BROCKTON, June 10.—Josiah Quincy, formerly mayor of Boston, was the plaintiff in a case which was heard before Associate Justice Fred M. Bixby yesterday.

The case was against a Mr. Cox, and the Campello Box company, Mr. Cox formerly being in the company. Mr. Cox, it is alleged, signed over his accounting in the company to Mr. Quincy. About $2000 is involved, it being alleged that this amount is due on machinery formerly owned by Mr. Cox, and transferred to Mr. Quincy.

The Insurance Commissioners of Three States Examine The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company

The Insurance Departments of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Wisconsin, after a rigid examination made at the request of the Board of Trustees of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, officially unite in a report showing the following:

THE COMPANY HAS MORE SURPLUS THAN IT CLAIMS.
INVESTMENTS OF THE HIGHEST ORDER.
DEATH CLAIMS PAID ON RECEIPT OF PROOF OF LOSS.
NEW BUSINESS PROCURED WITH FIDELITY TO THE INTERESTS OF POLICY-HOLDERS.
THE COMPANY IS PURELY MUTUAL—HAVING NO CAPITAL STOCK.
TRUSTEES ARE ELECTED BY THE POLICY-HOLDERS.
CHARTER PROHIBITS PROXY VOTING.
OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY THE TRUSTEES.
TRUSTEES EXERCISE INTELLIGENT AND FAITHFUL SUPERVISION OVER THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS.

It is given to few institutions, possessed like the Penn Mutual Life of nearly SEVENTY MILLIONS of assets, to boast of such splendid management as is evidenced by the report of the searching investigation to which it has just been subjected. The examiners found no subject whatever for adverse criticism. There were no weak spots but, in every direction, overwhelming evidence that the interests of the company's policy-holders are cared for with fine ability and integrity.

Politics in Glasgow and politics in Chicago are about as different as any two things could be.

NORWAY'S SECESSION.

Norway proclaims her independence, but the king of Sweden has not yet consented. The secession of Norway resembles in many respects the secession of the southern states previous to the Civil war in this country, but the point at issue is the tariff instead of slavery. Sweden stands for a high tariff, while Norway is for free trade. If the two countries could get along under one government, they would be able to protect their common interests much better than they can possibly do separately.

INVESTIGATE ALL SPOTTED FEVER CASES.

Spotted fever has caused more than fifty deaths in this city and yet among the physicians there is no unanimity of opinion as to its origin or the proper mode of treatment.

Some say it is caused by the bad weather, others that it lurks only in unsanitary places; while others hold that it is in some way allied to hog cholera, and still others that it is coincident with the prevalence of hydrophobia in dogs.

At first physicians tried anti-toxin but while anti-toxin is a splendid specific for diphtheria it is of no use whatever for spotted fever.

Hence the best treatment that can be given is symptomatic, viz.: when vomiting appears some remedy is given for that; when violent headache occurs rational methods are taken for that and so when the temperature runs high.

But so far as knowing what treatment is best under the circumstances, the doctors are entirely at sea as it were.

New York physicians who made many experiments with the disease have decided that anti-toxin is useless, while one prominent practitioner has given it as his opinion that the germs which produce the disease find their way into the brain through the soft bone of the nose, while other doctors equally reliable say the germs are in the air and that they find their way into the blood same as the germs of diphtheria or other diseases. Where there are so many conflicting opinions it is useless to favor any particular theory for there is none established with sufficient certainty to deserve general acceptance.

Lowell has suffered more from this disease this year than most of the other cities of the state. Why is this?

Already over 80 cases have occurred here and over fifty deaths have resulted. Under such circumstances would it not be advisable for the board of health to institute an inquiry into the conditions surrounding each particular case. The mode of life, the state of the health, the diet, the sanitary environment, the plumbing in the house, and many other things might be ascertained from which some general deductions could be made that would be of use in the future treatment of the disease and in reasoning out the cause.

Where such a mysterious disease cuts off so many lives it seems but reasonable that the health authorities of every city of importance should conduct investigations for themselves in order to add, if possible, some fact of importance to the general knowledge of this disease now so puzzling to the medical profession.

Such an investigation would cost something we presume; but after all there should not be a great deal of cost attached to the visitation of 80 families and the investigation of the circumstances surrounding each particular case. One physician would be needed and the superintendent of the board of health, together with a plumbing inspector, could do the rest.

We believe that such an investigation would bring to light some common cause in all the cases, and would establish also whether or not the disease is contagious. When the present epidemic disappears, there may not be another opportunity to investigate the disease for a number of years; at least we hope it shall not reappear, but in case it should it would be well to be fortified against it to the extent of knowing the cause and something more about the treatment of the disease.

At the present time the physicians of the city, like those of every other city, admit that they know practically nothing of the disease except its deadly effects. If they knew anything of the origin of the disease they might be able to lay down rules for prevention if not for successful treatment. Thus in every light an investigation of all cases of spotted fever is highly desirable in the interests of science and the public health.

CHAPTER VI.
Her maiden name restored by law.

She had been married but three weeks when her husband was brought home in a helpless condition—intoxicated, when she never knew that he was familiar with the taste of liquor. He was put to bed, and she did just what any woman would feel like doing, sat down and cried, relates the Philadelphia Bulletin. That over, she did some hard thinking, seeing the long years stretch ahead with repetitions of that dreadful scene. There was but one question to settle—did she love him well enough to try to save him. She decided that she did, so set her brain to work on a plan of salvation.

A telegram brought to her side the doctor who brought her up, in a medical way, and to him she made a proposition. He was hard to convince, but she pleaded for her future, and he gave in. The "sick" man was doctored, his head shaved and Spanish fly blisters applied where they would be troublesome. Three weeks the man lay in bed, with his devoted wife to nurse him and tell how he had been brought home in an unconscious condition and tended night and day. Not a word about the cause. Whether he believed in her ignorance or accepted his punishment for what it was worth, no one ever knew. Certainly he was a reformed man when he left his bed. She had her reward.

"Any man," said the reformed absorber, "can be cured of a weakness for a special intoxicant. I know, for I had one. My pet drink was brandy, and I was no good in the morning until I had at least a couple of stiffeners. Fortunately for me, I had a wife who was fond of me. I had my own bedroom, and one morning it seemed to me as if the atmosphere as well as the pillows and the bed clothes smelled of brandy.

"There was a bottle of brandy on a small table near the head of the bed, but the cork was in tight. On the same table was a pitcher of ice water. I took a gulp from it and it tasted of brandy, but so weak that it gave me qualms. It seemed to me that the omelet at breakfast and even the coffee tasted of brandy.

"In the train, on the way to my office, I found myself sniffing at my handkerchief; it smelled of brandy. I began to get alarmed, and said to myself: 'The stuff must be coming through my pores.' I didn't have much of an appetite, and waited until I got home for dinner. Every bite and sup I took tasted of brandy.

"This sort of thing lasted for a couple of weeks, by which time the smell or taste of brandy made me sick. 'Sick' is hardly the word for it; not strong enough. I didn't care for any other drink, and I absolutely couldn't touch brandy. Without thinking anything about it, I stopped drinking the stuff.

"My wife kept the secret for two years, and then confessed that the family doctor had advised her to spray my room and my clothes and my food and my drink with brandy."

RILEY VS. EVELETH

CASE REOPENED AND DECISION RESERVED.

The cases of Riley vs. Eveleth were reopened yesterday in Boston, on the motion of counsel for the defence, allowed by Judge Bond.

Deputy Sheriff Eveleth testified in his own behalf, his testimony tending to show that the writ of attachment on the car, in the premises of Mr. Riley, was discharged previous to action on the writ of replevin. His testimony was corroborated by another witness, the keeper in charge of the property at the time. The testimony of the plaintiff, Mr. Riley, offered in rebuttal, was supported by one other witness. Judge Bond took the papers in the case, reserving decision.

At that time they cured me of kidney complaint which had annoyed me off and on for three years or more. I had taken remedies of various kinds, used liniments and wore bandages, but all failed to give me more than temporary relief. It was different with Doan's Kidney Pills. EIGHT HOUR LAW

Applies to Canal Work Says Moody

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The opinion of Attorney General Moody regarding the application of the eight-hour law on the isthmus of Panama was made public yesterday. He holds that the act of August 1, 1892, which limits and restricts to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed by the government of the U. S. or by any contractor or sub-contractor upon the public works of the U. S. applies to the employment of laborers and mechanics in the construction of the Panama canal.

That act, however, the attorney general holds, does not apply to the office force of the isthmian canal commission, stationed on the isthmus of Panama, or to any of the employes of the government who are not within the ordinary meaning of the words "laborers and mechanics." Also that the scope of the act is not limited by the territorial jurisdiction of congress, but is co-extensive with the subject matter to which it was directed, to wit: The conduct of officers and agents of the U. S. in respect to the hours of labor of merchants and laborers upon all public works of the U. S. Congress, he says, may fix the hours of labor upon all the works of the U. S. wherever conducted, and make the law binding upon the officers of the U. S., and through the agency of contracts, upon all contracts with the U. S.

In answer to the request of the secretary of war for an opinion upon the additional question of whether the provisions of the act mentioned apply to the hours of labor of "mechanics and laborers," employed in the construction, maintenance and operation of the Panama railroad and steamship line, the attorney general decides in the negative.

As to whether the eight-hour law applies to that class of employes whose services are necessary before and after the regular hours of work such as engineers who must get up steam in the morning before the regular hours begin, and clean the machinery after the day's work is done, the attorney general says:

"It is believed that giving to the words the meaning which is ordinarily accepted for them and having in mind that the act should not be extended beyond its plain terms, the committee will have no difficulty in determining in each case as it arises, whether the employe is a laborer or mechanic, or whether his duties are such as to warrant some other designation of his employment."

FOR SUCCESS

POINTERS FOR BANK CLERKS AND OTHERS.

At a dinner given recently by the Cincinnati chapter of the American Institution of Bank Clerks, Jacob Schmidlapp, president of the Union Savings Bank and Trust company, made an address on "How to become valuable to the institution which employs you." He said in part:

"What I have to say to you is not drawn from abstract reasoning, but has been revealed by recording my own experience, and is perhaps of no more value to you than the observation of others; for that reason, do not take it too seriously, but remember that an intelligent man will always profit by the experience of others. I can make no better beginning than by advising you to always keep to the truth, no matter what inducements, real or apparent, may be brought to bear. I point to the results of the training at West Point and Annapolis. But one of their many graduates who have filled positions of honor and trust has been found guilty of defalcation.

"Another characteristic which is only secondary to that of truthfulness is politeness. Thirdly, while the interests of the employer and employe may not be identical, they are certainly dependent, and a man cannot have his own interest at heart if he does not, at the same time, do all in his power to promote the welfare of his employer.

"These truisms may seem hackneyed and vain to one who is starting in business and working upon a meager salary, but I can assure you that a man who works with an ideal before him is bound to approach—even if he does not achieve—it. These are fundamental principles which must form the basis of every successful business life, and, while you can not all expect to become presidents of banks, either because there are not banks enough, or for other reasons, and some of you may not reach the management of the departments in which you are employed, you can be polite, which means labors lightened, and every one of you has intelligence enough to be attentive to your business. These three basic qualifications alone will be of manifold value to your employer and to yourself.

"If we agree so far, then I am going to tell you what I think you should do in order to make more secure your advancement. The most valuable characteristic which is developed by practice is economy. No matter how small your salary is, save some portion of it. As soon as you have formed that habit you at once pass from poverty to prosperity. Economy is caused by self-denial, than which there is no greater builder of character. Out of every 50 successful business men 49 will attribute their success to saving, which not only makes a man of greater value to his employers, but makes him a better citizen.

"Learn to trade. When I see a young man buy stationery or anything else for his company with an indifference as to its price I feel that there is no chance for him to become the head of his institution. The trader soon becomes versed in the different phases of his business, takes more interest in his work and his mind becomes more active. Remember, you must first become traders before you can become merchants, between which classes I make a distinction. The former is more selfish in his transactions, is influenced mostly in the interest of his own company; the latter finds pleasure alone in the transaction if the profit be mutual, but it is this training in the business man which adds to his ability as a banker and gives him that education which is not usually offered to a clerk.

"Speculation is one of the worst vices open to a man who occupies a fiduciary relation. Among my acquaintances I can not with assurance point to one who has really profited by speculation. Your knowledge of these matters is comparatively little. Take, for example, railroad stocks. The man who sells them has more knowledge of their intrinsic value than you are inpossession of, and therefore the percentage is against you and finally absorbs your capital."

WELCOME TO CHOATE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Joseph H. Choate, the returning ambassador to the court of St. James, was welcomed home last night by the Pilgrims of the United States at a banquet at Delmonico's at which Bishop Potter, president of the society, presided. The list of those present included the names of many men of national and international repute.

Letters of regret were read from President Roosevelt, Ambassadors Whitelaw Reid, Andrew D. White, Assistant Secretary of State Loomis and others.

Concord Did a Job on Nixey

WHILE WHOLE TEAM WAS BAD

New Pitcher Finished Out the Game

Twelve to naught. Worse and more of it. The Lowell team went to Concord, yesterday, and played a miserable game. They didn't seem to know how to play together while Nixey's curves were as ineffective as a schoolboy's "coaxers." This defeat cannot be blamed to either hard luck or the umpire. It was simply and solely tough playing. Even Capt. Connors, the peer of all the second basemen in the league, went bad and made three errors.

Concord scored 12 runs in two innings, four in the first and eight in the fourth. Nixey was batted out of the game and a Concord youngster named Tonkin took his place, and while promising enough was of no particular use in that game. The Jackson brothers played first and third base again and played finely as far as fielding went. Jimmy Jackson got one single hit. Owen didn't connect. Steventon held Lowell down to four hits with a total of six, while 12 hits were made off Nixey in five innings.

DIAMOND NOTES.

Concord today.

Sec. Morse attended the game yesterday.

Luck will yet turn and we will have great fun fighting up-hill.

Bushey remained at home yesterday and fixed up the pitchers' slab which was sadly in need of filling in.

It was Shriners' day at Concord yesterday and they were out at the game in merry numbers.

Martin Mack is trying to get Nate Pulsifer, the Dean college professor, to play first base. Pulsifer formerly ran the Concord team and he is one of the best in the business.

Nixey Coughlin was released after yesterday's game. A pitcher named Leonard of Jamaica Plain will report on Monday.

Van Zant, with a lot of Nashua admirers rooting for him, yesterday, made two errors on the only two chances he had.

Canobie, Sunday afth. Lynn Cadet.

Mayor Weaver Names His Advisors

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—In accordance with his promise that from now on until the end of his administration he would give to the city of Philadelphia a business administration Mayor Weaver last evening announced the appointment of an advisory committee of 14.

The members of the committee include well known business men, manufacturers, bank presidents, lawyers and one newspaper man, Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press.

One of the developments of the day was the arrest of John A. Acker, general storekeeper of one of the water works stations in this city. He is charged with falsely certifying to the correctness of certain bills presented by the contractors and with accepting bribes while in the performance of official duties. He was given a hearing before a magistrate and held in $2000 bail for further hearing.

Acker was dismissed from the service early in the day and before his arrest occurred.

WOUND FATAL

MANCHESTER MAN COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 10.—Girday H. White, 42 years old, residing on the Candia road in East Manchester, shot himself yesterday afternoon at his home with a 32-calibre revolver, the bullet entering back of the left temple. The wound was fatal.

No reason can be assigned by White's family for his deed. He was in the milk business and well known in this city and the surrounding towns. White died at 11 o'clock last night.

MINOR ACCIDENTS.

Dorothy Driscoll, aged nine years and residing at 45 Cedar street, was treated at the Emergency hospital for a wound to the right hand caused by broken glass.

Charles E. Halligan, aged 20 years, while at work on the foundation of a building yesterday, had his right hand crushed. He received treatment at the Emergency hospital.

THE ACTORS (AS THEY MIGHT HAVE BEEN) AT THE BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

HOBAN PETS WON

Chagnon's Actors Acted Very Badly

"To be or not to be a baseball player. That is the question," quoth Correze, the singer, as the drop of the curtain brought him back in an instant from his love affair in the court of Russia to plain democratic Lowell, and a voice from the top of the wings whispered: "Say, Jack, are you going to play with us tomorrow?"

The answer was: "Not to be" for Jack Chagnon, the clever actor of the Huntington-DeDeyn Stock company who led a team of Opera House Indians to Spalding park to do battle with the celebrated Hoban Pets proved conclusively that while a good actor he couldn't even act the part of a ball player, except on the coach line where his great voice aroused the echoes. There has been some talk of late as to the ability of the male members of the company to play the national game, and in order to prevent them from becoming conceited Tommy Hoban uncaged his Pets and "slaved" them at the actors with dire results.

Of course there's an excuse, for at the last moment Messrs. Huntington-DeDeyn, Burtt and Sullivan failed to appear. Donald Meek and Tom Carroll showed up but refused to move off the bench. "We kind of like this sort of thing, don't yer know," said Mr. Meek, as he and Carroll munched sandwiches in the shade and watched their perspiring brethren. Thus only Chagnon and Dan McCabe were the only real Thespians in the east. But not to be undone they formed a team out of stage hands and had all sorts of fun. Dan McCabe caught for the actors and Chagnon roamed about in right field. A young man named Vallière, who used to be rung in as a French count, landlord, soldier, galley slave, or any other old job French when the "rep" companies were short a man, did the pitching. On first base was Cookie, the Opera House "rep" who isn't even eligible for a job on the police team. On second base was Frank Devlin, the husky basketball player, who is a member of the Bachelor club minstrels, got by as an actor.

For short stop they had Little Deacon Baxter who has been shifting scenes more regularly than the flyest bank absconder that ever hiked away from his native berg. Then the Deacon is an old time actor for he used to be the Jim Hackler of Centralville politics before Little Tommy Gallagher grew up. On third base was "Artie" Devlin, Frank's young brother who nightly does a turn behind the scenes and who used to play the heavies for the South Common Dramatic club a few years ago. In left field was "Bob" Guthrie, the A. C. Wheelock of the bunch, that is, the property man, though Bob is non-taxable. Bob has played a variety of parts during his many years' connection at the Opera House and makes a most valuable addition. Owing to his great length he has to do the stretching whenever "Hands Across the Sea" strikes the town, while he is invaluable in playing the part of a tree in all rustic scenes. Tom Mack, who makes the lightning and thunder and also hands out snow storms to the homeless heroine and in fact regulates all the stage weather basked in the sunshine of centrefield while the mighty Chagnon, shrugged none in right field.

For the Pets, "Side of Sausage" Carney was behind the bat and "Stiff" Moore on the slab. Jimmy Mulvaney whose dome glistened like the Boston State House in the sunlight, held down first. Tommy Hoban himself played second and is now walking with a cane. Allie Cudworth of High School baseball fame, was at short and Billy Mealey on third. "Jack" Kelly, the heavy hitter and splitter, galloped through left field. Charlie Heads held down center and Fred Tighe looked more like Charley Armstrong than ever in right field for he worked like him.

Little Jockey Brady had charge of the refreshment booth and poured with all the grace of a society bird. George Callahan wiped the sweat off the brow for the actors and "Frosty" Merrill officiated in a similar capacity for the Pets. "Jack" Barry was brought out as mascot for the actors but he fell asleep and they lost the game while he wasn't working.

The game was full of features. It would take columns to recount them all. There was a barrel of fun and no "scraps" and those who failed to show up missed a fine afternoon's sport.

LEADING SECTIONS OF THE BILL

Town Schools Preparing for Closing

A special town meeting was held in Dracut this afternoon in the center meeting house. The gathering was called to order at 2 o'clock and it was announced that the purport of the meeting was to take some action on the question of establishing a water supply for a portion of Dracut. The water supply district will include a part of the Navy Yard, Dracut Centre and Ledge Hill. The district is about one-half mile wide. The legislature passed an act authorizing the town to establish a water supply, the bill providing several conditions, one of which was that it should be accepted by the people before it could be operative, and it was to take action on this that the meeting was called.

In the district which is known as the water supply section there are close on to 300 voters, and it is the general belief among these men that Dracut would be greatly benefited by accepting this opportunity of providing the house in that section with a suitable water supply. It is argued that a system of driven wells can be established, a reservoir erected on Marsh hill, and the system of water works placed in running order for the sum of $50,000. The belief in town was that the act would be accepted by the voters, but should it fail at this meeting, then it can be brought up for action at any town meeting called within three years.

The bill as passed by the legislature contains fourteen sections, the most important of which are as follows, inasmuch as they provide for the method of payment of damages and also for the establishment of the plant proper:

Section 3. Said water district shall within sixty days after taking any land, rights of way, water rights, water source or easements as aforesaid, otherwise than by lease or purchase, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the district in which the same are situated a description thereof sufficiently accurate for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for.

Section 4. Said water district shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any lands, water source or water rights, or by laying or maintaining any aqueducts or other works for the purpose aforesaid, or by the doing of any other act under authority hereof. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, and unable to agree with the said district upon the amount thereof, may have them assessed in the manner provided by law with respect to land taken for highways. Any person or corporation whose water rights are thus taken or affected may apply as aforesaid within one year after the time when the water is actually withdrawn or diverted, and not thereafter.

Section 5. For the purpose of paying all expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this act, said district may from time to time issue bonds, notes or certificates of debt, signed by the treasurer of the water district and countersigned by the chairman of the water commissioners hereinafter provided for, to be denominated on the face thereof Dracut Water Supply District Loan, to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, payable at periods not exceeding thirty years from the dates of issue, and bearing interest payable semi-annually at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum. Said district may sell such securities at public or private sale, at not less than par, or pledge the same for money borrowed for the purposes of this act, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper. Said district shall pay the interest upon the loan as it accrues, and shall provide for the payment of said principal at maturity by making such annual proportionate payments as will extinguish the same within the time prescribed by this act. The amounts which may be necessary to make such payments shall without further vote of said district be raised annually by taxation in the way hereinafter provided

Section 6: Said district shall raise by taxation annually a sum which with the income derived from the sale of water and the payments from the town of Dracut for hydrants service will be sufficient to pay the current annual expenses of operating its water works and the interest accruing on the bonds issued by said district, together with such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act. Said district is further authorized by a two-thirds vote of the voters thereof present and voting at a legal meeting called for the purpose, to raise by taxation any sum of money for the purpose of enlarging or extending its water works and providing additional pipes, appliances and fixtures connected therewith, not exceeding $2600 in any one year.

Section 7. The town of Dracut may by a two-thirds vote of the legal voters present and voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose guarantee the payment of said bonds, notes or certificates of debt, provided such meeting is held within one year after the acceptance of this act by said district.

The teachers and pupils in the different schools of the town are making great preparations for the closing of the term which will take place on June 23. Exercises will be held and the awards of merit made.

Business at the mills in town is booming and it looks as if the woolen industry particularly has taken a brace. The mills in Dracut, the Navy Yard and Collinsville are working night and day and it is reported that the management of the Collinsville mills contemplates the construction of a new weave room.

Mrs. Benjamin Shaw, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Mark L. Shaw, the well known baker, has returned to her home in Nova Scotia. She was accompanied by Mrs. William Holton, and Annie Hutchinson, who will spend the summer there.

NO. CHELMSFORD

Temperance Men Have Pleasant Jubilation

The St. John's Total Abstinence society of North Chelmsford lived up to its good reputation last evening when it entertained a large number of friends who were instrumental in making their recent turnout in the 250th anniversary parade a success. The affair was held at its hall in Branch street and there was a large attendance.

The early evening was given over to the pleasures of dancing to music by Leith's orchestra. At intermission tables were arranged about the hall and a farmer's repast was served. The entertainment following the repast consisted of piano solos by William Leith.

President John E. Harrington then rapped to order and in a few well chosen words introduced as chairman ex-President Stephen T. Ward. Mr. Ward spoke interestingly of the recent event and thanked those in attendance for their interest in the society. Other speeches were made by ex-Rep. William J. Quigley, who was chief marshal of the parade, President Thomas M. Twomey and Treasurer Edmund Costello of the Father Mahews of North Billerica, President John V. Donoghue, of the Mathew Temperance Institute of this city, Miss Theresa McCabe, president of the St. John's Ladies' Auxiliary, all of the speakers voicing the sentiments of their respective bodies for the success of the St. John's Total Abstinence society. After the speaking a vocal and instrumental program was carried out and later general dancing was resumed.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of President John E. Harrington, ex-President Stephen T. Ward, James F. Leahy and Patrick Connolly.

HOUSE EMPTY

FURNITURE REMOVED WHILE WIFE WAS ABSENT.

DUXBURY, June 10—Harvey J. Day, 28 years old, and one of the best known residents of the town, has been missing from his home on Cove street since Thursday, and his wife is prostrated at her home and in a very serious condition. Mrs. Day is about 25 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Mrs. Day left Thursday morning with her mother to attend a circus at Plymouth, Mr. Day having, she says, earnestly advised her to go. As soon as Mrs. Day had taken the train for Plymout a furniture van drove up to the Day residence and Mr. Day, with the help of one of the men on the team, began to load the furniture into the wagon.

The neighbors were surprised, but said nothing about it, although they had not heard that the Days intended to move. As soon as the van was loaded it was driven toward Boston, with Mr. Day on the seat with the driver.

Mrs. Day came home from the circus with her mother, and found the house empty. She has been in a very serious condition since, and two physicians have been in constant attendance ever since.

PAUL MORTON RESIGNS NAVY PORTFOLIO TO MANAGE EQUITABLE.

MORTON THE MAN

New Head of the Equitable Life

HYDE SELLS STOCK CONTROL

Grover Cleveland Asked to Be Trustee

NEW YORK, June 10.—Paul Morton, who will retire from the secretaryship of the navy on July 1, was yesterday elected chairman of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society.

His election marks the first and most important step in the reorganization of the society and was followed by the tender of the resignations of President James W. Alexander, Vice President James H. Hyde, Second Vice President G. E. Tarbell, Third Vice President George T. Wilson and Fourth Vice President William H. McIntyre.

Mr. Morton, as was last night explained by Senator Chauncey M. Depew, was the unanimous choice of the board of directors of the Equitable, although the meeting yesterday was not altogether harmonious.

It is known that Brayton Ives and Charles Stewart Smith, who were from the outset of the controversy on the side of the conservative element, protested against some of the proceedings and it is believed Mr. Ives voted against Mr. Morton's election.

The new chairman, to further quote Senator Depew, did not consent to take office until he had received positive assurances that he would have a "free hand as to measures and men."

Mr. Hyde "divested" himself of the majority control, but as made clear in his letter to the board, retains a substantial interest in the society.

All of the resignations submitted to the meeting are subject to the pleasure of Chairman Morton, and none has yet been accepted.

Just what action Mr. Morton will take as to the resignations was not disclosed, but it was strongly intimated that President Alexander and Vice Pres. Tarbell, Wilson and McIntyre retired with the belief that their executive relations with the Equitable had ended.

The interests to which Mr. Hyde disposed of his stock number some two score individuals, led by Thomas F. Ryan, vice president of the Morton Trust company, which has close relations with the Mutual Life Insurance company, one of the Equitable's principal rivals.

Mr. Ryan is said to be heavily insured in the Equitable, as are, according to report, many of the others who acted with him in the purchase of the Hyde holdings.

The price paid for the Hyde estate stock, which is to be trusteed practically in perpetuity, was not disclosed, but estimates vary from $3,500,000 to $5,000,000.

In addition to the 502 shares held by the Hyde estate, which includes the widow of Henry B. Hyde, founder of the society, and his daughter, Vice President Hyde is sai dto hold between 150 and 17 0shares, and it is this holding to which Mr. Untermeyer refers in a statement as the "substantial interests" which his client retains. He has since the beginning of the Equitable controversy acted as Mr. Hyde's counsel.

The men requested to hold the majority stock by Mr. Ryan are ex-President Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse of Pittsburg and Morgan J. O'Brien, recently elevated to the chief justiceship of the appelate division of the supreme court of this district.

DEMAND RIGHTS

Russian People Not Begging Terms

ADDRESS TO THE EMPEROR

Amounts to Threat of Civil War

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10—M. Boutiron, first secretary of the French embassy, had a long conference with Foreign Minister Lamadorf yesterday afternoon and M. Bompard, the French ambassador, is hurrying back from Paris, France, instead of displaying jealousy at the initiative taken by President Roosevelt with a view to bringing Russia and Japan together for peace, has apparently warmly welcomed it and will give its cooperation.

No further definite development is now expected until President Roosevelt returns to Washington from his trip to Virginia.

Statements in the despatches that the president's sole aim is to bring the warringpowers in direct negotiations have been confirmed. There has been no undertaking on his part to apprise Russia of the Japanese terms nor, it is believed, to find a preliminary basis for negotiations. The main obstacle to the president's efforts has been removed with the emperor's acquiescence in his initiative and negotiations are probably now proceeding at Tokio.

When the question of the naming of peace plenipotentaries is raised, the name of George De Staal, who preceded Count Benkendorff as Russian ambassador at London, and who was president of the peace conference at The Hague in 1899 at once occurs to every Russian.

Notwithstanding the progress already made a great deal of skepticism is manifested in certain quarters as to the result of President Roosevelt's demarches. The public seems reluctant to believe that the emperor could have assented to anything like a movement toward peace. Some cynics even try to create the impression that Russia is only seeking to ascertain Japan's terms, and then, by flaunting the hard conditions imposed in the faces of the representatives of the people when they meet, arousing the whole nation to resist them. Such talk, however, is mere irresponsible chatter. The emperor has cast the die and will make peace if Japan's terms be such that Russia can accept them with dignity.

The commencement of formal peace negotiations, especially coupled with the prompt announcement of the convocating of a national assembly, may avert the threatened crisis which the liberals are forcing upon the government or it may only serve to precipitate it.

Moscow is now a perfect hotbed of protest against the existing regime and the address which the deputation from the All- Russian zemstvo congress held there has brought to St. Petersburg to present the emperor, has fairly stunned the members of the government. Nothing approaching such language used in the document from men of such standing as those who signed it, has ever before been heard in Russia. There is a peremptory ring about it which is ominous.

BOXING GOSSIP

Pugilists as a class are not always ready to praise their brother professionals. Often a victorious fighter will give vent to some nice remarks about a rival, but it is usually made in a spirit of pride. Since Jim Jeffries announced his retirement from the game of hit, stop and get away, there are any amount of bruisers who have come forward with a kind word about the champion. Corbett, until Jeffries came into the limelight, believed that there was no man in the ring who could swap punch for punch with him and win. Corbett did not regard the victory of Fitzsimmons at Carson City over him as anything else but a fluke. He thought that it was a lucky blow that Fitz got home that whipped him and probably harbors the idea today, although it is strange that they have never met again since that time. However, this is no fault of the Cornishman, who has tried every conceivable thing to get the Californian to engage in a return essay, but to no purpose. This is what Corbett has to say about Jeffries's retirement, and in view of Corbett's reluctance in the past to give credit to a rival his remarks are interesting:

"Jeffries will be looked upon as the champion as long as he lives. You cannot take that title away from him because he has decided to quit. He must be defeated first, and tell me, who is to accomplish such a feat at this time? I don't know of any man. He is in a class by himself and always will be. There is no one in sight who can give him an argument, and so naturally he is forced to retire. Jeffries is only 30 years old, and he could come back in five years and go through the list of the men he has already whipped and do the same thing over once more. If in the meantime a good fighter should appear and whip a few of the light heavyweights you can bet that Jeffries will return to the ring and go after this new man. He likes boxing too well to keep away from it for good. Especially would this be true should any foreign country produce a heavyweight champion. I think Jeffries today is a much better man than John L. Sullivan was in his prime. I fought them both and I ought to know. Jeffries, while he is not as fast on his feet as some of them, is just as quick in other ways. What is more, he has the punch, and this counts the most nowadays in ring contests. He showed that when he beat both Fitz and Sharkey. These two men were supposed to be stiff hitters themselves. But he outpunched them and won."

Regarding Corbett's assertion that Jeffries is a better man than Sullivan ever was in the heyday of the latter's career, there are a lot of fistic critics who agree with him in this respect. In comparing both men physically and mentally, Jeffries holds the palm over Sullivan. Sullivan, when he was the champion was a powerful, rugged man. Nature endowed him with a physique of iron, but by dissipation and riotous living his wonderful frame began to weaken. By the time he met Corbett he was but a shadow of his former self, and it is thought that plenty of big men, not even as clever as Corbett, could have whipped John L. at the time. Sullivan may have been as stiff a puncher as Jeffries is today, especially with his right hand, but it cannot be said that he was as scientific. Jeffries grew from a rough and ready fighter into a capable boxer in a short time and today it must be said that he knows as much, if not more than Sullivan did when he was champion. Looking up Jeffries's record, it cannot be denied that the men he has defeated were better and know more about boxing than were the men Sullivan conquered. Probably the best man Sullivan ever fought in point of skill was Charley Mitchell. Sullivan fought the Briton a draw. This fight did not redound much to Sullivan's credit in view of the fact that Mitchell weighed less than Sullivan and was badly handled.

Mitchell might have won that mill had he been looked after more carefully in his corner. Sullivan differed in many respects from Jeffries and it must be said that the Bostonian is the more popular of the two. Billy Delaney, after Jeffries became the champion, took the boilermaker with him on a tour through the lower East side. Delaney made Jeffries visit all the saloons in that part of the town, mingled with the real "push," so to speak, and showed Jeffries how to ingratiate himself with the folks that are the real patrons of the prize ring. Wherever Jeffries went Delaney would proudly introduce him individually to every one who wished to meet the Californian. The man in tatters or the sport in diamonds, it made no difference to Delaney. He insisted that they were all the same to Jeffries. This procedure helped Jeffries to become popular, but it was not the popularity of John L. Sullivan. It seemed to be forced and artificial and died away in time. Jeffries is better thought of today than when he became the leader in his class. It may be that the public has come to the conclusion that he is really great and that greatness should be respected even in a prize fighter.

"Rump" Meeting Calls It Off

NOT ANY SIGNS OF PEACE YET

In Teamsters' Trouble in Chicago

CHICAGO, June 10.—Peace negotiations between the teamsters and State street merchants, either individually or collectively, are at an end and hereafter all meetings for the purpose of bringing the strike to a close must be arranged through John V. Farwell, Jr., chairman of the action committee of the Chicago Employers' association.

In view of the repeated declarations of the employers that no further concessions will be given, an acceptance in full of what offers may be made by the Employers or a calling off of the strike are now the only avenues by which the teamsters can get rid of the fight.

Declarations by President Shea and other strike leaders are to the effect that the demands of the employers that union buttons must be discarded and that police protection shall continue even if the strike is declared at an end, never will be accepted. With these obstacles tendering the strike hereafter, it is believed, will consist mainly of a test of endurance on the part of the teamsters. Union officials assert that as long as sufficient funds are received, there will be no breaks in the ranks of the strikers.

Aroused by bitter speeches attacking the policy of paying one day's pay each week for the support of striking clothing cutters and garment workers, made at a meeting of clothing cutters' union, local No. 12, two hundred members of the local have held a "rump" meeting after the regular session had adjourned and declared off the strike that has been lost. It was sympathy for the idle men that precipitated the teamsters' strike.

The council finance committee has decided to give the additional policemen employed for strike during a higher salary than ordinarily is paid regular policemen in the first few months of their service. This is a recognition for the men's willingness to serve at the present time and because they hold only temporary positions, with no opportunity for promotion. The new men will be paid $2.50 a day instead of $2.00, which usually is given policemen in the first stage of their employment. As there now are about 1400 additional policemen the city must pay $3500 a day in salaries for the temporary force.

KING ALFONSO

SAYS FAREWELL TO LONDON TOWN.

LONDON, June 10.—King Alfonso left London for Spain this morning. He apparently thoroughly enjoyed his visit and the character of the farewells testified to the cordiality of the feelings of the host and guest. King Edward and the duke of Connaught accompanied the Spanish king to the railroad station where he met the Spanish ambassador, Senor Polo de Bernabe, the rest of the Spanish embassy, foreign Secretary Lansdowne and others. King Edward entered the royal car with his guest and engaged in a few minutes earnest conversation with him. As the train moved out of the station King Alfonso stood at the window waving farewells to the members of the British royal family who stood bareheaded until the Spanish king had disappeared from their sight.

THE CREW LOST

The Brigantine Acacia Went Down

HALIFAX, N. S., June 10.—The relatives of Captain Duncan Munro and crew of the Port Medway brigantine Acacia have given up hope of seeing them again, and it is the general opinion here that they have been lost. The brigantine sailed from this port April 6, for Jordan River. Nothing was heard of her until more than a month later. On May 8 the vessel was sighted in latitude 41° 5' north and longitude 67 west, abandoned and waterlogged, by a Gloucester, Mass., fishing vessel. No trace of the crew has been seen by any mariner, so far as known. This month an empty boat, bearing the name "Acacia" was found drifting off Southern Nova Scotia.

Captain Munro's home is at Bay View, near Pictou. When he was home in March he told his family that the trip he was about to go on was the last that he would make, as he intended to retire. Capt. Munro sailed for several years as first officer on one of the Dominion Atlantic railway boats between Boston and Yarmouth. With him was a crew of four or five persons, mostly Nova Scotians.

The Acacia was one of the last vessels of her rig in Atlantic waters. She was built at Port Medway in 1881 and registered 176 tons.

BARN BURNED

LATEST BLAZE ON SCHOOL SCHEDULE LAST NIGHT.

An alarm from box [illegible] South at 9:30 o'clock last night sent a call to the fire department to a vacant house and barn in School street, near Liberty street, the building being the property of Mr. David Chase.

When the department arrived the flames were shooting through the roof, but after several lines of hose were laid and directed on the burning building the flames were extinguished.

WINDOW CURTAIN BLAZE.

A still alarm at 7:5 o'clock last night, was for a curtain fire in a house in High street owned by the Fox heirs. The wind blew the curtain across a heated gas jet and the curtain was soon ablaze. The members of engine 3 extinguished the flames.

PEAK SISTERS.

"The Peak Sisters" of this city went to Cambridge Wednesday evening and gave an entertainment in the vestries of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church of that city. Among those present were: Miss Ella Whitman, who directed the program, Miss Clara Whitman, Miss Ethel Tuttle and Miss Alice Rhuns, all of this city, and Miss Hattie Harris, recently of Lowell, and four young ladies of the local church.

The Lowell young ladies made a great hit and will always be welcome in Cambridge. The pastor, Rev. E. M. Pickles, assured the young men of the church that if they could induce any or all of the Lowell young ladies to reside permanently in the "City of Peaks" they would make a fine investment.

THE KING OF ABYSSINIA IN FULL COURT DRESS.

The cut represents Menelik, the ruler of Abyssinia, in all the splendor of court regalia. Although he is an African of more than ordinary ability, as was shown by his skill in securing the crown and putting an end to the Italian protectorate, there is a well defined streak of barbarism in his nature. This is especially manifest in his love for glitter and display. When he is arrayed in all his glory—which is at least equal to that of King Solomon, whose relative he claims to be—Menelik might easily be mistaken for an especially gorgeous animated Muscovite icon. His sinewy body is clad in a robe weighted with jeweled embroidery, and his ebony head is surmounted by a tiara whose gems might make a Roman pontiff envious.

A GIFTED ROYAL AUTHORESS.

Princess Feodora of Slesswick-Holstein, the youngest sister of the German empress, has recently published a volume of idyls with the title of "Der Wald" ("The Forest"). The work, although sent out under the pseudonym of F. Hugin, attracted so much attention that it will probably be accorded the distinction of an English translation. The book was so much admired by the German emperor that he had a beautiful edition de luxe prepared, and he has sent copies of it to all the royalties in Europe. It is illustrated by its talented author, and the drawings are remarkably good.

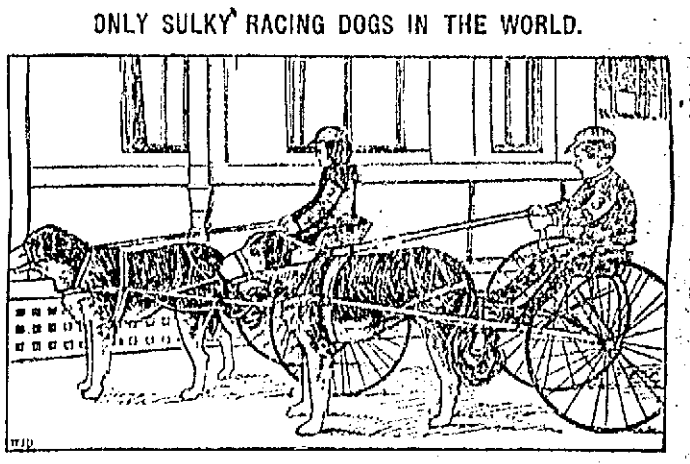
LOST BRITISH LAND.

Great Britain lost 148,906 acres between 1867 and 1880 by the encroachment of the sea and 29,155 acres between 1880 and 1890. A survey in the reign of Edward I. gave the duchy of Cornwall 1,500,000 acres, but the ordnance survey some years ago showed that this had been reduced to 829,500 acres. Villages have disappeared in the ocean, as in the case of Dunwich, of which nothing remains but a ruined church on the edge of a cliff.

A FAMOUS PENNSYLVANIA ROCK.

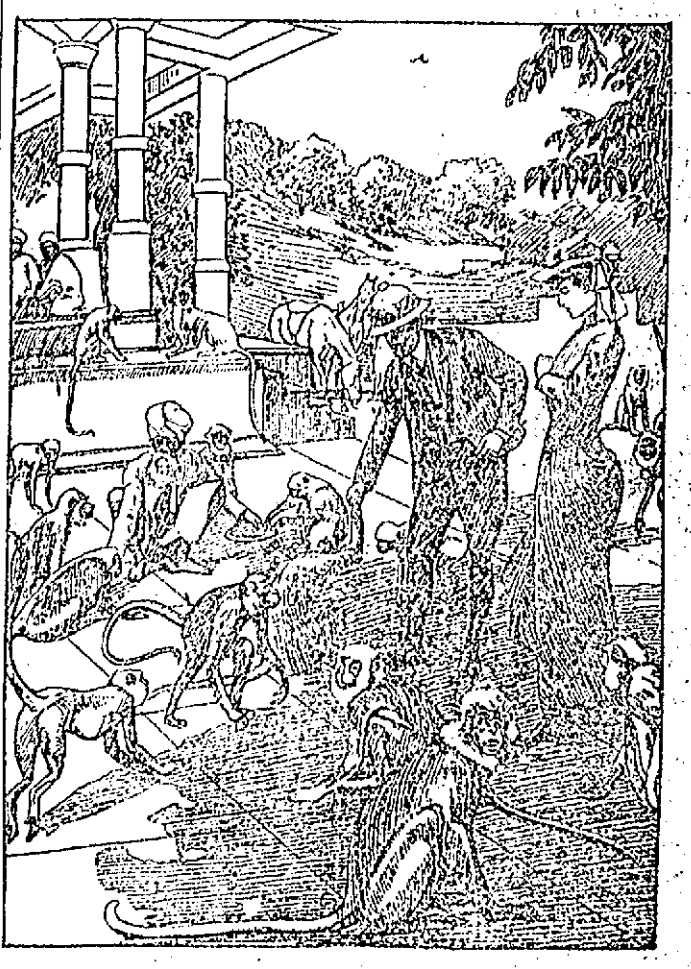
The great rock shown in the picture is a favorite resort of Philadelphia picnic parties. It is near the picturesque Pennypack creek, about eleven miles northeast of Independence hall. It is in a wild and secluded spot and is rather difficult of access, but it has numerous visitors in spite of that fact. Its surface is almost perfectly flat, comparatively smooth and large enough to accommodate a cotillion party. It is known locally as the Rock of Ages.

ONLY SULKY RACING DOGS IN THE WORLD.



As far as is known the two dogs shown in the cut are the only ones that have been trained to follow the race track driven to sulkies. These intelligent and speedy St. Bernards are the property of the little boy and girl who are driving them, the children of M. J. Brooks of Franklin, N. H. Jumbo and Mascot, as they are called, show the true racing spirit and are eager to win. When their young drivers hold a tight rein the dogs trot, and when given full rein they break into a run, and a speedy one. These novel racing animals are only a year old. Their enterprising breeder intends to make dog racing popular.

A WAYSIDE TEMPLE IN INDIA.



The cut represents one of the numerous wayside temples which are scattered along the public roads in India. These rather neglected places of worship are usually in charge of some mendicant holy man, who is anxious to supply the passing traveler with reeds and nuts with which to feed the monkeys that come trooping out of the neighboring jungle. Although all animal life is held sacred in India, the ape, from his resemblance to man, is an object of special veneration. It is considered unlucky to offend one of these highly esteemed simians, and in consequence of the protection they receive they have multiplied greatly and are utterly devoid of fear. It is a saying in India that a native will meekly submit to an insult from a monkey which he would resent were it offered by a man.

SOME TYPES OF GREAT RUSSIANS.

The Muscovite villagers shown in the cut are at the door of their izaba, or hut, which is made of hewn logs with the intervening spaces filled with mud. The man is the village shoemaker, and he is using his doorstep as a bench. His wife and mother are dressed in the typical peasant costume and wear silk handkerchiefs on their heads both indoors and out. The Russian women of the lower classes all wear the head coverings shown in the picture, while the men seldom have the head covered at all during the warm season. Most of them wear the hair long and, as a rule, do not shave after they reach middle age.

WIFE OF A NOTED FRENCH AUTHOR.

Mme. Edmond Rostand, herewith depicted, is the talented wife of the young French poet and playwright who wrote "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "L'Aiglon." Mme. Rostand possesses great dramatic talent and is one of the cleverest amateur actresses in Paris. She is in great demand in society theatricals, and her own little entertainments are among the most popular and exclusive social affairs in the republic.

AN ASIATIC TUNNEL.

The tunnel shown in the cut is the only subterranean portion of the great Transsiberian railroad system, and as such it merits notice for the suggestive inscriptions which are on the arches over the entrances. On the western side are the words, "To the Pacific ocean." On the other side the legend inscribed over the entrance is, "To the Atlantic ocean." This tunnel is near the city of Harbin, which is the only inland base remaining to the Russian army. It is cut through the fortified hills on the west side of the city. At Harbin the road branches, one division going east to the sea and the other south to Port Arthur.

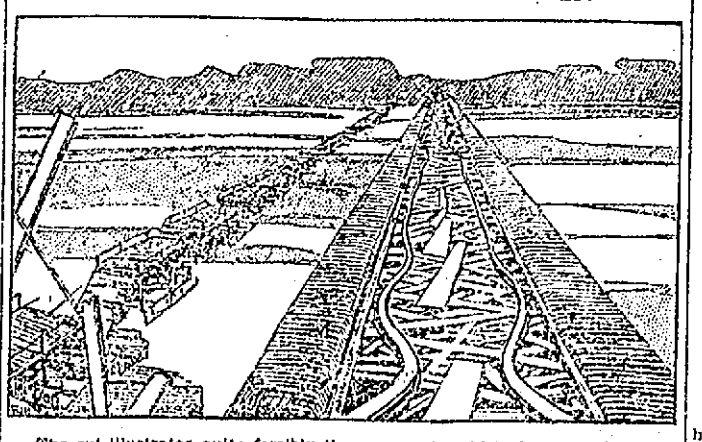
HOW THE JAPANESE ADVANCE IS DELAYED.



This cut illustrates quite forcibly the manner in which the retreating Russians devastate the country as they move. The pursuing Japanese find the railroads badly damaged and the bridges either blown up or torn to pieces. The mikado's engineers are kept constantly busy at repairing these wrecks, and thus much time is consumed. This, however, is precisely what is intended, since the longer the delay the less chance there is to be overtaken. If the streams are fordable and will admit of the passage of the supply wagons the Japanese do not wait to repair the dismantled bridges.

CAMBRIDGE MEN

Fifteen Were Indicted in Secret

BOSTON, June 10.—The Middlesex grand jury, which reported yesterday, returned secret indictments, said to be 15 in number, against men prominent in Cambridge politics, and the police are searching for the parties indicted. James A. Montgomery, ex-representative and superintendent of parks, was the first to fall into the net. He was arrested on a capias last night, but was immediately bailed by two friends in the amount of $1000.

The charge against the men, on which the indictments were found, was "taking a false oath and signing a false certificate," in connection with the registration of last fall.

It has been the custom, it is alleged, for politicians to remain in the room where sessions of the registrars of voters were held and to certify indiscriminately to the oaths of would-be voters that they were residents of Cambridge on the preceding May 1.

It is not publicly known who the instigators of the move against these men are, but it has been known that Sergt. Gordon and others have been at work on the case for some weeks. It is claimed that some 15 men were implicated, with the result that indictments were returned against nearly all of them.

Other than Montgomery, the names of those who were indicted have been kept secret, but it is said that when all are under arrest there will be surprise throughout the length and breadth of the University city.

PATRICK GUILTY

Court of Appeals Decides Against Him

ALBANY, N. Y., June 9.—The court of appeals today by a divided court, voting 4 to 3, sustained the lower courts in adjudging Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer, guilty of murder, first degree, in causing the death of William Marsh Rice. On April 7, 1902, Patrick was convicted on an indictment charging him with the murder of Rice by chloroform and mercury administered to him during his sickness on Sept. 23, 1900. The case reached the court of appeals on March 14, of this year, when David B. Hill, who appeared for the appellant, based his argument for a reversal mainly on the contention that the condition of Rice's body revealed by the post-mortem examination, might have been caused by fluids in embalming.

The prevailing opinion is by Judge Gray, with whom concur Judges Bartlett, Haight and Werner. There is a dissenting opinion by Judge O'Brien, Chief Judge Cullen and Judge Van concurring, Chief Judge Cullen filing also a memorandum.

The accused was a New York lawyer and has succeeded in postponing the ultimate decision of his fate for over three years by a display of acumen and resourcefulness that has excited the wonder of the members of the bar and the public at large. The opinion of the court, written by Judge Gray, is exhaustive, reviewing the record in every detail and containing upwards of 16,000 words.

Judge Gray sets forth that the theory for the people was that the defendant had conspired with Charles F. Jones, the valet or sometimes called the secretary of Rice, to kill Rice and that the defendant procured Jones to administer chloroform to him while he was asleep, in the accomplishment of their joint purpose. This purpose, they say, had as a motive the desire to obtain possession of Rice's estate. Through a will in favor of the defendant and through various transfers to him of properties all purporting to have been executed by Rice ,but which had, in fact, been forged by the defendant with Jones' aid. The defence is based upon a denial that Rice's death was effected by violent means, or that it was by the procurement of the defendant; and the proposition is advanced that the forgeries were not brought home to the defendant, or if the evidence warranted the finding that they were, that that fact did not necessarily fasten upon him a criminal agency in the murder.

It was not claimed that Patrick personally committed the murder; for the prosecution had the voluntary confession of Jones that it was he who did it, induced and aided thereto by Patrick; but the defendant was a principal in the commission of the crime, under our law if he aided and abetted it, whether present or absent; or if he, directly or indirectly, "counselled, commanded, induced or procured" another to commit it. The trial therefore presented these questions to the jury upon the evidence, whether it was established, that the death was the result of poisoning or whether that result was aided, or abetted, induced or procured by this defendant. Circumstantial evidence was sufficient for their determination ,death being admitted, if it was of such a character, as to leave an inference of guilt the only reasonable one possible from the facts disclosed.

After a review of the evidence, the opinion continues:

"The jury might well find upon the evidence that the death was not the result of natural causes an dthat it was due to some criminal agency.

RUNAWAYS

MANCHESTER LADS WERE IN THIS CITY.

BOSTON, June 10—Two sad, worn out, hungry boys of 14 and 16 years of age are being detained at the Medford police station, where they voluntarily gave themselves up to Sergt. Ewell late last night, claiming that they had run away from their homes in Manchester, N. H., because they were discharged from the mills. After being washed and fed they were put to bed.

The elder boy, Richard Millett, says he lived with his aunt, Napple Bogle of 20 Lake avenue, Manchester, N. H., and that the other boy is Robert Hughes, son of Barney Hughes, proprietor of a livery stable and blacksmith shop.

When they were discharged, Millett says, they were afraid to go home for fear of being punished, so they came to Boston by electric from Lowell. They reached Sullivan square about dark. Not knowing any one, they camped out in an old team near the playground. Yesterday their money gave out, and they started to foot it back to Manchester.

After reaching Medford both boys were tired, dirty and hungry and decided to go to police headquarters.

ANARCHISTS MET

Strong Talk at the Lynn Meeting

LYNN, June 10.—The anarchist circle held a meeting on the fourth floor of the building at 2 Munroe street last night and fiery speeches were made by men and women. All the addresses were made in Italian and the speakers referred to the demonstrations at St. Joseph's church Tuesday night with glee.

Patrolman Quirk was present during part of the meeting and talked with one man who could speak very good English and who stated that it was a meeting of men and women who wished to talk over their own affairs, and that there would be no disturbance.

"Where's your chairman and secretary?" asked the policeman, and the man said: "We do not believe in having them. Everybody here is equal and we don't choose persons to govern our meetings and we keep no records."

During this conversation the women were talking. There were about 40 including several well dressed and apparently prosperous young women, accompanied by male escorts, in the room. One of these, a bright eyed and apparently intelligent young woman, made a speech received with favor by her companions.

She scored the police and said she was not afraid of any man who wore a uniform and would kick them out of her way if she got a chance. She said she was glad the anarchists, of which she was pleased to be one, had gone to the church and told the priest to his face that they did not believe in God or government. She prophesied the downfall of all government and the reign of anarchy soon.

Several men made speeches along the same line, denouncing the police and authorities and saying they defied the authorities to stop their meetings or compel them to leave the city.

Nearly all the men present smoked pipes, but this did not seem to disconcert the women. On the whole, it was an orderly meeting, except for the inflammatory speeches.

Royal Sheldon's Party Met With Accident

With a crash and rattle of broken machinery that could be heard for some distance, a large DeDietrich touring car, owned and driven by Royal R. Sheldon, of North Chelmsford, and containing a party of five men, came into collision with a tree near the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, last night broke the tree short off, ran against another tree and was overturned and wrecked.

The entire party was thrown out on the boulevard, and while all received a severe shaking up and numerous bruises, two sustained injuries that caused them to be taken to the Newton hospital. They are not believed to have been seriously hurt, however. The others were able to go to their homes.

The accident happened shortly after 11 o'clock, the party being then on their way home from a run.

The machinery of the car was working all right, and they were coming along at a good pace when suddenly the machine swerved on its course. Being but a small sapling, the force and weight of the machine broke the first tree short off.

Citizens assisted the party into the house of Allen Hubbard at 550 Commonwealth avenue. Drs. West, Edwards and Sylvester were quickly summoned and dressed their wounds.

As a matter of medical precaution, it was decided that it would be better for two to go to the hospital, to which they were taken in the police ambulance.

Fearing that an account of the accident might get into the newspapers, all of the occupants of the car refused to make known their names. Even the two who were taken to the hospital withheld their names from the police, and at that institution last night it was stated that the hospital did not know the names and could not learn them.

Besides Mr. Sheldon it is understood that two members of the party were Lewis R. Speare of Newton Centre, and a Mr. Greene, a friend of Mr. Sheldon. Mr. Sheldon is a member of the Massachusetts Automobile club.

At the present time 700 people are working in this town and are obliged to ride to and from Lowell, for the simple reason that there is not a vacant house to be had. This land has got to be sold, no matter what it brings.

MAKES A DENIAL

Finelite Says He Did Not Marry Child

NEW YORK, June 10.—When the amazing marriage of eleven-year-old Lena Stark to forty-year-old Jacob Finelite comes up again next Wednesday, Magistrate Finn will have to straighten out the truth from a terribly tangled mass of statements and cross statements, charges and counter charges. That the child, a school girl in the primary grade, was married on January 8 last her family tries to prove by a rather curious marriage certificate. The alleged bridegroom wholly denies the marriage.

Here is the story as told by the mother of Lena Stark or Finelite, and by her attorney, Charles Firestone:

Jacob Finelite is a real estate dealer, and he is supposed to be wealthy. Lena Stark's father was an employe of his, and the two families were near neighbors on Henry street. Finelite, who was married, at the time took a fancy to Lena from her infancy. Later he used to walk with her back and forth from school. He often said that he would like to marry her when she grew up.

His wife died last year. Lena was at that time 10 years old, very mature and worldly wise for her age, although only a school girl in the second primary grade. After his wife's death, Finelite began to call on the Starks several times a day. The father is an invalid. Mrs. Stark objected to his coming so much and the neighbors began to talk. Finally the Starks proposed that he marry Lena and, following an old Hebrew custom, leave her with her parents to grow up. Finelite consented to this, but insisted, for some reason not stated, that the marriage be performed in New Jersey.

On Jan. 8, the wedding party, consisting of Finelite, Mrs. Stark, Lena and a brother, went over to Aaron Roper's saloon in Jersey City, where Rabbi Garland married them. Roper swore to this in Magistrate Finn's court last Thursday. The Starks have also a document which they call a marriage certificate, printed and filled out in Hebrew. It bears no date, and the only signature is that of Jacob Finelite.

The girl went back to live with her parents, Finelite called now and then. The Starks say that Finelite did not observe the conditions agreed upon prior to the ceremony. When they found this out, Mrs. Stark called on Finelite to acknowledge Lena publicly as his wife, and support her. He refused, and she went to law. The first move was a suit tried last April before Justice Worcester. Mrs. Stark sued for two months' board at $20 a week, declaring that Finelite, as Lena's husband, had agreed to pay for the child's keep. The evidence of the marriage seemed so hazy to Justice Worcester that he threw the case out of court.

The second move was the complaint for non-support made last Thursday before Magistrate Finn. The Stark faction had a physician in court to testify, but the magistrate cut the case short and ordered a private hearing for next Wednesday.

All this, told by Mrs. Stark and Firestone, is corroborated by the girl herself, who is a well rounded, brown eyed, world wise little person.

"Of course I love him," she said with perfect frankness. "He was good to me."

"And we've had the devil's own time getting her to tell anything that would get Finelite into trouble in any way," added the attorney.

In the flat house at 106 East Ninety-seventh street where the Starks have lived since early last spring, the marriage of Lena was common gossip. Among the girls in her class at public school, 95, it was generally understood and Lena used to tell them about it at recess.

The Finelite side of the story is a flat denial. Jacob Finelite would not talk about the matter yesterday. It was the Jewish Feast of the Flowers and he was busy with religious duties at the synagogue. His lawyer, Israel J. Alderman, made emphatic denials, as did members of the Finelite family.

"They want money; that is all," said Alderman. "This Stark family has been helped and partly supported by Finelite for many years. It is true that he knew the girl as a baby. It is not true that he ever walked home from school with her or paid her any attention. If there was any such marriage, our client doesn't remember it. How they got his signature to any such document as that marriage certificate, no one knows. He himself can't understand it at all. It is a most peculiar certificate anyway. Finelite's signature is the only one appended to it. The whole document is most irregular.

"We intend to bring this affair to the attention of the district attorney and to ask the Gerry society to take Lena away from her parents as unfit persons to have her in charge.

"Mrs. Stark has been coaching the child in this story. She's a bright youngster and learns easily."

TIPSTERS

FORTY-FIVE OF THEM UNDER ARREST.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The race-track tipsters were raided yesterday and forty-five of them were bagged and locked up in the Coney Island station. Capt. Dooley and his men made the raid, acting under instructions from Inspector Cross, who had received many complaints from racegoers and also from the Jockey club.

Tipsters are as thick as flies at every race meeting, and their special camping ground is just outside the gates to the race-tracks. They have appeared to be more numerous than ever at Gravesend, fully a hundred turning up there on the opening day. They were both black and white, and tips could be bought as low as a dime.

FOR THE FAY FAMILY

Building Fund Starts With a Boom

The Fay building fund has struck a popular chord, for only yesterday did The Sun announce that a committee, headed by William A. Ingham, had undertaken to raise money to build a house for the Fay family.

The conditions have already been stated. The family is living in a pasture. The husband is blind and the wife is a courageous woman, who says "We only want a roof over our head, to get along."

The Sun has already conveyed several contributions of money to the family, but the contributions here announced are for the building fund, to give the family a place to sleep and to live, other than the open air.

Already plans are in preparation for a cottage; land has been secured and can be leased at a nominal rent, and the charitable people of Lowell and vicinity are appealed to to help along the good work until this destitute family, evicted from their home, shall be supplied with a new home not encumbered by any mortgage.

The following communication sets the ball arolling:

PIG OWNERS FINED

For Keeping Them Within the City Limits

Lawyer Donahue Claims That They Were Responsible For Spinal Meningitis—Both Defendants Appealed From the Court's Decision

Judge Fisher this morning, in police court, imposed two stiff fines for keeping pigs within the city limits, and although both cases were appealed, the health authorities want it understood that this is the beginning of a crusade against persons who keep pigs within the city limits in violation of the city ordinances and the rules of the board of health and both defendants were charged on two complaints, one under the ordinance and the other under the rules. The court did not bother with the rules, finding the defendants not guilty under the rules but found them guilty under the ordinance.

The defendants were Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick of Chapel street and Byron W. Johnson of Crosby street.

The health department retained Lawyer Donahue as counsel while Judge Pickman appeared for both defendants.

When the son of Mrs. Fitzpatrick was called Judge Pickman appeared in court with a physician's certificate to the effect that she had heart trouble.

Lawyer Donahue then addressed the court as follows: "The existence of cerebro-spinal meningitis in this city is traceable, according to the health authorities, to hogs and it is a matter of record that there have been more cases of this fatal disease in the immediate neighborhood of the place

BOTH REMOVED

Mayor Gets After City Magistrates

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—Magistrates Robert J. Moore and Leslie Yates who were a few months ago appointed committing magistrates at the Central station by Mayor Weaver to succeed Magistrates Cunningham and Kosher sperger, were today removed from those positions by the mayor. Magistrate Wm. Elsen Brown succeeds Moore and Magistrate Yates' place was filled by Magistrate Kochersheiger. Magistrates Moore and Yates were strong organization men. A city hall watchman was discharged today by Director Potter because of his criminal record. Mayor Weaver and his advisers have decided to place in nomination an independent ticket for county officers at the coming fall election, and plans are also in contemplation for the launching of a complete independent state ticket which is to have as its candidate for supreme court justice Judge John Stewart of Chambersburg.

It was learned that steps have been begun to ascertain the sentiment of the leading citizens of each and every county.

MORE PAY

EMPLOYES OF FOUNDRIES THREATEN TO STRIKE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Demands made by the International association of Foundry Employes on the New York and New Jersey Foundrymen's association, to go into effect on the first of this month, have been refused by the Employers' association. The demands were for an increase in the minimum rate of wages and for the closed shop.

Instead of the foundry employes ordering a general strike they have decided to strike against individual employers and ordered their first strike yesterday in the foundries of Fox & Son, foot of West Thirty-fourth street. Strikes against several independent employers have also been ordered.

Secretary Henry C. Hunter of the employers' association said yesterday that to make wages any higher would be to drive all the business away from New York.

Four new cases were reported last week and there were four deaths.

JOHN DRISCOLL

Knows Nothing About "Labor Graft"

CHICAGO, June 10—With neither side ready to make concessions the sixty-fifth day of the teamsters' strike was minus the usual programme on the peace conferences. The sudden return of John C. Driscoll, wanted to give testimony before the grand jury on "labor graft" and his disclaimer of knowledge of any of the alleged transactions gave the day's events the single tinge of the sensational. Driscoll promised to appear before the grand jury on Monday.

KING OSCAR

RECEIVED MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY FROM SWEDISH LUTHERANS.

STANTON, Va., June 10—The evangelical Lutheran Augustana synod, holding its annual meeting here has 225,000 members and is the only Swedish Lutheran body in America. "King Oscar II., Stockholm.

"Your Majesty: The Augustana synod in convention assembled, representing the Swedish Lutherans of America gratefully remembering the many tokens of Your Majesty's grace, begs to deplore between the countries of the north; invokes upon Your Majesty wisdom and strength from God during this ordeal; prays and hopes that the disturbance may be settled to the weal of sister nations."

NOT INJURED

MAN FELL DISTANCE OF FIFTY FEET.

NEW YORK, June 10—Bernard Donohue was painting the side of a five-story house at 150 West Twenty-seventh street yesterday afternoon, standing on a scaffolding just outside the top floor. He lost his balance and fell. He made three or four revolutions and landed squarely on his feet. It was a fifty-foot drop at least and it jarred him some, but further than that and a bruised heel Barney wasn't hurt.

"How in thunder did it happen?" asked the ambulance surgeon.

"I prayed all the way down," said Barney.

TAUNTON, Mass., June 10.—The Watuppa cotton mills of this city which have been in the hands of receivers were sold at auction this afternoon to Col. Peter H. Corr, representing the stockholders and creditors, who have formed a plan of re-organization of the property. There were several bids but the highest sum offered was that bid by Mr. Corr, $34,000. It is planned to operate the plant as soon as the work of re-organization has been finished.

EXTRA

PEACE ENVOYS

Will Hold Their Meeting in Washington

WASHINGTON, June 10.—From an authoritative official source it is learned today that it has been practically determined that the plenipotentiaries of Japan and Russia for the determination of peace terms will hold their sessions in Washington.

Inasmuch as the efforts which have been successful in the bringing of the two belligerent governments into contact were initiated by Pres. Roosevelt and further that most amicable relations exist between the United States and both Russia and Japan, this city is regarded as the "logical place" for the institution of the practical peace negotiations between the warring governments. For obvious reasons, London, it was pointed out, would break the question and for similar reasons Paris would not be considered. Objections to the holding of the conference in Berlin also have been made. Vienna was suggested as a desirable place, but under all the circumstances Washington was deemed by both St. Petersburg and Tokio to be the most favorable place for the holding of the peace conference.

ATTEMPT TO KILL

Attack Made on Secret Service Police Official

LONDON, June 10.—5.10 p. m. A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says an attempt was made this afternoo nta assassinate Lieut. Col. Spridovitch of the secret service police. The colonel was walking in the main street of the city when an unknown man fired twice at him, with a revolver. Both shots were effective and Spridovitch was serious ly wounded. His assailant escaped.

CAR ON FIRE

NEW YORK, June 10—A westbound Twenty-third street crosstown car, did a few stunts just as it reached the middle of Broadway, shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and as a result traffic on both lines was tied up for half an hour while the throngs of shoppers and sightseers saw a fire show that was great while it lasted.

Motorman James Coffey felt the car buck as he started to cross Broadway. It had gone only a few feet when there was a report that startled everybody within a block. This report was followed by puffs of yellow smoke from beneath the car and then tongues of yellow and blue flames showed from the sides of the car.

The car was crowded—with women for the most part—and all made a rush for the doors.

In a very short time the woodwork beneath the car was afire, the blaze reaching up to the windows. Policeman Harry Williams of the Tenderloin station, was one of those nearly jarred off their feet by the first explosion. He hurried around to Eighteenth street and Broadway and turned in a still alarm to the firemen in the headquarters of Engine company 11.

DRAFT OF TREATY

Germany Is Preparing the Papers

BERLIN, June 10.—The German government's draft of the views on the proposed commercial treaty with the United States is in course of preparation for submission to Washington in July. It is based upon the reports of various commercial authorities. The Dusseldorff Chamber, one of the most influential West Phalen manufacturing districts, sent Prince Von Buelow a memorial in which these fundamental principles were laid down:

"First, the old Prussian treaty of 1828 must either be formally cancelled, or extended to the German Empire with binding force for the U. S.

Second, If that treaty be cancelled, it must be replaced by a treaty of comity and navigation between the two countries.

Third, A tariff treaty with the U. S. must be sought in which one concession shall be balanced by another fully or approximately equalling it.

Fourth, In case the treaty negotiations lead to no practicable results that the German customs be applied to imports from the U. S.

Fifth, Some alleviation to the export business of each country could, it is suggested be secured by the U. S. continuing the lower rates of duties on German goods in the list provided for by the Saratoga agreement to which Germany would answer with equivalent compensations but not with treaty rates throughout as conceded to other countries.

Sixth, Whatever arrangement is made must contain provision for supply free of cost information about tariff matters and for the settlement of tariff differences by arbitration. Each country must pledge itself to accept the findings of the scientific bodies of the other state as to the composition of food products.

LITTLE BOY

MADE PEACE BETWEEN HIS PARENTS.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The prattle of Jack Glick, 3 years old, with blue eyes and golden hair, brought about at least a partial reconciliation yesterday between Uriah C. Glick, the Erie promoter arrested the preceding day on a charge of kidnapping the boy, and his wife, on whose complaint the arrest was made. But Jack's charms failed to release his father from prison and the Westerner was obliged to spend last night as well as the night before in a cell at Jefferson market.

Mrs. Glick arrived in town before the opening of court, accompanied by her husband's brother, 'C. R. Glick, and was on hand when the case was called. Simultaneously with her arrival her husband was led into court by a policeman and their son came in custody of a Gerry society officer. Husband and wife failed to recognize each other, but the boy recognized both with perfect impartiality and greeted them cheerfully.

"Hello, mama," he said to one, "fwat are they going to do?" and to the other, "Hello, papa, have mother come over here."

The child was nearer his father and it was on his father's arm that he rested while Lawyer Frank A. K. Boland upbraided his father before the court and Lawyer Bruce spoke in his defense.

Lawyer Boland said Glick had deserted his wife in Erie and that his brother had been supporting the wife and child. He added that it was a terrible thing to bring the little boy here to a hotel away from his mother, and asked that Glick be held until word came from Philadelphia.

"A man cannot kidnap his own child," was the retort of Lawyer Bruce. "There has been no separation and no decree. The custody of the child was not given to the wife."

Magistrate Flinn held that he had no jurisdiction to go into the merits of the case. All that he could do in the matter, he said, was to hold the prisoner until the receipt of instructions from Erie. If those instructions were not received within forty-eight hours, he said, he would release the prisoner, but not before.

WOOD ALCOHOL

MAN ACCUSED OF FORCING BOY TO DRINK IT.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Edward Mack, the seventeen-year-old boy who was accused of having forced Charlie Molineux, a ten-year-old boy, to drink alcohol, thereby nearly causing his death, was arraigned in the West Side court yesterday on complaint of the Molineux boy's mother. He said that he, Molineux, and a number of other small boys, all of whom live in West Ninety-seventh street, found a bottle which they thought was gin.

He attempted to drink some of it and when it bit his tongue he spat it out. The other boys wanted to try it and some of them drank a little. Young Molineux was made sick for the time being by it.

Magistrate Pool threw the case out of court and discharged the Mack boy.

PEACE TERMS

MAY BE DISCUSSED IN MANCHURIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—3.16 p.m.—The text of President Roosevelt's personal appeal to the sovereigns of the warring countries to arrange a meeting of their plenipotentiaries for the purpose of agreeing on terms of peace which arrived here this morning are in the veil and for the sceptics at St. Petersburg, who refused to believe Pres. Roosevelt's efforts to bring the belligerents together it came like a bomb-shell. President Roosevelt's sole principle to bring about a meeting has been achieved and now it is merely a question whether the results will be the peace "for which the whole civilized world will pray."

It is a diplomatic triumph of the first magnitude and the diplomats here make no attempt to conceal their admiration for the new world brand of diplomacy which acts while the remainder of the world thinks.

The formal replies of Russia and Japan are expected to be transmitted through Count Cassini (the Russian ambassador at Washington), but the situation is such at this hour as to leave no doubt of the acceptance of both and that the question of the selection of plenipotentiaries and place of meeting will follow.

Pres. Roosevelt's urgent expression in favor of direct negotiations exclusively between the belligerents points straight to the battlefield in Manchuria as the scene of the negotiations and the diplomats generally entertain the view that Russia and Japan had best settle their quarrel there beyond the range of possible outside influence. To the policy of non-interference, practically all the powers are committed. Great Britain it is felt here in diplomatic circles will now complete the realization of what the president has begun by restraining her ally and inducing Japan to proffer moderate terms which Russia can accept.

IS BLIND

WOMAN STRICKEN ON THE EVE OF HER WEDDING.

STAMFORD, June 10.—Miss Ethel C. Ford, daughter of Mrs. W. F. Ford formerly of Brooklyn, is shut in a dark room on the eve of the date fixed for her wedding to George A. Jenkins of this city. One of Miss Ford's eyes is sightless.

The cause of the illness puzzles the surgeons. It followed a trip in Mr. Jenkins' automobile. The young lady's illness has necessitated the postponement of the wedding. The marriage was to have taken place this afternoon and great preparations had been made.

Mr. Jenkins is the wealthy young man who was once engaged to Miss Genevieve Hecker, former golf champion. He caddied for her when she was winning championships. The engagement was broken off, however, and Miss Hecker became the wife of Ralph Stout.

There has been a drug store on that corner for years and years and the present management will so improve the store as to make it second to none in the city. It is considered one of the best locations in Lowell and with a stock, always fresh, and clerks that are genial and obliging the new proprietors hope to do a business worthy of the store and its location. The soda fountain at the Towers Corner drug store contains a number of new drinks. Call and sample them.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

NEW YORK, June 10—Substantial progress toward the unity of the faith among Evangelical Christians has been made during the last year according to the 80th annual report of the American Tract Society of New York which was made public today.

Foreign fields which in the past apparently were closed have opened and in addition much work has been done in the newer states and territories in this country. The colored people of the south have been the object of especial attention and the report says the Mormons have been found not inaccessible. A unique distribution is that carried on at Ellis Island where pamphlets in 26 languages are distributed among the inmates.

In his closing address, District Attorney French charged that witnesses for the defence had given much false evidence.

Bonds in each case were placed at $1000 which Montgomery promptly furnished Keane had been unable to secure bonds up to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

ACCEPTS

WESTINGHOUSE A TRUSTEE OF EQUITABLE LIFE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A letter has been sent to Thomas F. Ryan by George Westinghouse of Pittsburg, accepting membership in the board of trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Mr. Westinghouse is now in this city, he and Paul Morton being guests of the same hotel in Fifth avenue. After the directors had finished their work by selecting Mr. Morton as chairman, Roger Wlithrop, financial manager of the Society, tendered his resignation. It was explained that he did this as a courtesy to Mr. Morton, that the new chairman might not be embarrassed in any way in the plans that he had for the reorganization of the society.

While the result of the director's meeting was widely discussed in the evening wherever men of finance gathered, few of those directly interested cared to say much for publication. In the evening Mr. Morton attended the Pilgrim's club dinner to former Ambassador Choate ,and was the recipient of many congratulations over his new position.

"When will you take charge of Equitable affairs?" he was asked. "As soon as I can be relieved of my duties in Washington. My resignation goes into effect on July 1, but I expect from this time on to pay more or less attention to Equitable maters. I was here to look after other offices to which I had been chosen by the Metropolitan Subway syndicate, but any connection with that is now out of the question.

"I do not know who will be put in that place."

Charles Stewart Smith, an anti-Hyde director of the Equitable, who also attended the dinner, denied that he opposed in any way the election of Mr. Morton, as had been stated.

"I am perfectly satisfied with the result of the meeting," said he.

"We have done everything that the public required of us, and more. We have complied with everything that public opinion demanded, and rightly demanded.

"This action means mutualization. It matters not who has control of the stock, mutualization must come and the board is pledged to see that it is carried out unless the court interferes, and I do not imagine that anything of the kind will occur.

"I have had a talk with Mr. Morton concerning the resignations that have been placed in his hands. I have advised him strongly not to accept them all. When a man starts out to run an establishment he cannot afford to throw out all the old servants who know how the place ought to be run. Mr. Morton will be compelled to surround himself with men who are conversant with the details ,and I believe he will keep at least some of those who have resigned in the service of the society."

THE MASHER

WOMAN CHASED HIM AND GAVE HIM A BEATING.

NEW YORK, June 10.—While Mrs. Mary Grossman of 358 Wythe avenue, Williamsburg, was going along Wythe avenue in the direction of her home, late on Thursday night, she heard footsteps behind her when she reached South Third street. Glancing quickly around, she saw a man beside her. She was about to hasten on when the man, it was alleged, caught hold of her and bent forward as if to kiss her. Mrs. Grossman struck him in the face with her fists, and she kept up her thrashing until the man fell. When he got up and ran away Mrs. Grossman started in pursuit, and she caught him in the park under the Williamsburg bridge, at Wythe avenue and South Fifth street.

Mrs. Grossman began to beat him again, while a large crowd which had gathered around cheered her on. Policeman Royle appeared, and after the woman had related what had happened he arrested the man and took him to the Redford avenue police station, where Mrs. Grossman preferred a charge of disorderly conduct. The man gave his name as Joseph Katz. He said he was a clerk, 30 years old, and lived at 3937 Third avenue, Manhattan. He was locked up.

Mrs. Grossman was in the Lee avenue police court yesterday when Katz was arraigned before Magistrate Furlong. She told how the man stole up behind her and how she had thrashed him. Katz denied that he had insulted the woman. The magistrate, in imposing a fine of $5, characterized Katz as a masher, and told him he deserved what he got at the hands of Mrs. Grossman.

Middlesky is a natural athlete and despite his great bulk is perfectly proportioned.

PIG OWNERS FINED

where those hogs are kept than any other place in the state. This complaint was made out on May 19th and has been continued several times. Now at the last moment they come in with a physician's certificate and want another continuance. The health department has received several letters of protest that these continuances are simply a make-shift to avoid trial. This is a serious menace to public health and I do not propose to allow this matter to go along."

Judge Pickman in reply said:

"I object to this attempt to prejudice the court."

"That's wholly untrue. That's like the speech up to Plaistow," interrupted Lawyer Donahue.

Judge Pickman then resumed: "We have made no attempt to have the case continued again. I came here to dispose of the case and when I found that the woman could not be here I suggested that her son be substituted as defendant and this was not acceptable to the prosecution. Then I sent for her to come to court and she will be here in a short time. I would suggest that pending her arrival we proceed with the Johnson case."

This was agreeable to the prosecution and the trial proceeded.

THE EVIDENCE OFFERED.

In the case of H. W. Johnson charged on two complaints with keeping pigs within the city limits one complaint was drawn under the statutes and the other under the rules of the board of health.

Mr. Johnson through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

Sanitary Inspector Frank O'Hare testified that on May 15 and 17 he visited the stable kept by the defendant in the rear of 19 Crosby street and found five pigs in the cellar of the stable.

On cross examination Mr. O'Hare was asked if he knew of places in Lowell where pigs are kept and against which no prosecutions have been made but the question was excluded.

Inspector Bates testified that on June 7 he visited the stable and saw three pigs and Mr. Johnson claimed ownership.

Agent H. H. Knapp after producing the rules of the board of health said that Mr. Johnson had had a conversation with Agent Knapp in regard to the case.

At this point Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick, the defendant in the other pig case came in and her case was taken up.

Inspector O'Hare visited her house on June 17, and spoke with her son. He saw one pig in her cellar.

Inspector Bates said that he told Mrs. Fitzpatrick to get rid of the hogs and she said she couldn't, as they were a benefit to her, as she would be unable to dispose of the manure were it not for the pigs.

Judge Pickman put in no defence in either case, but filed a motion to the court to dismiss the complaints on the ground that the government had not made out its case.

Judge Pickman argued at considerable length for the dismissal of the complaints on the claims that the rule of the board was unreasonable. Lawyer Donahue, for the prosecution, argued that the statute and rules are plain and that the violations thereof are clearly shown.

Judge Fisher then found both guilty under the ordinance, but dismissed the cases under the rules of the board. Mr. Johnson was fined $20 and Mrs. Fitzpatrick $10.

Judge Pickman, in behalf of both defendants, appealed, while Mrs. Fitzpatrick said: "They're not my pigs; they're my son's.

"I want to serve public notice on you," said Lawyer Donahue, "that this being a continuing offence, you must get rid of those pigs right away or we'll have you in court again next week. You must get those pigs off that street, Johnson."

SENT TO STATE FARM.

Michael Rogers, a Civil war pensioner pleaded not guilty of drunkenness. Officer Frawley found him lying helpless in the street in Chapel street, early this morning. Rogers was sent to the state farm.

MINOR CASES.

Michael Keating charged with drunkenness and larceny of a watch from William H. Jennings was continued in $200 bonds until Monday.

Two drunks were fined and one was released.

Stephanus Salames for larceny of $1 was continued until June 21.

A NEGLECTFUL HUSBAND.

Jeremiah F. Sullivan was charged with neglect of his pretty and neat looking wife, Catharine T. Sullivan. The latter said that her husband hadn't contributed a cent toward the support of her or her four children. She said that her husband was all right when he was not drinking, but he was drinking most of the time. It was decided to give Sullivan a lay off in jail for a few days and then start him right and accordingly he was held in $200 until June 15.

THREATENING CASE.

Lawyers Fay and Donahue went at each other in the case of Eugent Lavole charged with threatening Mary J. Deans. It seems that the defendant hired some land in Parker street from the estate of the late Thomas Fay and Mrs. Deans lives nearby and used the land at will. When Lavole took the land he ordered the Deans woman off the land. She continued to go on the land until one day Lavole told her that if she went on the land again he would "shoot the legs off her" when she went down and got a warrant out for him and told the court today that she was in fear of the defendant though it was shown that she crossed the land again after the alleged threat was made. The defendant said he meant no harm but simply wanted to keep her off the land. In his argument Lawyer Fay said: "There's no more trouble between them than between two cooing doves."

"Cooing doves don't threaten to shoot each other's legs off," remarked Lawyer Donahue and he then quoted from Bryant's "Belfry Pigeon."

Judge Fisher found the defendant not guilty and ordered his discharge.

THE CLOSING DAY

Of Huntington-DeDeyn Stock Company

This is the closing day at the opera house and the last opportunity to see this clever company of players, this season. The attraction "Moths" is undoubtedly the strongest that has been presented by the company and is well worth seeing. Crowded houses have witnessed the performances during the week and all have pronounced it one of the best. This play gives Mr. Chagnon an unusual opportunity to display his talent and his fine work has charmed his audiences. Mr. Huntington appears in a part different to any others that he has assumed and demonstrates his versatility. Miss Fletcher plays a most difficult part in a manner that defies criticism and in fact nearly every character in this remarkable play is a leading part.

A DOUBLE LIFE

Peter H. Deacon Supported Two Families

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 10.—The Journal today prints a story on the authority of John Keating that Peter H. Deacon who died recently in Chicago had lived a double life for 20 years having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston and Milwaukee.

Keating is a son-in-law of Deacon. According to Keating, Deacon came west 20 years ago and married Fannie Adeline Wilcox. He was known as the agent for a knitting manufacturing firm and had an office at 82 Wisconsin street, Milwaukee. Deacon was a leading supporter of the St. James Episcopal church. At the same time he had a wife and seven children residing in Somerville, Mass., Deacon having been married to Anna J. Tuttl in Somerville by the Rev. James Healy in 1868. The second marriage took place nearly 20 years later.

The story of the double life leaked out when John Keating, husband of a daughter born of Deacon's first marriage, came west for the purpose of securing proofs of Deacon's death and adjusting two life insurance policies. According to Keating's story Deacon for many years represented to the wife in Massachusetts that whe as a traveling man and that his business kept him in the west most of the time. His visits to his eastern home were limited to about two each year. The only western address known to his eastern family was the Hotel Wellington, Chicago. For a long time, Mr. Deacon supported the Somerville, Mass., family, but shortly before his death his contributions ceased altogether.

Mrs. Deacon left Milwaukee two weeks ago and is said to be now living with Mrs. Wilcox in Chicago.

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was held this afternoon ostensibly for the purpose of acting on sewer petitions, but other business was attended to.

Chairman Grant called to order at 1.45. Numerous petitions were properly referred. Other petitioners were given leave to withdraw. The appointment of William E. Livingstone and Arnold J. Ryan as weighers of coal was confirmed.

An order for a system of surface drainage in the vicinity of Holden and Princeton street was adopted. The drain will cost $300.

The question of a sewer in Chippewa street was taken up and the resolution concerning it was adopted. The sewer will cost $287.

A resolution laying out the precincts in accordance with the recent redistricting order was read. It was stated that it was necessary, under the law, to take action on the matter before July 1.

Ald. Carmichael moved that the resolution be laid on the table until July 28, the motion was defeated and the resolution was adopted. Ald. Carmichael, voting in the minority, gave notice of reconsideration at the next meeting.

KILLED HIMSELF

NO REASON FOR SUICIDE OF ALFRED PICKARD.

BOSTON, June 10.—Alfred Pickard, formerly the head of the A. L. Pickard company, electrical engineers of this city, committed suicide today at the Rexford hotel by shooting. NOT GUILTY

SAILOR THOUGHT HE HAD DROWNED A MAN.

NEW YORK, June 10—A sailor walked into the Forty-second precinct station at the Battery yesterday and gave himself up to the harbor police because he believed he had killed some one. On Friday last Capt. William Spots of the little American centerboard schooner Marshall O. Wells did the same thing. He was remanded to the coroner and released on $500 bail although there was absolutely no proof of any one having been killed.

The sailor who arrested himself yesterday was Capt. James L. Lenihan of the tugboat R. A. Sumner, from Perth Amboy, N. J. Capt. Lenihan told Magistrate Wahle in the Tombs court later that he was backing out of a Pennsylvania Railroad slip in Jersey City, when a man yelled to him that he had run down some one. He found two oars floating, and so gave himself up. Magistrate Wahle refused to hold him.

"You are discharged," said he. "No one knows that you have killed any one. You yourself admit that you don't know. Anyway, you were really outside the jurisdiction of the court, as you say you were in New Jersey."

RAPID GROWTH

TWO MORE VICAR GENERALS IN BROOKLYN DIOCESE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—It was reported yesterday that Bishop McDonnell of the Catholic diocese of Brooklyn had decided to appoint two additional vicar-generals. Since the establishment of the diocese there has been only one assistant to the bishop with that title, the present occupant of the office being the Right Rev. P. J. McNamara, rector of St. Joseph's parish.

Owing to the rapid growth of the diocese it has been found necessary by Bishop McDonnell to add two more assistants. It is understood that the Very Rev. Joseph McNamee, rector of the Church of St. Teresa, and the Rev. George Kaupert, rector of All Saints church, have been selected for the honor.

The case before the master was commenced last Thursday and continued until today, and the third hearing will be held Monday.

CITY HALL NOTES

George Hubbard who has been chosen chief marshal for the Fourth of July parade was at the city hall today and expressed himself as very hopeful of a big slambang parade. Several letters from societies and individuals who would add to the features of the parade have been received by the committee and it looks as if the slambang parade would be a howling success.

The mayor, today, signed a requisition from the public building department to sell the engine, pump and smoke stack used at Huntington hall.

KILLED HIS BABE

Because It Was Not a Boy

FATHER HELD BY THE POLICE

Mother Thinks Babe Died Natural Death

NEW YORK, June 10.—In a two-room back flat in the tenement at No. 213 East Seventy-third street, whose furnishings are a bed, a plain board table, two or three chairs, a couch and a few pieces of crockery and cooking utensils, the dead body of a three-hour-old baby girl is lying upon the table with a single candle burning beside it. The child is believed to have been murdered by its father early yesterday because it was not a boy.

In the small, dark bedroom the mother lies sobbing with a two-year-old baby beside her in the bed. She does not know her husband is charged with murder, but believes the babe died at her side, and constantly asks when her husband will return.

At the East Sixty-seventh street police station the husband, Frank Krijack, is held without bail on a charge of homicide. He was too intoxicated to make a statement. Mrs. Sarah Rice, who lives in the same house, and Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, of No. 217 East Seventy-third street, are held on a charge of intoxication and as witnesses to the alleged murder of the child. They attended Mrs. Krijack and joined in a spree after the spree. They were so much under the influence of liquor that their statements to Sergeant Lehr were too incoherent to be of consequence. A third woman is said to have been present, but was not placed under arrest and could not be found at her home yesterday.

According to statements to the police, Krijack, a large and muscular man thirty-six years old, came home at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in a state of intoxication, and when he heard that his wife had given birth to a girl, took the baby from her arms, carried it to the adjoining room, and, after upbraiding his wife for giving birth to a girl when his heart was set upon a boy, took the new-born babe by the legs, swung it around and tossed it into the adjoining room, where its head struck a sofa. Then he left home. The child died a few minutes later.

The police records hold no parallel of a case where destitution, debauch and death met together under such pitiable, and at the same time brutally criminal conditions. The police themselves were slow to believe that the story told them could be true, and are waiting until the principal and witnesses are sober and can tell their story in the Yorkville court.

Mrs. Krijack is a comely, black-haired woman about thirty years old. She has been married nine years. Both she and her husband were born in this country of Bohemian parents. In 1898 their first baby was born, a girl, who is now seven years old. Another girl came two years later, but died when eight months old. The third child, another little girl, was born two years ago. The father and the mother both had hoped that the little visitor which arrived yesterday would be a boy.

Krijack has been irregularly employed as a driver or helper on ice wagons. Lately he has had employment, but the wife went to Dr. Hill's Maternity clinic, in East Seventy-sixth street, for treatment, and her case was reported there as one of extreme destitution.

Krijack started from his home at 2 o'clock yesterday morning for his work. His wife was then ill and a woman neighbor came in. Later word was sent to the clinic and two of Dr. Hill's assistants, George Lintz and A. J. Price, answered the call and attended the mother. Their report was that the new-born child appeared to be normally healthy.

Mrs. Rice, Mrs. O'Leary and Mrs. Mary Simson, the janitress, waited upon the mother and dressed the baby. Then the mother was given whiskey in milk until she was well under the influence of drink. Mrs. Rice and Mrs. O'Leary drank freely, and it was soon known throughout the house by the loud talk, screams and laughter, that a drunken orgie was in full swing in the Krijack's rooms.

When Krijack arrived home he was quite drunk. What happened then is only imperfectly known from the maudlin testimony of the witnesses. The neighbors had heard stories of how the baby had been killed, but word did not reach the police until Mrs. Simson told Patrolman Mussmacher that a baby was dead in the house.

HE TRIED SUICIDE

Boy Drank Acid and Munched Pins

NEW YORK, June 10.—Frank Kamholz, who is fifteen and small for his age, and who lives at No. 749 Tinton avenue, the Bronx, has been a trouble maker since he was a baby in arms, and his latest exploits to give his parents trouble are two attempts at suicide, one by eating a couple of ounces of boric acid and the other, yesterday morning, by attempting to swallow a handful of pins. His mother caught him by the back of the neck and shook the pins from his mouth before he could swallow them.

The boy has been committed to the juvenile asylum a couple of times as an incorrigible, but attempts to reform him have failed. He seems never to be satisfied unless he is making trouble for his parents, and to what extremes the spirit of mischief will carry him is shown by his willingness to fill his anatomy with acid or pins, and even end his own life, knowing that he could die happy if his death would bring worry and grief to his father, mother and little brother.

Yesterday, after the boric acid episode of the night before, because the boy had been teased by other boys about his badness, and scolded for staying out late, his father told him that he would again send him to some reform institution. The boy then walked over to a table where a paper of pins was lying, extracted a handful and put them in his mouth. His mother saw him try to swallow the pins and grabbed him in time to prevent him from carrying out his attempt at suicide.

Mr. Kamholz promptly took the boy to the children's court and told of his two attempts to end his life. He said that the boy was absolutely beyond his control, an incorrigible trouble maker, and asked that he be committed to some institution. Magistrate Olmsted paroled the boy in the custody of his father until June 13, when he will be given a hearing.

FATAL BURNS

WOMAN'S FRIENDS UNABLE TO HELP HER.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mrs. Ricka Hyman of No. 98 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, was fatally burned at her home yesterday. In her agony she rushed to the fire escape, trying to get to the next house, and the tenants of surrounding buildings witnessed the scene, powerless to help her. Several women became hysterical and others were overcome by the horror of the scene.

Mrs. Hyman has four children. Three had gone to school, and Lester, ten years old, was finishing luncheon. Mrs. Hyman was at the gas cook stove. The blaze ignited her skirt, and in a second she was enveloped in flames.

When the woman had almost reached the next building she stood, helpless, and finally fell to the fire escape. Neighbors shouted, and the wind fanned the flames more and more. Finally two women managed to get to the fire escape and carried the unfortunate woman into the kitchen of No. 100.

Drs. Parmenter and Burns, of the Harlem hospital, found Mrs. Hyman burned from head to foot. Every stitch of clothing had been burned off and the hair burned away. The physicians said she could not possibly live.

Mrs. Louise Moran, of No. 424 East Ninety-first street, was taken to the Presbyterian hospital yesterday, suffering from severe burns of the back and limbs, received at her home while cooking breakfast over a gas stove, while she was carrying her 2-months-old baby. Her husband quenched the flames.

ROME, June 10.—The pope today received in private audience Mrs. James Butler and daughter of New York. The pontiff presented each of his visitors with a gold medal and gave Mrs. Butler his white skull-cap.

PAINFUL CANOE RIDE.

Bridget Priscilla Tibbetts Jameson, the queen of Emery street, went canoeing last night and met with a painful experience. It seems as though the owner of the craft did not own any cushions and this compelled poor Bid to sit on the har dribs of the canoe. She ribs cut their monogram on her well between the sixth arch bridge and the corner of Emery street. It is doubtful if she will be able to assist Queen Lil to pad up this afternoon. Poor Bid will have to eat her meals from the mantel piece for some time.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

LYNN, June 10.—Mount Carmel Masonic lodge today is celebrating the centennial of its institution with a parade, banquet and historical exercises, entertaining as guests Grand Master Sandford and the grand officers. The oration of the day at the First Methodist church is by Lieut. Governor Curtis Guild, Jr.

ALL ESCAPED

LIVES OF TWELVE PERSONS WERE IN DANGER.

BOSTON, June 10.—The prompt action of a pedestrian saved the lives of twelve persons in the North End today when a determined attempt to burn a four-story brick building was made. The occupants of the house were aroused when the rooms were filled with smoke and when the ground floor was flaming. All escaped safely, through the assistance of police and firemen. An investigation showed that the fire had been started by igniting kindlings which had been placed in a baby carriage on the ground floor. The monetary loss was inconsiderable.

MILL HANDS IDLE

Spoolers' Strike is on at Chicopee

CHICOPEE, Mass., June 10.—About 500 out of 1300 operatives of the Chicopee cotton mills have been thrown out of work by a strike which occurred in the spooling department.

At first the strike had little effect on the large plant but today many of the hands in the other departments are unable to continue because of a lack of warp. The strike was caused by changes in the wage scale of about 40 girls who claimed their pay had been cut about 8 per cent. Agent Lord will endeavor to get sufficient warp from mills elsewhere to keep the plant running, but it is said the other operatives may decline to use it and compel the entire plant to close. Agent Lord and the strikers have held a conference, but they were unable to agree and appear to be further apart than before.

BURGLAR

RETURNED INSURANCE POLICY THAT HE STOLE.

NEW YORK, June 10—After stealing jewelry valued at $10,000 from the home of Chester Jarrett, Park avenue and Eighty-second street, a burglar who signed himself "Raffles," returned a burglar insurance policy included in the loot, and accompanied it with a polite little note, in which he expressed the hope that the insurance company is "not offended."

The burglary was committed last Wednesday, but was not made public by the police until yesterday. In fact, the burglary would not have been disclosed even then but for the receipt of the note. The letter is addressed to N. R. Monty, of the National Surety company, which carried the insurance, and is as follows:

"Dear Sir—I cannot make use of such a good thing as this. I return this policy to the National Surety company, so they can cash up on my job. Trusting you will not be offended, I am, yours truly.

"THE MYSTERIOUS RAFFLES,
"Ex-Amateur Cracksman."

Mr. Jarrett's home was entered through a parlor window while the family was at dinner. Mr. Jarrett and his family, as well as the servants, were in the basement dining room and the burglar worked at his leisure.

The loot consisted mainly of jewlry and bric-a-brac the financier had given to his wife. The jewels had been kept in a chamois bag in a little safe in the bedroom. Mr. Jarrett's home has been robbed several times and upon each occasion the thief made good his escape. The police are inclined to the belief that some one in the house assisted in the last robbery.

SILVER WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. BEAN CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Bean of 15 Hastings street observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Bean is a native of Augusta, Me., the son of the late Rev. G. W. Bean, a former pastor of Paige Street F. B. church. Mr. Willis Bean has been a resident of Lowell since 1875, and has a stair and house finish manufactory in upper Dutton street. Mrs. Bean was Miss Annie A. Simpson, a native of that part of Chelmsford which is now annexed to Lowell. The late Rev. E. W. Porter performed the wedding ceremony twenty-five years ago, and a number of guests present at that time called yesterday to offer congratulations. Yesterday two children assisted their parents in entertaining visitors—Miss Alice Gertrude Bean and Master Winthrop Simpson Bean. Beside a large number of Lowell friends, guests were present from Boston, Southboro, Jamaica Plain and Natick. The gifts included a number of silver articles and cash.

WAGES ASSIGNED

DECISION THAT MAY OVERTURN SOME CONTRACTS.

A case was heard in the civil session of the police court yesterday for the recovery of two weeks' wages assigned to a local credit company. The assignment gave the assignee power to change the name of the employer in the assignment in case the assignor changed his place of employment. He did change and the claim was presented to his new employer. Judge Fisher on the bench decided an employe could not assign wages to be paid by a future employer. An appeal was taken. J. W. McEvoy had the case for the defendant.

JUNE WEDDING SALE.

G. H. Wood, the Central street jeweler's name, is closely connected with weddings because he always has such a large and varied stock of goods suitable for wedding gifts. It has been said that a wedding ring purchased at his store has a peculiar charm about it and that the married life will be one continual honeymoon. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Get wise and trade at Wood's mammoth jewelry store, opposite the American House.

LOSS IS HEAVY

Casket Buildings in New York Burned

NEW YORK, June 10—A heavy financial loss was incurred in a fire which started in the factory of the New York and Brooklyn Casket company in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, and swept through adjoining buildings including the six story factory of William Vogel and brother today.

William Sheehan, a casket company employee, was asleep in the fourth floor of the factory. He jumped into a life net and rebounded, falling on the sidewalk, and his leg was broken and internal injuries, which may prove fatal, sustained. Practically every building within the block bounded by Wythe and Kent avenues and South Ninth and South Tenth streets, was either destroyed or badly damaged by fire and 50 families were rendered homeless. The total loss is estimated at $300,000. The Casket company's factory was gutted, entailing a loss of $200,000.

STREET RIOT

ONE JEW KILED AND TWENTY OTHERS WOUNDED.

WINSK, Western Russia, June 10.—The report published in a London newspaper that 100 persons were shot during rioting here recently is incorrect. There was a street riot here Thursday on Cathedral square between soldiers and Jews. It was provoked, according to the official version by the theft of a purse from a soldier off duty. His comrades beat a Jew thereupon a crowd of about 600 of the latter's co-religionists gathered to rescue him. The Jews used stones and revolvers and armed troops were summoned. They fired into and dispersed the crowd with the result that one Jew was killed and 20 were wounded and a soldier was shot. The chief of police was hit on the head with a flying missile and one policeman was severely wounded.

PROTEST

AGAINST INDIAN DANCES AND BUFFALO HUNT.

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 10.—Governor Ferguson has received a telegram from the president saying that a protest has been filed with him by the president of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, against the Indian dances and buffalo hunt to be given on Sunday at the "101" ranch at Bliss, Okla. Governor Ferguson has ordered two companies of militia to be on the grounds Sunday to insist on the prevention of possible cruelty to animals.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10—Mabel Gates, aged 18 years, and George Job, Jr., were found in a dying condition from the effects of strychnine poisoning at Rosedale, Kansas, early today and both died before medical aid could be administered. They both protested when an effort was made to save them, and it is supposed that they had made a mutual agreement to commit suicide.

HEAVY LOSS

DAMAGE CAUSED BY FLOOD IN GRAND RAPIDS.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 10—The loss in this city attributable to the flood which now seems to be subsiding, is estimated at $250,000. The loss in all western Michigan is placed at $1,000,000. The river gauge at 8 o'clock last night showed 17.6, a fall of .4 since last midnight. A fall of .5 is anticipated by morning. Railway service is partially resumed on all lines in the flood district, except the Grand Trunk.

Grand Haven is the critical point of the flood tonight. That city is completely isolated. Grand river is higher there than it was during the spring flood of 1904. So far five lives in western Michigan have been lost in consequence of the flood.

FOUGHT OVER WOMAN.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—In a revolver fight between Edward C. Schneider, a barber, and John Dugan, a sporting man in Kansas City, Kan., last night, Schneider was killed and Dugan was probably fatally wounded, as a result of a feud over a woman.

FANCY LARGE MACKEREL, 22c EACH; FRESH BOILED LOBSTERS, 20c A LB. TODAY AT THE TARPON, 124 CENTRAL STREET.

STOCK MARKET REGAINED.

NEW YORK, June 10—The stock market was revived today by the reports of a settlement effected in the long standing Equitable Life dispute. There was a momentary check to the rise on account of the inviting profits offered on the overnight advance, but the prices then began to go forward again. The holiday in London deprived the market of one usual source of demand. Advances of from 1 to 1½ points became fairly general during the course of the first hour of trading. Metropolitan Street Railway was conspicuous with a gain of three points.

ANNUAL GAME

Botween Exeter and Andover Academies

EXETER, N. H., June 10. Excellent weather favored the players in the annual baseball game between Phillips-Exeter and Phillips-Andover academies today and there were many hundred visitors in town to see the contest. Exeter has made an unusually brilliant record this season and was generally looked upon before today's game as the probable winner. Andover, however, has an excellent team and has made a strong showing in games with the large colleges. Lanigan will go into the box for Andover and if necessary will be relieved during the game by Clow or Merritt. H. Jones was settled upon to pitch for Exeter. The game was scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock. It was expected that the batting order would be as follows:

Exeter—Tilton cf, Flock lf, Vaughan ss, Jones c, H. Jones p, Connelly 3b, Blake 2b, Ijama or Cooney rf, Gammons 1b.

MISS CORTELYOU SAYS ARREST IS AN OUTRAGE.

NEW YORK, June 10—Miss Antoinette Cortelyou, a comely young woman of independent means, who lives in expensively furnished apartments at No. 68 West Sixty-sixth street, was arrested last night and locked up in the West Sixty-eighth street station on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Mrs. Dorothy Auerbach, of No. 69 West Ninety-second street, a friend of Miss Cortelyou, who claims that she lost $2500 worth of jewelry from a hand bag while visiting the latter yesterday afternoon.

Ruth Bundy, Miss Cortelyou's colored maid, also was arrested and locked up on the same charge.

When taken to the station house Miss Cortelyou was surprised and very indignant. Her indignation increased when Matron Mary Quinn searched her to find if any of the articles of jewelry described by Mrs. Auerbach could be found.

"This is an outrage," she declared. "It is an outrage that I should be arrested and an unwarranted indignity and insult to subject me to this search. Mrs. Auerbach must be out of her mind. I am a niece of Postmaster-General Cortelyou, and there is no reason why I should steal anyone's jewelry. I can have all that I want."

Miss Cortelyou wore only a plain gold ring and a solitaire diamond ring when arrested. She was prettily dressed in a white cloth yachting suit, with straw hat and light blue plumes. Her skirt was of walking length, and she wore champagne tinted silk stockings.

Miss Cortelyou sent out for Lawyer James Smith, of No. 666 Eighth avenue, who soon appeared with "Tom" Healy, proprietor of the restaurant at Sixty-sixth street and Columbus avenue, who furnished $1000 bail for both Miss Cortelyou and her maid. Magistrate Mayo signed the bail bond.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS.

BOSTON, June 10.—The annual meeting of the executive members of the First Church of Christ Scientists, the "Mother church" of the Christian Science denomination was held in the church edifice here today. There were present about 50 members from Boston, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Connecticut and other nearby states. Among the visiting members was Rev. Irving C. Tomlinson of Concord, N. H.

A dispatch was sent to Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder of the church, which said in part:

"Assembled in annual meeting within the walls of the First Church of Christian Scientists, founded by you, we the executive members of this church, desire to share with you the gladness and promise of this communion season. At the very beginning of our greeting, we place the word 'Gratitude,' as best becoming the spirit in which we convene after another year of love and labor."

ATTACK BY JAPS

Is Expected by Gen. Linevitch

TOKIO, June 10, 3 p. m.—General Linevitch is reported to be with his headquarters at Fenghwa busily engaged in the personal inspection and direction of his troops for the purpose of strengthening his line of defence along the Changchun-Kirin line, evidently expecting a Japanese onset.

The Russian methods of making reconnaissances in force are said to have remarkably improved. They have ceased to be disorderly but owing to the Russians over faithfulness to the text book orders they are still placed at a disadvantage, their movements being anticipated by the Japanese who prevent them from realizing results commensurate with the amount of sacrifice.

NOT GUILTY

BANK OFFICIALS WERE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., June 10.—The preliminary examination of J. R. Young of the Goldfield Bank and Trust company and Francis L. Burton, on the charge of conspiracy and obtaining money under false pretenses, has resulted in their acquittal.

Young was remanded into custody pending his trial on the charge of embezzlement. Cashier Boales testified that the bank's capitalization, which was said to be $100,000, was only in reality $17,000 cash.

STRIKE TROUBLE

Led to Shooting Affair in Chelsea

BOSTON, June 10.—Because he had been repeatedly menaced and fearing that his wife was in danger, Fred J. Leonard, 21 years old, employed as a cutter at the Charles F. Kelly company shoe factory on Everett avenue, Chelsea, early last evening, whipped a revolver from his pocket while on Everett avenue and fired a 32-calibre shot at Philip A. Smith, 25 years old, of 11 6th street, Chelsea.

The bullet struck Smith in the right side of the abdomen, passing through the intestines and lodged in his back. Physicians performed an operation on him at the Frost hospital, but were unable to locate the bullet. His condition is extremely serious.

PREMIER BOND

ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR RAISING MORE MONEY.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 10—Premier Bond in the legislature this afternoon announced plans for raising increased revenues. He said the Canadian Marconi Co. had established three wireless stations in Newfoundland without authority and that Colonial government believed they were doing commercial business with the Marconi stations at Cape Cod, Cap ellreton and passing steamers. Therefore the government proposed to tax these stations $1000 each if satisfied that it was not the intention of the government to tax the Anglo-American Cable company for more than five Atlantic cables at $4000 each as the extensions to the Canadian continent were regarded as a part of the same cables. It was proposed however to levy a tax aggregating $20,000 annually upon banks doing business in the colony.

THREE NUNS

DECIDE TO GO AMONG THE LEPERS.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 10—Away in the interior of Japan there is a leper settlement known as Kumamtu. Thither Sisters Luke, Adelid and Martha are going. They arrived from Quebec and left on the Empress of India for Japan. Their sacrifice is purely voluntary and they are well aware of their destiny.

The sisters are young, healthy and strong and nature has dealt kindly with them in the matter of face and figures; yet they go bravely to their field of labor with no other aim in view than nursing and caring for Christ's poor and afflicted. The sisters are going to devote their life to caring for the lepers of Japan. The will never leave the leper settlement once they have set foot in it.

Y. W. C. A. HOME.

The Young Women's Christian Association opened their new home on John street this afternoon at 2 o'clock for all who desired to inspect it. The ladies of board of directors were present to extend a cordial welcome to all who came, and will receive until 9.30 p. m. They desire to express their sincere regret that hundreds who came to their opening on Wednesday evening could not gain admission, because of the size of the crowd inside. Among those outside closed doors were directors and special friends of the association.

The society acknowledges the gift of sheets and pillow cases enough for all the rooms from Mr. Horace Stebbins of New York.

BOTH MUST HANG

ANNA VALENTINA, THE NEW JERSEY MURDERESS.

Two Women Will Pay the Death Penalty

Two women sat in the shadow of the hangman's noose when last night's sun went down; for with the sun's setting there went down also their last hopes of escaping the gallows. To Mary Mabel Rogers in Vermont and Anna Valentina in New Jersey only a few days are left before they pass into the hands of the executioner.

It has long been claimed that no woman ever again would be hanged in the United States.

That such prophecies have been erroneous is proven by the fate that certainly awaits these two murderesses, unless something in the nature of a miracle intervenes to stay the vengeance of the law.

In neither case is there any doubt as to guilt.

Mary Mabel Rogers—young and called pretty by many—killed her husband in cold blood.

Anna Valentina—middle-aged, grim and homely—murdered the rival who stole the affections of the man she loved.

Everything that can be done has been done to save these women from the hangman, but all has been in vain.

Mrs. Mary Rogers, now under sentence of death at Windsor jail for the murder of her husband, Marcus, at Bennington, Vt., must pay the penalty for her crime.

She will be hanged a week from next Friday

In spite of the extraordinary efforts made to save her from the gallows, her fate was sealed yesterday, when Justice Peckham of the United States Supreme Court refused to grant the writ of error necessary to take the case before the United States Supreme Court at Washington.

No further hope remains to the condemned woman, and her attorneys now admit that her execution can no longer be delayed

The only hope left was that Governor Bell might grant a further reprieve, but that Governor Bell will interfere no more is evident from the statement made by him when he said yesterday:

"The law must take its course. I was obliged to grant the second reprieve under the law, but I shall not interfere again. This covers my position in the matter."

MR. SILK SUES

Town of Tewksbury for Damages to Land

Mr. Fred Silk of North Tewksbury, has brought suit against the town of Tewksbury for damage done by drainage of surface water through his land. A local morning paper stated that the town has not damaged Mr. Silk's property in any way.

To a representative of The Sun, Mr. Silk said that the article in the morning paper did him an injustice. "I have been living in North Tewksbury for 15 or 16 years, and I am not looking for trouble with the town or with individuals, but I have rights that must be respected.

"A few years ago I put a drain through my farm for my own convenience and it served the purpose well. Later, the town connected a catch basin to my ditch and the result was that an overflow that injured my property. The town did not have my consent to attach the catch basin and I am suing to recover for the damage that was done my land."

AL DELMONT

KNOCKED OUT WILIE MACK IN SIXTH ROUND.

LAWRENCE, June 10.—The West End A. C. closed its season of boxing last night by presenting in the feature event Willie Mack of Lawrence and Al Delmont of Medford. Delmont won in the sixth round after one minute of fighting in that round.

It was a pretty go, although Mack was outclassed in ring generalship by Delmont. He made a good showing, always having a dangerous wallop, but Delmont's cleverness stalled him from landing it.

Mack made his best showing in the fourth. He sent the Medford boy spinning with a hard right to the chin, but Al was back like a flash and he kept Mack working fast for the remainder of the bout.

In the sixth in an exhange from a clinch, Delmont swung his right over to Mack's jaw, and the latter went down, his head striking the canvas heavily. He was counted out.

Kid Grady and Kid Barrett sparred six rounds to a draw. Johnny Reagan of Andover beat Kid Gray of Boston in six rounds, and Lew Doestador of Philadelphia went down and out in the fifth before Jone Nelson of Chelsea.

The latter bout, was the gamest exhibition ever seen in a local ring, the loser, a negro, taking fearful punishment.

WILL PARADE ON THE FOURTH OF JULY.

At a meeting of Passaconaway tribe of Red Men held last night it was voted to ask the Great Council for permission to turn out in full Indian garb in the parade to be held in this city on the Fourth of July, similar to that worn at Worcester last Fourth. The tribe turned out in a Fourth of July parade about a dozen years ago and captured the first prize. They also participated in a Fourth of July parade at Lawrence a year or two later.

Chevalier lodge, Knights of Pythias, has appointed this committee to have charge of the ceremony of decorating the graves of departed brothers a week from next Sunday: Lyman Hodgman, Eugene Collins, Clarence Wheeler, Charles Haskell, Lester Mason. There is no union memorial movement among the lodges this year.

LAWRENCE, June 10.—Mary Skibo, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Leo Kinchi of 369 Common street, has been reported to the police as missing since Saturday, when she drew her pay in the Everett mills, it is said. The mother fears that her daughter has been enticed away.

The girl is rather tall for her age, light complexioned, with blue eyes. She wore a black and gray skirt and blue coat trimmed with lace, and on her hat were red and white roses.

READY TO MEET

Russia and Japan Accept Roosevelt's Terms

NEW YORK, June 10, 9.04 a. m.—The Associated Press has definite knowledge that both the Russian and the Japanese governments have accepted President Roosevelt's suggestion and that a meeting of representatives of the two contending powers is assured.

JAPAN

WILL INCLUDE AN INDEMNITY IN HER DEMANDS.

LONDON, June 10, 10.40 a. m.—The keenest interest is manifested in President Roosevelt's note endeavoring to bring Japan and Russia to an understanding. While the British government is not taking any part in the negotiations it is giving the most cordial support to the president of whose actions in the matter it has been kept fully informed. Diplomatic and official circles speak in the highest terms of the diplomatic manner in which the president handled the matter and are fully in accord with what they considered to be the only way in which the difficulty could be overcome. The United States not being entangled in any way was really the only country which could take action but even Pres. Roosevelt could not do more than endeavor to start direct negotiations between the belligerents.

Japan, it can be stated, refused to start the negotiations until fully assured of the earnestness of Russia and that her proposals would be seriously considered. Her demands will include an indemnity, the amount of which has been fixed by the Japanese government and on this point the president is urging lenient treatment. It is considered here that Japan is entitled to an indemnity and it is pointed out that while the payment of an indemnity might affect the standing of Russia among the powers it is not so serious as the loss of territory, besides the payment of an indemnity would be forgotten sooner than the loss of territory and would leave no feeling for revenge. Financial circles in London are of the opinion that the Japanese will demand an indemnity amounting to about $1,000,000,000, that being their estimate of the cost to the Japanese of the 16 months' fighting. This is considered in some quarters to be too large an estimate of the expenditure which is thought to be nearer $500,000,000.

M. WITTE

SAYS CRISIS WILL COME WHEN WAR IS OVER.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10, 12.35 p. m.—The radical press which hounds the government no matter which way it turns, is promptly seeking to take advantage of the new situation created by the possibility of peace. Although for months it has been preaching peace and the abandonment of the whole of the Manchurian adventure at any cost, it has already veered around and pretends to be horrified at the fact that Russia can contemplate the possibility of surrendering her position on the Pacific and purchasing peace at the price of an indemnity after the sacrifice of millions of the people's money and thousands of the people's lives and declares that only the people shall decide whether the country shall submit to this humiliation. These tactics will produce all the more effect since so far as the indemnity goes the radical papers undoubtedly reflect the views of the masses of the Russian people as well as those prevalent in official circles. The status of Vladivostok and the question of indemnity are sure to be the main obstacles to an agreement once the belligerents are brought together, but the crisis for which the solid elements of the opposition are waging war against the government and trying to precipitate constitutes the chief danger.

Solemn words of warning such as those uttered by the Moscow zemstvoists and the mayors of the principal cities who joined with them in the All-Russian zemstvo congress cannot be lightly thrust aside although the government is getting accustomed to hard words. The organization known as the league of professional leagues yesterday, at Moscow, threatened to translate their words into acts unless the government yielded and resolved not only to inaugurate a strike of all the professional classes but to arm in self defense. They also bound themselves not to testify at political trials and to provide for each other's families in case any members suffered a railroad accident or exile. Months ago M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, said to the correspondent of the Associated Press: "There will be no internal crisis now or while the war lasts. The crisis will come when the war ends."

His words seem like a prophecy.

GREAT HOPE

BERLIN OFFICIALS EXPECT PEACE WILL BE MADE.

BERLIN, June 10, 2.30 p. m.—The text of Pres. Roosevelt's message on the subject of peace to the governments of Russia and Japan is regarded at the foreign office here as admirable in spirit and phrasin gand positive hope now exists of comparatively early peace. The Russian emperor in fact invited the action of the president and had much to do with the form that the president's representations took. Emperor Nicholas, through the counsel of powerful personal influences in Russia, became disposed toward peace some days in advance of the president's action. It is recognized at the Russian court and at this court also that no man in the world could so well make an appeal for peace as President Roosevelt. His known views, the detachment of the United States from the European system and the good will Japan feels toward the United States, made the president the solitary statesman who could take such a step without either side distrusting him or feeling annoyed by his solicitude. The conviction here is that Russia is now ready for peace and seeks peace, and that the only difficulties not insurmountable by negotiation which might arise in the Japanese government's intentions and terms. Emperor Nicholas, now won for peace, would again decide for war should the Japanese attitude be unconciliatory or even one of long hesitation and reserve though it is understand Japan also gave the president some assurances before he acted.

BUILDING NOTES

WHAT THE LOCAL CONTRACTORS ARE DOING.

The city carpenters are busily engaged in laying a new hardwood floor in the office of the chief engineer at the central fire station. The men started ripping up the old floor yesterday and expect to have the new floor laid by tomorrow night. The place was badly in need of a floor as the last flooring laid looked like a crazy quilt, the floor consisting of the odds and ends of the old Huntington hall, the high school annex and some other buildings, many of the pieces being not over a foot long.

When the floor is completed the work of repairing the interior of the central fire station will be practically finished. During the time the workmen have been at the fire house a new floor was laid on the truck side in Palmer street and one where the chief's wagons are kept in Middle street, while stall pans were installed and the stalls repaired. The interior of the building was touched up by the painters and the brick work in Middle street, which was damaged by the falling of the Fellows block, was also repaired.

Attention is called to the John Ayer estate of about 14,000 square feet, corner of Moody and Tilden streets which is offered for sale for the first time for many years. The heirs and trustee are not obliged to sell, but as they have no capital to develop the property for business purposes they have concluded to offer it for sale if a suitable price can be obtained. No better chance could be had for any one wishing to buy the property and either develop it at once for business purposes or do it gradually. Parts of it could be bringing in an income while other parts were rebuilding. It is well rented now and a purchaser taking it now could go on with it as it is until ready to develop it. See advertisement in another column.

Ground for the erection of the new Ennell street school was broken Tuesday by employes of Cyrus Barton, who has the contract for the erection of the foundation. As soon as the excavation has been completed the work of erecting the foundation will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible.

Several recent fires have thrown a little work in the way of several contractors. The fire at the Gray house in Madison street, which destroyed the roof and a good portion of the interior, will cost the owners about $1000 for repairs. A permit to make repairs was taken out at the office of the superintendent of lands and buildings this week.

Carpenters are now at work repairing the buildings of Michael Cohen & Son at 75 and 81 Suffolk street which were damaged by fire last month. The cost of repairing will be about $200.

No permits for the erection of new buildings were taken out at city hall this week, and only three permits for alterations were granted.

During Monday and Tuesday of next week the elevator at city hall will be out of commission as six new cables are to be installed. At the last inspection of the elevator the liability company, which insures the elevator, notified the city officials that several of the cables were wearing, and while the elevator was not in a dangerous condition they would request that new cables be installed before the next inspection or they would not assume any further liability.

TECH MEN

IN FAVOR OF A UNION WITH HARVARD.

BOSTON, June 10.—The corporation of the Institute of Technology at a special meeting yesterday afternoon voted to unite with Harvard university on the basis of the tentative plan which was drawn up some months ago by a joint committee from Harvard and Tech.

There were 32 members of the corporation present at the meeting, with Pres. Pritchett in the chair. The discussion lasted two hours and when the vote was taken it showed 24 in favor of the merger, and 16 against it, including four pairs.

In all there are 47 members on the Tech corporation, including the governor of the state and the chief justice of the supreme court. Neither of these would vote on such a question as it will have to go before both of them later in their official capacities. This left a total of 45 to possibly vote on the question and it is a well-known fact that 20 of these 45 are against the merger. When the vote was polled it showed four pairs, making it 24 to 16 in favor of the merger at yesterday's meeting.

NEW DEPARTURE

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE WILL BE INCORPORATED.

The Lowell Commercial college is to take a long stride in its work as a business educator. The college is to be incorporated, with Mr. LeDoit E. Kimball, the present proprietor, president; Mr. C. C. Dexter of the Lynn Business College, vice-president; Mr. George P. Lord, proprietor of the Salem Commercial school, secretary, and Mr. F. A. Spence of Salem, treasurer.

Mr. Spence will be actively associated with Mr. Kimball in the management of the college. He is a graduate of Brown university, has had nearly fifteen years' experience as an instructor and associate with Mr. Lord in Salem, and during the past year was assistant manager and "model-office" expert of the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston, also superintendent of the Boston Situation Department, which has become famous for its success in placing graduates of the three schools already mentioned. Mr. Spence is a practical accountant and will assume charge of the Commercial Department. He will also organize and direct the "model office" of the shorthand department.

The penmanship and shorthand courses will be in charge of Mr. N. D. Clawson, who has at present a similar position with the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston. Mr. Clawson is an expert penman from the Zanerian Art College, Columbus, Ohio, and is an experienced teacher of both the Gregg and Pitman systems of shorthand. He has also been manager of one of the notable Brown Colleges of Ohio.

Miss Bertha F. Hamilton, a former teacher in Tiffin's Business Institute, Keene, N. H., who has given excellent satisfaction in the Lowell Commercial college during the past year, will be retained as one of the teachers in the book-keeping department.

A valuable asset of the Lowell Commercial college will be the free services of the Boston situation department in obtaining situations for those of its graduates who desire to locate in Boston and other New England cities.

Extensive additions and improvements will at once be made in both the rooms and the courses of study, the floor space being nearly doubled.

The aim of the Lowell Commercial college is to illustrate to the youth of Lowell and vicinity the highest business principles, to provide the most practical methods of training for business, and to assist its graduates to the largest possible success in business. A catalogue of the college will be issued about July 1, and a copy will be mailed free in answer to request for the same. Callers will be welcomed at the college office, 7 Merrimack street, over the new waiting room, any day throughout the summer.

CAME TO LOWELL

A Missing Haverhill Woman Was Here

HAVERHILL, June 10 Jennie Sargent, an actress with whom Arthur Williams says is his missing wife, Lizzie, left this city two weeks ago last Monday, returned to this city yesterday and admits that Mrs. Williams has been with her.

"I had nothing to do whatever with Mrs. Williams leaving her husband," she said, "as she went away voluntarily, having been disatisfied with the conditions at her home. The newspapers have published stories that I lured her away and that is absolutely untrue.

"Mrs. Williams had made up her mind to leave her husband. She is not 18 years old, as has been stated, being only 16, and I know this as I have known her for a long time. We left here Monday, May 22, and went to several places in this state and Connecticut. Some of the places we visited were Hartford and Norwich, Conn. We came back here last Tuesday, intending to secure my trunk and we left again, going to Lawrence.

"I have since been in Lowell, but Mrs. Williams is not with me now, as she is en route to Daytona, Fla., where she is to visit friends. She is coming north again in August, and will join a repertory company, with whom we both have secured an engagement. The company will play in this city late in the fall.

"Before going south Mrs. Williams consulted a lawyer and learned that her husband could not force her to live with him again, and she says she has made up her mind not to, as she has arranged to file a petition for a divorce. She left her trunk with me and I intend looking after it."

Miss Sargent came to this city to try and secure the express company's voucher for the articles that had been shipped to North Adams, but she was unable to, as Mr. Williams said he had lost it. When Miss Sargent confronted Mr. Williams at his photographic gallery, he accused her of having enticed his wife to leave him. She denied this.

Mr. Williams then accused Miss Sargent with having tried to prevent his marriage to Mrs. Williams, and this she admitted, saying she thought then that Mrs. Williams ought not to marry him.

OPEN FRAUD

SAID TO BE COMMITTED AT LEAGUE ISLAND NAVY YARD.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—D. H. Warren, dairy and food commissioner of Pennsylvania, yesterday personally furnished to President Roosevelt and the acting secretary of the navy with evidence, alleging that fraud was being committed at the League Island navy yard in the matter of supplying that station with oleomargarine when the contract calls for pure butter. The commissioner furnished the Washington officers with evidence showing that, instead of butter, oleomargarine colored in imitation of butter was being sold at 21 cents a pound by a Philadelphia dealer, who has the contract of furnishing various food supplies to the ships at the navy yard, while colored oleomargarine is being sold in the markets where the law does not prohibit it at a much lower rate.

The Insurance Departments of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Wisconsin, after a rigid examination made at the request of the Board of Trustees of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, officially unite in a report showing the following:

THE COMPANY HAS MORE SURPLUS THAN IT CLAIMS.
INVESTMENTS OF THE HIGHEST ORDER.
DEATH CLAIMS PAID ON RECEIPT OF PROOF OF LOSS.
NEW BUSINESS PROCURED WITH FIDELITY TO THE INTERESTS OF POLICY-HOLDERS.
THE COMPANY IS PURELY MUTUAL—HAVING NO CAPITAL STOCK.
TRUSTEES ARE ELECTED BY THE POLICY-HOLDERS.
CHARTER PROHIBITS PROXY VOTING.
OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY THE TRUSTEES.
TRUSTEES EXERCISE INTELLIGENT AND FAITHFUL SUPERVISION OVER THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS.

It is given to few institutions, possessed like the Penn Mutual Life of nearly SEVENTY MILLIONS of assets, to boast of such splendid management as is evidenced by the report of the searching investigation to which it has just been subjected. The examiners found no subject whatever for adverse criticism. There were no weak spots but, in every direction, overwhelming evidence that the interests of the company's policy-holders are cared for with fine ability and integrity.

MAJOR CROWLEY

Resigns From the State Committee

BOSTON, June 10.—The suggestion was made yesterday that Col. A. A. Pope would be brought forward by the democratic leaders as the candidate for governor this fall.

Col. Gaston is authority for the statement that so far as he is concerned nothing definite has been done in the matter and no overtures to Col. Pope have been made or are contemplated by officials of the state committee.

Major Robert J. Crowley of Lowell yesterday morning mailed to Capt. John J. Flaherty his resignation as a member of the democratic state committee.

The Crowley resignation is the result of differences in the democratic state committee. A week ago Hon. Charles S. Hamlin resigned as a member-at-large, and today Capt. Flaherty will send to the secretary of the committee at the democratic headquarters in this city his own resignation.

Mr. Hamlin gave no reason for his resignation from the state committee, and the letter which Maj. Crowley sent to the chairman yesterday contains nothing in explanation. It is known, however, that Mr. Hamlin and his friends have been in a minority on the state committee, the supporters of Col. Gaston being in a decidedly substantial majority. Mr. Crowley has always a battle.

BROCKTON, June 10.—Josiah Quincy, formerly mayor of Boston, was the plaintiff in a case which was heard before Associate Justice Fred M. Bixby yesterday.

The case was against a Mr. Cox, and the Campello Box company, Mr. Cox formerly being in the company. Mr. Cox, it is alleged, signed over his accounting in the company to Mr. Quincy. About $2000 is involved, it being alleged that this amount is due on machinery formerly owned by Mr. Cox, and transferred to Mr. Quincy.

Politics in Glasgow and politics in Chicago are about as different as any two things could be.

NORWAY'S SECESSION.

Norway proclaims her independence, but the king of Sweden has not yet consented. The secession of Norway resembles in many respects the secession of the southern states previous to the Civil war in this country, but the point at issue is the tariff instead of slavery. Sweden stands for a high tariff, while Norway is for free trade. If the two countries could get along under one government, they would be able to protect their common interests much better than they can possibly do separately.

INVESTIGATE ALL SPOTTED FEVER CASES.

Spotted fever has caused more than fifty deaths in this city and yet among the physicians there is no unanimity of opinion as to its origin or the proper mode of treatment.

Some say it is caused by the bad weather, others that it lurks only in unsanitary places; while others hold that it is in some way allied to hog cholera, and still others that it is coincident with the prevalence of hydrophobia in dogs.

At first physicians tried anti-toxin but while anti-toxin is a splendid specific for diphtheria it is of no use whatever for spotted fever.

Hence the best treatment that can be given is symptomatic, viz.: when vomiting appears some remedy is given for that; when violent headache occurs rational methods are taken for that and so when the temperature runs high.

But so far as knowing what treatment is best under the circumstances, the doctors are entirely at sea as it were.

New York physicians who made many experiments with the disease have decided that anti-toxin is useless, while one prominent practitioner has given it as his opinion that the germs which produce the disease find their way into the brain through the soft bone of the nose, while other doctors equally reliable say the germs are in the air and that they find their way into the blood same as the germs of diphtheria or other diseases. Where there are so many conflicting opinions it is useless to favor any particular theory for there is none established with sufficient certainty to deserve general acceptance.

Lowell has suffered more from this disease this year than most of the other cities of the state. Why is this?

Already over 80 cases have occurred here and over fifty deaths have resulted. Under such circumstances would it not be advisable for the board of health to institute an inquiry into the conditions surrounding each particular case. The mode of life, the state of the health, the diet, the sanitary environment, the plumbing in the house, and many other things might be ascertained from which some general deductions could be made that would be of use in the future treatment of the disease and in reasoning out the cause.

Where such a mysterious disease cuts off so many lives it seems but reasonable that the health authorities of every city of importance should conduct investigations for themselves in order to add, if possible, some fact of importance to the general knowledge of this disease now so puzzling to the medical profession.

Such an investigation would cost something we presume; but after all there should not be a great deal of cost attached to the visitation of 80 families and the investigation of the circumstances surrounding each particular case. One physician would be needed and the superintendent of the board of health, together with a plumbing inspector, could do the rest.

We believe that such an investigation would bring to light some common cause in all the cases, and would establish whether or not the disease is contagious. When the present epidemic disappears, there may not be another opportunity to investigate the disease for a number of years; at least we hope it shall not reappear, but in case it should it would be well to be fortified against it to the extent of knowing the cause and something more about the treatment of the disease.

At the present time the physicians of the city, like those of every other city, admit that they know practically nothing of the disease except its deadly effects. If they knew anything of the origin of the disease they might be able to lay down rules for prevention if not for successful treatment. Thus in every light an investigation of all cases of spotted fever is highly desirable in the interests of science and the public health.

Her maiden name restored by law.

She had been married but three weeks when her husband was brought home in a helpless condition—intoxicated, when she never knew that he was familiar with the taste of liquor. He was put to bed, and she did just what any woman would feel like doing, sat down and cried, relates the Philadelphia Bulletin. That over, she did some hard thinking, seeing the long years stretch ahead with repetitions of that dreadful scene. There was but one question to settle—did she love him well enough to try to save him. She decided that she did, so set her brain to work on a plan of salvation.

A telegram brought to her side the doctor who brought her up, in a medical way, and to him she made a proposition. He was hard to convince, but she pleaded for her future, and he gave in. The "sick" man was doctored, his head shaved and Spanish fly blisters applied where they would be troublesome. Three weeks the man lay in bed, with his devoted wife to nurse him and tell how he had been brought home in an unconscious condition and tended night and day. Not a word about the cause. Whether he believed in her ignorance or accepted his punishment for what it was worth, no one ever knew. Certainly he was a reformed man when he left his bed. She had her reward.

"Any man," said the reformed absorber, "can be cured of a weakness for a special intoxicant. I know, for I had one. My pet drink was brandy, and I was no good in the morning until I had at least a couple of stiffeners. Fortunately for me, I had a wife who was fond of me. I had my own bedroom, and one morning it seemed to me as if the atmosphere as well as the pillows and the bed clothes smelled of brandy.

"There was a bottle of brandy on a small table near the head of the bed, but the cork was in tight. On the same table was a pitcher of ice water. I took a gulp from it and it tasted of brandy, but so weak that it gave me qualms. It seemed to me that the omelet at breakfast and even the coffee tasted of brandy.

"In the train, on the way to my office, I found myself sniffing at my handkerchief; it smelled of brandy. I began to get alarmed, and said to myself: 'The stuff must be coming through my pores.' I didn't have much of an appetite, and waited until I got home for dinner. Every bite and sup I took tasted of brandy.

"This sort of thing lasted for a couple of weeks, by which time the smell or taste of brandy made me sick. 'Sick' is hardly the word for it; not strong enough. I didn't care for any other drink, and I absolutely couldn't touch brandy. Without thinking anything about it, I stopped drinking the stuff.

"My wife kept the secret for two years, and then confessed that the family doctor had advised her to spray my room and my clothes and my food and my drink with brandy."

RILEY VS. EVELETH

CASE REOPENED AND DECISION RESERVED.

The cases of Riley vs. Eveleth were reopened yesterday in Boston, on the motion of counsel for the defence, allowed by Judge Bond.

Deputy Sheriff Eveleth testified in his own behalf, his testimony tending to show that the writ of attachment on the car, in the premises of Mr. Riley, was discharged previous to action on the writ of replevin. His testimony was corroborated by another witness, the keeper in charge of the property at the time. The testimony of the plaintiff, Mr. Riley, offered in rebuttal, was supported by one other witness. Judge Bond took the papers in the case, reserving decision.

At that time they cured me of kidney complaint which had annoyed me off and on for three years or more. I had taken remedies of various kinds, used liniments and wore bandages, but all failed to give me more than temporary relief. It was different with Doan's Kidney Pills. They went direct to the root of the disease and by the time I had used three boxes I considered myself cured, and during the past seven years I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney remedy."

EIGHT HOUR LAW

Applies to Canal Work Says Moody

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The opinion of Attorney General Moody regarding the application of the eight-hour law on the isthmus of Panama was made public yesterday. He holds that the act of August 1, 1892, which limits and restricts to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed by the government of the U. S. or by any contractor or sub-contractor upon the public works of the U. S. applies to the employment of laborers and mechanics in the construction of the Panama canal.

That act, however, the attorney general holds, does not apply to the office force of the isthmian canal commission, stationed on the isthmus of Panama, or to any of the employes of the government who are not within the ordinary meaning of the words "laborers and mechanics." Also that the scope of the act is not limited by the territorial jurisdiction of congress, but is co-extensive with the subject matter to which it was directed, to wit: The conduct of officers and agents of the U. S. in respect to the hours of labor of merchants and laborers upon all public works of the U. S. Congress, he says, may fix the hours of labor upon all the works of the U. S. wherever conducted, and make the law binding upon the officers of the U. S., and through the agency of contracts, upon all contracts with the U. S.

In answer to the request of the secretary of war for an opinion upon the additional question of whether the provisions of the act mentioned apply to the hours of labor of "mechanics and laborers," employed in the construction, maintenance and operation of the Panama railroad and steamship line, the attorney general decides in the negative.

As to whether the eight-hour law applies to that class of employes whose services are necessary before and after the regular hours of work such as engineers who must get up steam in the morning before the regular hours begin, and clean the machinery after the day's work is done, the attorney general says:

"It is believed that giving to the words the meaning which is ordinarily accepted for them and having in mind that the act should not be extended beyond its plain terms, the committee will have no difficulty in determining in each case as it arises, whether the employe is a laborer or mechanic, or whether his duties are such as to warrant some other designation of his employment."

FOR SUCCESS

POINTERS FOR BANK CLERKS AND OTHERS.

At a dinner given recently by the Cincinnati chapter of the American Institution of Bank Clerks, Jacob Schmidlapp, president of the Union Savings Bank and Trust company, made an address on "How to become valuable to the institution which employs you." He said in part:

"What I have to say to you is not drawn from abstract reasoning, but has been revealed by recording my own experience, and is perhaps of no more value to you than the observation of others; for that reason, do not take it too seriously, but remember that an intelligent man will always profit by the experience of others. I can make no better beginning than by advising you to always keep to the truth, no matter what inducements, real or apparent, may be brought to bear. I point to the results of the training at West Point and Annapolis. But one of their many graduates who have filled positions of honor and trust has been found guilty of defalcation.

"Another characteristic which is only secondary to that of truthfulness is politeness. Thirdly, while the interests of the employer and employe may not be identical, they are certainly dependent, and a man cannot have his own interest at heart if he does not, at the same time, do all in his power to promote the welfare of his employer.

"These truisms may seem hackneyed and vain to one who is starting in business and working upon a meager salary, but I can assure you that a man who works with an ideal before him is bound to approach—even if he does not achieve—it. These are fundamental principles which must form the basis of every successful business life, and, while you can not all expect to become presidents of banks, either because there are not banks enough, or for other reasons, and some of you may not reach the management of the departments in which you are employed, you can be polite, which means labors lightened, and every one of you has intelligence enough to be attentive to your business. These three basic qualifications alone will be of manifold value to your employer and to yourself.

"If we agree so far, then I am going to tell you what I think you should do in order to make more secure your advancement. The most valuable characteristic which is developed by practice is economy. No matter how small your salary is, save some portion of it. As soon as you have formed that habit you at once pass from poverty to prosperity. Economy is caused by self-denial, than which there is no greater builder of character. Out of every 50 successful business men 49 will attribute their success to saving, which not only makes a man of greater value to his employers, but makes him a better citizen.

"Learn to trade. When I see a young man buy stationery or anything else for his company with an indifference as to its price I feel that there is no chance for him to become the head of his institution. The trader soon becomes versed in the different phases of his business, takes more interest in his work and his mind becomes more active. Remember, you must first become traders before you can become merchants, between which classes I make a distinction. The former is more selfish in his transactions, is influenced mostly in the interest of his own company; the latter finds pleasure alone in the transaction if the profit be mutual, but it is this training in the business man which adds to his ability as a banker and gives him that education which is not usually offered to a clerk.

"Speculation is one of the worst vices open to a man who occupies a fiduciary relation. Among my acquaintances I can not with assurance point to one who has really profited by speculation. Your knowledge of these matters is comparatively little. Take, for example, railroad stocks. The man who sells them has more knowledge of their intrinsic value than you are inpossession of, and therefore the percentage is against you and finally absorbs your capital."

Concord Did a Job on Nixey

New Pitcher Finished Out the Game

Twelve to naught. Worse and more of it. The Lowell team went to Concord, yesterday, and played a miserable game. They didn't seem to know how to play together while Nixey's curves were as ineffective as a schoolboy's "coaxers." This defeat cannot be blamed to either hard luck or the umpire. It was simply and solely tough playing. Even Capt. Connors, the peer of all the second basemen in the league, went bad and made three errors.

Concord scored 12 runs in two innings, four in the first and eight in the fourth. Nixey was batted out of the game and a Concord youngster named Tonkin took his place, and while promising enough was of no particular use in that game. The Jackson brothers played first and third base again and played finely as far as fielding went. Jimmy Jackson got one single hit. Owen didn't connect. Steventon held Lowell down to four hits with a total of six, while 12 hits were made off Nixey in five innings.

DIAMOND NOTES.

Concord today.

Sec. Morse attended the game yesterday.

Luck will yet turn and we will have great fun fighting up-hill.

Bushey remained at home yesterday and fixed up the pitchers' slab which was sadly in need of filling in.

It was Shriners' day at Concord yesterday and they were out at the game in merry numbers.

Martin Mack is trying to get Nate Pulsifer, the Penn college professor, to play first base. Pulsifer formerly ran the Concord team and he is one of the best in the business.

Nixey Coughlin was released after yesterday's game. A pitcher named Leonard of Jamaica Plain will report on Monday.

Van Zant, with a lot of Nashua admirers rooting for him, yesterday, made two errors on the only two chances he had.

HAS A CABINET

Mayor Weaver Names His Advisors

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—In accordance with his promise that from now on until the end of his administration he would give to the city of Philadelphia a business administration Mayor Weaver last evening announced the appointment of an advisory committee of 14.

The members of the committee include well known business men, manufacturers, bank presidents, lawyers and one newspaper man, Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press.

One of the developments of the day was the arrest of John A. Acker, general storekeeper of one of the water works stations in this city. He is charged with falsely certifying to the correctness of certain bills presented by the contractors and with accepting bribes while in the performance of official duties. He was given a hearing before a magistrate and held in $2000 bail for further hearing.

Acker was dismissed from the service early in the day and before his arrest occurred.

WOUND FATAL

MANCHESTER MAN COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.

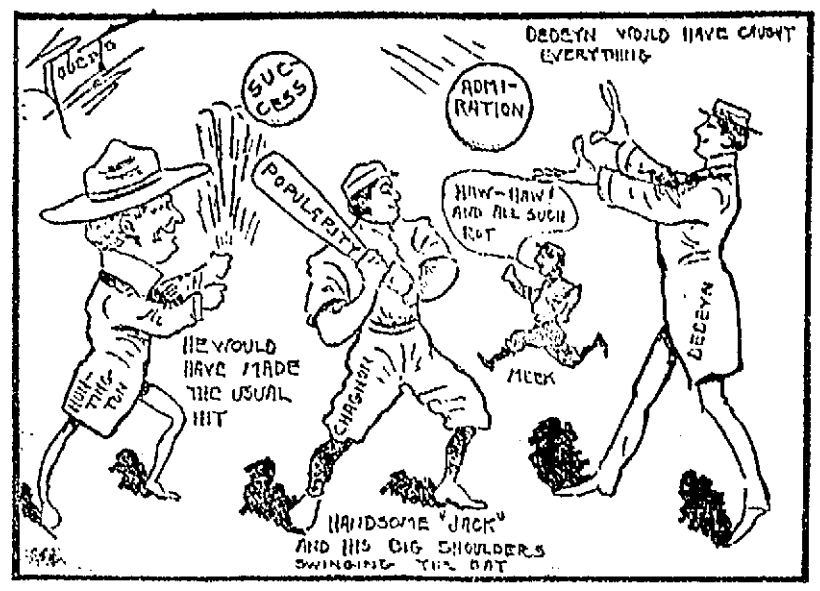
MANCHESTER, N. H., June 10.—Girday H. White, 42 years old, residing on the Candia road in East Manchester, shot himself yesterday afternoon at his home with a 32-calibre revolver, the bullet entering back of the left temple. The wound was fatal.

No reason can be assigned by White's family for his deed. He was in the milk business and well known in this city and the surrounding towns. White died at 11 o'clock last night.

MINOR ACCIDENTS.

Dorothy Driscoll, aged nine years and residing at 45 Cedar street, was treated at the Emergency hospital for a wound to the right hand caused by broken glass.

Charles E. Halligan, aged 20 years, while at work on the foundation of a building yesterday, had his right hand crushed. He received treatment at the Emergency hospital.



THE ACTORS (AS THEY MIGHT HAVE BEEN) AT THE BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

Chagnon's Actors Acted Very Badly

"To be or not to be a baseball player. That is the question," quoth Correze, the singer, as the drop of the curtain brought him back in an instant from his love affair in the court of Russia to plain democratic Lowell, and a voice from the top of the wings whispered: "Say, Jack, are you going to play with us tomorrow?"

The answer was: "Not to be" for Jack Chagnon, the clever actor of the Huntington-DeDeyn Stock company who led a team of Opera House Indians to Spalding park to do battle with the celebrated Hoban Pets proved conclusively that while a good actor he couldn't even act the part of a ball player, except on the coach line where his great voice aroused the echoes. There has been some talk of late as to the ability of the male members of the company to play the national game, and in order to prevent them from becoming conceited Tommy Hoban uncaged his Pets and "sicced" them at the actors with dire results.

Of course there's an excuse, for at the last moment Messrs. Huntington, DeDeyn, Burtt and Sullivan failed to appear. Donald Meek and Tom Carroll showed up but refused to move off the bench. "We kind of like this sort of thing, don't yer know," said Mr. Meek, as he and Carroll munched sandwiches in the shade and watched their perspiring brethren. Thus only Chagnon and Dan McCabe were the only real Thespians in the cast. But not to be undone they formed a team out of stage hands and had all sorts of fun. Dan McCabe caught for the actors and Chagnon roamed about in right field. A young man named Vallere, who used to be ruing in as a French count, landlord, soldier, galley slave, or any other old job French when the "rep" companies were short a man, did the pitching. On first base was Cookie, the Opera House "rep," who isn't even eligible for a job on the police team. On second base was Frank Devlin, the husky basketball player, who as a member of the Bachelor club minstrels, got by as an actor.

For short stop they had Billie Deacon Baxter who has been shifting scenes more regularly than the flyest bank absconder that ever hiked away from his native berg. Then the Deacon is an old time actor for he used to be the Jim Hackler of Centralville politics before Billie Tommy Gallagher grew up. On third base was "Artie" Devlin, Frank's young brother who mightily does a turn behind the scenes and who used to play the beavies for the South Common Dramatic club a few years ago. In left field was "Bob" Guthrie, the A. C. Wheelock of the bunch, that is, the property man, though Bob is non-taxable. Bob has played a variety of parts during his many years' connection at the Opera House and makes a most valuable addition. Owing to his great length he has to do the stretching whenever "Hands Across the Sea" strikes the town, while he is invaluable in playing the part of a tree in all rustic scenes. Tom Mack, who makes the lightning and thunder and also hands out snow storms to the homeless heroine and in fact regulates all the stage weather basked in the sunshine of centrefield while the mighty Chagnon, shagged none in right field.

For the Pets, "Slide of Sausage" Casey was behind the bat and "Shif" Moore on the slab. Jimmy Mulvaney whose dome glistened like the Boston State House in the sunlight, held down first. Tommy Hoban himself played second and is now walking with a cane. Allie Cudworth of High School baseball fame, was at short and Billy Meloy on third. "Jack" Kelly, the heavy hitter and spiuter, galloped through left field. Charlie Beals held down center and Fred Tighe looked more like Charley Armstrong than ever in right field for he worked like him.

Little Jockey Brady had charge of the refreshment booth and poured with all the grace of a society bird. George Callahan wiped the sweat off the brows for the actors and "Frosty" Merrill officiated in a similar capacity for the Pets. "Jack" Barry was brought out as mascot for the actors but he fell asleep and they lost the game while he wasn't working.

The game was full of features. It would take columns to recount them all. There was a barrel of fun and no "scraps" and those who failed to show up missed a fine afternoon's sport.

TOWN MEETING

Dracut Voters Discuss Water Supply

LEADING SECTIONS OF THE BILL

Town Schools Preparing for Closing

A special town meeting was held in Dracut this afternoon in the center meeting house. The gathering was called to order at 2 o'clock and it was announced that the purport of the meeting was to take some action on the question of establishing a water supply for a portion of Dracut. The water supply district will include a part of the Navy Yard, Dracut Centre and Ledge Hill. The district is about one-half mile wide. The legislature passed an act authorizing the town to establish a water supply, the bill providing several conditions, one of which was that it should be accepted by the people before it could be operative, and it was to take action on this that the meeting was called.

In the district which is known as the water supply section there are close on to 300 voters, and it is the general belief among these men that Dracut would be greatly benefited by accepting this opportunity of providing the house in that section with a suitable water supply. It is argued that a system of driven wells can be established, a reservoir erected on Marsh hill, and the system of water works placed in running order for the sum of $50,000. The belief in town was that the act would be accepted by the voters, but should it fail at this meeting, then it can be brought up for action at any town meeting called within three years.

The bill as passed by the legislature contains fourteen sections, the most important of which are as follows, inasmuch as they provide for the method of payment of damages and also for the establishment of the plant proper:

Section 3. Said water district shall within sixty days after taking any land, rights of way, water rights, water source or easements as aforesaid, otherwise than by lease or purchase, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the district in which the same are situated a description thereof sufficiently accurate for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for.

Section 4. Said water district shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any lands, water source or water rights, or by laying or maintaining any aqueducts or other works for the purpose aforesaid, or by the doing of any other act under authority hereof. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, and unable to agree with the said district upon the amount thereof, may have them assessed in the manner provided by law with respect to land taken for highways. Any person or corporation whose water rights are thus taken or affected may apply as aforesaid within one year after the time when the water is actually withdrawn or diverted, and not thereafter.

Section 5. For the purpose of paying all expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this act, said district may from time to time issue bonds, notes or certificates of debt, signed by the treasurer of the water district and countersigned by the chairman of the water commissioners hereinafter provided for, to be denominated on the face thereof Dracut Water Supply District Loan, in an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, payable at periods not exceeding thirty years from the dates of issue, and bearing interest payable semi-annually at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum. Said district may sell such securities at public or private sale, at not less than par, or pledge the same for money borrowed for the purposes of this act, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper. Said district shall pay the interest upon the loan as it accrues, and shall provide for the payment of said principal at maturity by making such annual proportionate payments as will extinguish the same within the time prescribed by this act. The amounts which may be necessary to make such payments shall without further vote of said district be raised annually by taxation in the way hereinafter provided.

Section 6. Said district shall raise by taxation annually a sum which with the income derived from the sale of water and the payments from the town of Dracut for hydrants service will be sufficient to pay the current annual expenses of operating its water works and the interest accruing on the bonds issued by said district, together with such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act. Said district is further authorized by a two-thirds vote of the voters thereof present and voting at a legal meeting called for the purpose, to raise by taxation any sum of money for the purpose of enlarging or extending its water works and providing additional pipes, appliances and fixtures connected therewith, not exceeding $2000 in any one year.

Section 7. The town of Dracut may by a two-thirds vote of the legal voters present and voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose guarantee the payment of said bonds, notes or certificates of debt, provided such meeting is held within one year after the acceptance of this act by said district.

The teachers and pupils in the different schools of the town are making great preparations for the closing of the term which will take place on June 23. Exercises will be held and the awards of merit made.

Business at the mills in town is booming and it looks as if the woolen industry particularly has taken a brace. The mills in Dracut, the Navy Yard and Collinsville are working night and day and it is reported that the management of the Collinsville mills contemplates the construction of a new weave room.

Mrs. Benjamin Shaw, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Mark L. Shaw, the well known baker, has returned to her home in Nova Scotia. She was accompanied by Mrs. William Bolton, and Annie Hutchinson, who will spend the summer there.

NO. CHELMSFORD

Temperance Men Have Pleasant Jubilation

The St. John's Total Abstinence society of North Chelmsford lived up to its good reputation last evening when it entertained a large number of friends who were instrumental in making their recent turnout in the 20th anniversary parade a success. The affair was held at its hall in Branch street and there was a large attendance.

The early evening was given over to the pleasures of dancing to music by Leith's orchestra. At intermission tables were arranged about the hall and a farmer's repast was served. The entertainment following the repast consisted of piano solos by William Leith.

President John E. Harrington then rapped to order and in a few well chosen words introduced as chairman ex-President Stephen T. Ward. Mr. Ward spoke interestingly of the recent event and thanked those in attendance for their interest in the society. Other speeches were made by ex-Rep. William J. Quigley, who was chief marshal of the parade, President Thomas M. Twomey and Treasurer Edmund Costello of the Father Mahews of North Billerica, President John V. Donoghue, of the Mathew Temperance Institute of this city, Miss Theresa McCabe, president of the St. John's Ladies' Auxiliary, all of the speakers voicing the sentiments of their respective bodies for the success of the St. John's Total Abstinence society. After the speaking a vocal and instrumental program was carried out and later general dancing was resumed.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of President John E. Harrington, ex-President Stephen T. Ward, James F. Leahy and Patrick Connolly.

HOUSE EMPTY

FURNITURE REMOVED WHILE WIFE WAS ABSENT.

DUXBURY, June 10—Harvey J. Day, 28 years old, and one of the best known residents of the town, has been missing from his home on Cove street since Thursday, and his wife is prostrated at her home and in a very serious condition. Mrs. Day is about 25 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Mrs. Day left Thursday morning with her mother to attend a circus at Plymouth, Mr. Day having, she says, earnestly advised her to go. As soon as Mrs. Day had taken the train for Plymouth a furniture van drove up to the Day residence and Mr. Day, with the help of one of the men on the team, began to load the furniture into the wagon.

The neighbors were surprised, but said nothing about it, although they had not heard that the Days intended to move. As soon as the van was loaded it was driven toward Boston, with Mr. Day on the seat with the driver.

Mrs. Day came home from the circus with her mother, and found the house empty. She has been in a very serious condition since, and two physicians have been in constant attendance ever since.

PAUL MORTON RESIGNS NAVY PORTFOLIO TO MANAGE EQUITABLE.

MORTON THE MAN

HYDE SELLS STOCK CONTROL

Grover Cleveland Asked to Be Trustee

NEW YORK, June 10.—Paul Morton, who will retire from the secretaryship of the navy on July 1, was yesterday elected chairman of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society.

His election marks the first and most important step in the reorganization of the society and was followed by the tender of the resignations of President James W. Alexander, Vice President James H. Hyde, Second Vice President G. E. Tarbell, Third Vice President George T. Wilson and Fourth Vice President William H. McIntyre.

Mr. Morton, as was last night explained by Senator Chauncey M. Depew, was the unanimous choice of the board of directors of the Equitable, although the meeting yesterday was not altogether harmonious.

It is known that Brayton Ives and Charles Stewart Smith, who were from the outset of the controversy on the side of the conservative element, protested against some of the proceedings and it is believed Mr. Ives voted against Mr. Morton's election.

The new chairman, to further quote Senator Depew, did not consent to take office until he had received positive assurances that he would have a "free hand as to measures and men."

Mr. Hyde "divested" himself of the majority control, but as made clear in his letter to the board, retains a substantial interest in the society.

All of the resignations submitted to the meeting are subject to the pleasure of Chairman Morton, and none has yet been accepted.

Just what action Mr. Morton will take as to the resignations was not disclosed, but it was strongly intimated that President Alexander and Vice Pres. Tarbell, Wilson and McIntyre retired with the belief that their executive relations with the Equitable had ended.

The interests to which Mr. Hyde disposed of his stock number some two score individuals, led by Thomas F. Ryan, vice president of the Morton Trust company, which has close relations with the Mutual Life Insurance company, one of the Equitable's principal rivals.

Mr. Ryan is said to be heavily insured in the Equitable, as are, according to report, many of the others who acted with him in the purchase of the Hyde holdings.

The price paid for the Hyde estate stock, which is to be trusteed practically in perpetuity, was not disclosed, but estimates vary from $3,500,000 to $5,000,000.

In addition to the 502 shares held by the Hyde estate, which includes the widow of Henry B. Hyde, founder of the society, and his daughter, Vice President Hyde is said to hold between 150 and 17 0shares, and it is this holding to which Mr. Untermeyer refers in a statement as the "substantial interests" which his client retains. He has since the beginning of the Equitable controversy acted as Mr. Hyde's counsel.

The men requested to hold the majority stock by Mr. Ryan are ex-President Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse of Pittsburg and Morgan J. O'Brien, recently elevated to the chief justiceship of the appelate division of the supreme court of this district.

MONEY ENOUGH

Has Been Raised to Buy a New Organ

The committee on church organ and debt fund of the Branch Street Tabernacle met last evening and reported progress. The pastor, Rev. Asa Reed Dilts, presided at the meeting.

The committee reported that enough money had already been pledged to pay for the organ and the work of raising the church debt. It was stated that many outside of the church had contributed liberally.

Upon the recommendation of the committee, a special committee on new organ was appointed. The new committee is made up of the music committee of the church, W. F. Hills, J. N. Dows, W. A. Morse, Miss Blanche Hutchins, Frank B. Hill and Samuel G. Stephens.

When it was announced that sufficient money had already been raised to pay for the new organ a rising vote of thanks was given the committee, of which Miss Blanche M. Hutchins was chairman.

Steps have already been taken toward securing the new organ. Estimates from several organ builders have been received. It is hoped that the new organ will be in position and ready for use by the first of October.

DEMAND RIGHTS

Russian People Not Begging Terms

ADDRESS TO THE EMPEROR

Amounts to Threat of Civil War

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10—M. Boutiron, first secretary of the French embassy, had a long conference with Foreign Minister Lamsdorf yesterday afternoon and M. Bompard, the French ambassador, is hurrying back from Paris. France, instead of displaying jealousy at the initiative taken by President Roosevelt with a view to bringing Russia and Japan together for peace, has apparently warmly welcomed it and will give its co-operation.

No further definite development is now expected until President Roosevelt returns to Washington from his trip to Virginia.

Statements in the despatches that the president's sole aim is to bring the war-rinspowers in direct negotiations have been confirmed. There has been no undertaking on his part to apprise Russia of the Japanese terms nor, it is believed, to find a preliminary basis for negotiations. The main obstacle to the president's efforts has been removed with the emperor's acquiescence in his initiative and negotiations are probably now proceeding at Tokio.

When the question of the naming of peace plenipotentaries is raised, the name of George De Staal, who preceded Count Benkendorff as Russian ambassador at London, and who was president of the peace conference at The Hague in 1899 at once occurs to every Russian.

Notwithstanding the progress already made a great deal of skepticism is manifested in certain quarters as to the result of President Roosevelt's demarches. The public seems reluctant to believe that the emperor could have assented to anything like a movement toward peace. Some cynics even try to create the impression that Russia is only seeking to ascertain Japan's terms, and then, by flaunting the hard conditions imposed in the faces of the representatives of the people when they meet, arousing the whole nation to resist them. Such talk, however, is mere irresponsible chatter. The emperor has cast the die and will make peace if Japan's terms be such that Russia can accept them with dignity.

The commencement of formal peace negotiations, especially coupled with the prompt announcement of the convocating of a national assembly, may avert the threatened crisis which the liberals are forcing upon the government or it may only serve to precipitate it.

Moscow is now a perfect hotbed of protest against the existing regime and the address which the deputation from the All-Russian zemstvo congress held there has brought to St. Petersburg to present the emperor, has fairly stunned the members of the government. Nothing approaching such language used in the document from men of such standing as those who signed it, has ever before been heard in Russia. There is a peremptory ring about it which is ominous.

BOXING GOSSIP

Pugilists as a class are not always ready to praise their brother professionals. Often a victorious fighter will give vent to some nice remarks about a rival, but it is usually made in a spirit of pride. Since Jim Jeffries announced his retirement from the game of hit, stop and get away, there are any amount of bruisers who have come forward with a kind word about the champion. Corbett, until Jeffries came into the limelight, believed that there was no man in the ring who could swap punch for punch with him and win. Corbett did not regard the victory of Fitzsimmons at Carson City over him as anything else but a fluke. He thought that it was a lucky blow that Fitz got home that whipped him and probably harbors the idea today, although it is strange that they have never met again since that time. However, this is no fault of the Cornishman, who has tried every conceivable thing to get the Californian to engage in a return essay, but to no purpose. This is what Corbett has to say about Jeffries's retirement, and in view of Corbett's reluctance in the past to give credit to a rival his remarks are interesting:

"Jeffries will be looked upon as the champion as long as he lives. You cannot take that title away from him because he has decided to quit. He must be defeated first, and tell me, who is to accomplish such a feat at this time? I don't know of any man. He is in a class by himself and always will be. There is no one in sight who can give him an argument, and so naturally he is forced to retire. Jeffries is only 30 years old, and he could come back in five years and go through the list of the men he has already whipped and do the same thing over once more. If in the meantime a good fighter should appear and whip a few of the light heavyweights you can bet that Jeffries will return to the ring and go after this new man. He likes boxing too well to keep away from it for good. Especially would this be true should any foreign country produce a heavyweight champion. I think Jeffries today is a much better man than John L. Sullivan was in his prime. I fought them both and I ought to know. Jeffries, while he is not as fast on his feet as some of them, is just as quick in other ways. What is more, he has the punch, and this counts the most nowadays in ring contests. He showed that when he beat both Fitz and Sharkey. These two men were supposed to be stiff hitters themselves. But he outpunched them and won."

Regarding Corbett's assertion that Jeffries is a better man than Sullivan ever was in the heyday of the latter's career, there are a lot of fistic critics who agree with him in this respect. In comparing both men physically and mentally, Jeffries holds the palm over Sullivan. Sullivan, when he was the champion was a powerful, rugged man. Nature endowed him with a physique of iron, but by dissipation and riotous living his wonderful frame began to weaken. By the time he met Corbett he was but a shadow of his former self, and it is thought that plenty of big men, not even as clever as Corbett, could have whipped John L. at the time. Sullivan may have been as stiff a puncher as Jeffries is today, especially with his right hand, but it cannot be said that he was as scientific. Jeffries grew from a rough and ready fighter into a capable boxer in a short time and today it must be said that he knows as much, if not more than Sullivan did when he was champion. Looking up Jeffries's record, it cannot be denied that the men he has defeated were better and knew more about boxing than were the men Sullivan conquered. Probably the best man Sullivan ever fought in point of skill was Charley Mitchell. Sullivan fought the Briton a draw. This fight did not redound much to Sullivan's credit in view of the fact that Mitchell weighed less than Sullivan and was badly handled.

Mitchell might have won that mill had he been looked after more carefully in his corner. Sullivan differed in many respects from Jeffries and it must be said that the Bostonian is the more popular of the two. Billy Delaney, after Jeffries became the champion, took the boilermaker with him on a tour through the lower East side. Delaney made Jeffries visit all the saloons in that part of the town, mingled with the real "push," so to speak, and showed Jeffries how to ingratiate himself with the folks that are the real patrons of the prize ring. Wherever Jeffries went Delaney would proudly introduce him individually to every one who wished to meet the Californian. The man in tatters or the sport in diamonds, it made no difference to Delaney. He insisted that they were all the same to Jeffries. This procedure helped Jeffries to become popular, but it was not the popularity of John L. Sullivan. It seemed to be forced and artificial and died away in time. Jeffries is better thought of today than when he became the leader in his class. It may be that the public has come to the conclusion that he is really great and that greatness should be respected even in a prize fighter.

MEN COME TO ME

I want every man that is suffering from any special disease, or condition, acute or chronic, to come and have a social chat with me, and I will explain to you a system of treatment which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in the treatment of special diseases of men. It is a treatment that is based on scientific knowledge, and one which time alone has proven superior to all others, inasmuch as it is tried by thousands and has proven successful. I have NO CHEAP OR TRIAL TREATMENTS, NO SCHEME TO SELL MEDICINES in my specialty ailments of men. My education, my experience, my conscience, my reputation, condemn all such quackery. If you will call and see me, I will give you FREE OF CHARGE a thorough personal examination, together with an honest and scientific opinion of your case. If, after examining you, I find your case incurable I will tell you so: if, on the other hand, I find your case curable, I will insure you a permanent cure.

I will make you no false promise as to curing your case in a short time, knowing it will take longer, as I promise nothing but what I can do and always do what I promise. I make NO CHARGE FOR MEDICINES, as they are always included in the nominal fee asked.

Privacy is thus assured to all patients. All cases accepted this month upon the plan of NO CURE, NO PAY.

is a condition that men suffer from more than all other conditions combined, and is the direct cause of nervous prostration and early loss of mental, physical and all powers, which in turn unfits one for ordinary duties of life. I accomplish a permanent cure in such conditions as Varicocele.

STRICTURE

the symptoms of which are obstructions, partial closure of the canal, frequent and painful scaldings, prostatic irritation and inflammation of the bladder. I treat and permanently cure every case of stricture that I accept, without cutting.

BLOOD POISONING

of a specific nature is a condition that the innocent as well as the guilty may acquire, inasmuch as it is very often hereditary. The first symptom is an ulcer, then pains in the bones and joints, ulceration of the mouth, throat and tongue, falling out of the hair and eyebrows and a copper-colored rash over the body. If you have any of the above symptoms, I ask you to consult me at once, as I treat and permanently cure every case that I accept.

RHEUMATISM

in all its forms, acute or chronic, muscular rheumatism, lumbago, gout, sciatica, by my system of treatment shows signs of improvement at once, and in a very short time is permanently cured.

RECTAL

diseases, such as piles (itching or bleeding), fistules, fissures, chronic constipation, or any condition of the rectum, by my system of treatment I permanently cure, without a cutting operation or the injection of the astringent solution.

WASTING WEAKNESSES

that occur in the night or during the day, and which in a great many cases are the starting out of many conditions which in time will render one a mental, physical and nervous wreck. If you have trouble with this condition, see me at once, as I stop the ailment completely, never to return.

BLADDER AND KIDNEY

symptoms of which are pains in the back and loins, frequent and scalding urination, puffiness of the eyes and a swelling of the feet, and a thousand other symptoms better known to the sufferer. I treat and permanently cure all such conditions.

"Rump" Meeting Calls It Off

NOT ANY SIGNS OF PEACE YET

In Teamsters' Trouble in Chicago

CHICAGO, June 10.—Peace negotiations between the teamsters and State street merchants, either individually or collectively, are at an end and hereafter all meetings for the purpose of bringing the strike to a close must be arranged through John V. Farwell, Jr., chairman of the action committee of the Chicago Employers' association.

In view of the repeated declarations of the employers that no further concessions will be given, an acceptance in full of what offers may be made by the Employers or a calling off of the strike are now the only avenues by which the teamsters can get rid of the fight.

Declarations by President Shea and other strike leaders are to the effect that the demands of the employers that union buttons must be discarded and that police protection shall continue even if the strike is declared at an end, never will be accepted. With these obstacles remaining the strike hereafter, it is believed, will consist mainly of a test of endurance on the part of the teamsters. Union officials assert that as long as sufficient funds are received, there will be no breaks in the ranks of the strikers.

Aroused by bitter speeches attacking the policy of paying one day's pay each week for the support of striking clothing cutters and garment workers, made at a meeting of clothing cutters' union, local No. 12, two hundred members of the local have held a "rump" meeting after the regular session had adjourned and declared off the strike that has been lost. It was sympathy for the idle men that precipitated the teamsters' strike.

The council finance committee has decided to give the additional policemen employed for strike during a higher salary than ordinarily is paid regular policemen in the first few months of their service. This is a recognition for the men's willingness to serve at the present time and because they hold only temporary positions, with no opportunity for promotion. The new men will be paid $2.50 a day instead of $2.00, which usually is given policemen in the first stage of their employment. As there now are about 1400 additional policemen the city must pay $3500 a day in salaries for the temporary force.

KING ALFONSO

SAYS FAREWELL TO LONDON TOWN.

LONDON, June 10.—King Alfonso left London for Spain this morning. He apparently thoroughly enjoyed his visit and the character of the farewells testified to the cordiality of the feelings of the host and guest. King Edward and the duke of Connaught accompanied the Spanish king to the railroad station where he met the Spanish ambassador, Senor Polo de Bernabe, the rest of the Spanish embassy, foreign Secretary Lansdowne and others. King Edward entered the royal car with his guest and engaged in a few minutes earnest conversation with him. As the train moved out of the station King Alfonso stood at the window waving farewells to the members of the British royal family who stood bareheaded until the Spanish king had disappeared from their sight.

THE CREW LOST

The Brigantine Acacia Went Down

HALIFAX, N. S., June 10.—The relatives of Captain Duncan Munro and crew of the Port Medway brigantine Acacia have given up hope of seeing them again, and it is the general opinion here that they have been lost. The brigantine sailed from this port April 6, for Jordan River. Nothing was heard of her until more than a month later. On May 8 the vessel was sighted in latitude 41.33, north and longitude 67 west, abandoned and waterlogged, by a Gloucester, Mass., fishing vessel. No trace of the crew has been seen by any mariner, so far as known. This month an empty boat, bearing the name "Acacia" was found drifting off Southern Nova Scotia.

Captain Munro's home is at Bay View, near Pleton. When he was home in March he told his family that the trip he was about to go on was the last that he would make, as he intended to retire. Capt. Munro sailed for several years as first officer on one of the Dominion Atlantic railway boats between Boston and Yarmouth. With him was a crew of four or five persons, mostly Nova Scotians.

The Acacia was one of the last vessels of her rig in Atlantic waters. She was built at Port Medway in 1884 and registered 186 tons.

BARN BURNED

LIVELY BLAZE ON SCHOOL STREET LAST NIGHT.

An alarm from box 56 shortly before 11 o'clock last night summoned a part of the fire department to a lively blaze in a barn in School street, near Liberty street, the building being the property of Mrs. David Chase.

When the department arrived the flames were shooting through the roof, but after several lines of hose were laid and directed on the burning building the flames were extinguished.

WINDOW CURTAIN BLAZE.

A still alarm, at 7.35 o'clock last night, was for a curtain fire in a house in High street owned by the Fox heirs. The wind blew the curtain against a lighted gas jet and the curtain was soon ablaze. The members of engine 4 extinguished the flames.

BADLY INJURED

Fire in House in New York

NEW YORK, June 10. Thirty-five persons living in a West Thirty-ninth street house which had been remodelled into apartments, had narrow escapes early today from death by fire and smoke. One woman was so badly hurt that she may die and several policemen were injured.

The firemen and police carried out at least a score of tenants, many of whom were women. Others fled to safety by way of the roof. Mrs. Margaret Donovan, aroused from her sleep by the alarm, fainted and fell where she escaped the notice of the rescuers. She lay on the floor nearly an hour and when discovered she was almost dead from inhaling smoke. The financial loss was small.

PEAK SISTERS.

"The Peak Sisters" of this city went to Cambridge Wednesday evening and gave an entertainment in the vestries of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church of that city. Among those present were: Miss Ella Whitman, who directed the program, Miss Clara Whitman, Miss Ethel Tuttle and Miss Alice Hinds, all of this city, and Miss Hattie Harris, recently of Lowell, and four young ladies of the local church.

The Lowell young ladies made a great hit and will always be welcome in Cambridge. The pastor, Rev. F. M. Pickles, assured the young men of the church that if they could induce any or all of the Lowell young ladies to remain permanently in the "City of Books" they would make a fine investment.

THE KING OF ABYSSINIA IN FULL COURT DRESS.

The cut represents Menelik the ruler of Abyssinia, in all the splendor of court regalia. Although he is an African of more than ordinary ability, as was shown by his skill in securing the crown and putting an end to the Italian protectorate, there is a well defined streak of barbarism in his nature. This is especially manifest in his love for glitter and display. When he is arrayed in all his glory—which is at least equal to that of King Solomon, whose relative he claims to be—Menelik might easily be mistaken for an especially gorgeous animated Muscovite icon. His sinewy body is clad in a robe weighted with jeweled embroidery, and his ebony head is surmounted by a tiara whose gems might make a Roman pontiff envious.

A GIFTED ROYAL AUTHORESS.

Princess Feodora of Sleswick-Holstein, the youngest sister of the German empress, has recently published a volume of idyls with the title of "Der Wald" ("The Forest"). The work, although sent out under the pseudonym of F. Hugin, attracted so much attention that it will probably be accorded the distinction of an English translation. The book was so much admired by the German emperor that he had a beautiful edition de luxe prepared, and he has sent copies of it to all the royalties in Europe. It is illustrated by its talented author, and the drawings are remarkably good.

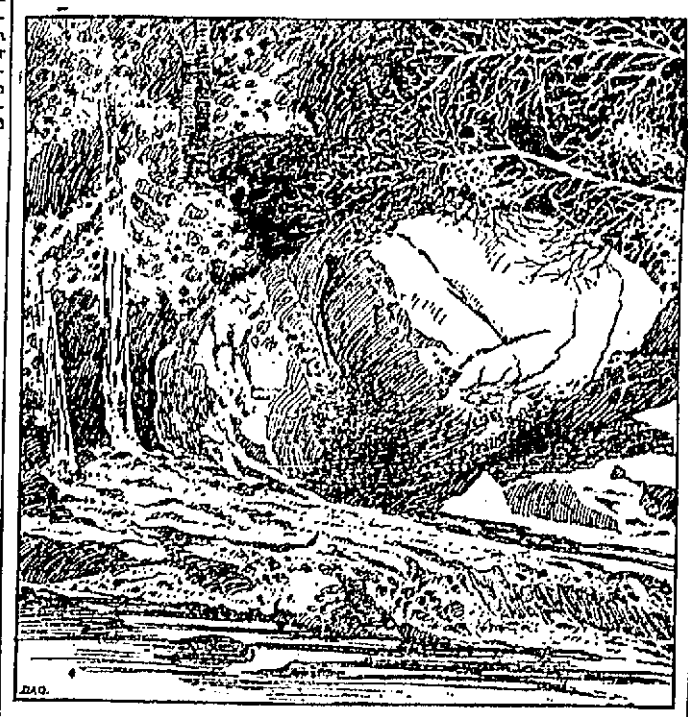
LOST BRITISH LAND.

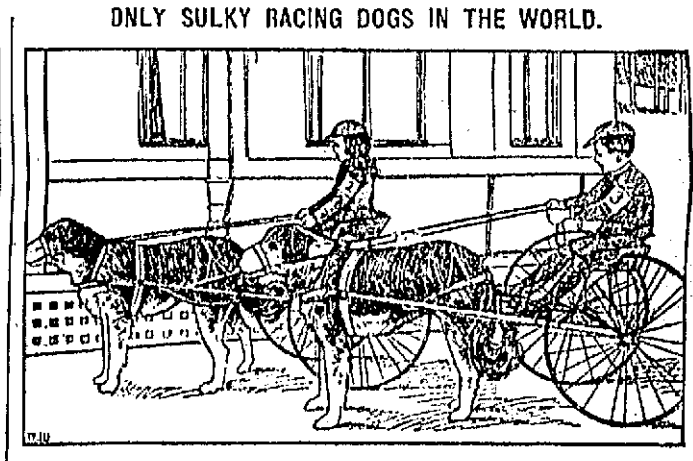
Great Britain lost 148,906 acres between 1867 and 1880 by the encroachment of the sea and 29,165 acres between 1880 and 1890. A survey in the reign of Edward I. gave the duchy of Cornwall 1,500,000 acres, but the ordnance survey some years ago showed that this had been reduced to 829,500 acres. Villages have disappeared in the ocean, as in the case of Dunwich, of which nothing remains but a ruined church on the edge of a cliff.

A FAMOUS PENNSYLVANIA ROCK.



The great rock shown in the picture is a favorite resort of Philadelphia picnic parties. It is near the picturesque Pennypack creek, about eleven miles northeast of Independence hall. It is in a wild and secluded spot and is rather difficult of access, but it has numerous visitors in spite of that fact. Its surface is almost perfectly flat, comparatively smooth and large enough to accommodate a cotillion party. It is known locally as the Rock of Ages.

DNLY SULKY RACING DOGS IN THE WORLD.



As far as is known the two dogs shown in the cut are the only ones that have been trained to follow the race track driven to sulkies. These intelligent and speedy St. Bernards are the property of the little boy and girl who are driving them, the children of M. J. Brooks of Franklin, N. H. Jumbo and Mascot, as they are called, show the true racing spirit and are eager to win. When their young drivers hold a tight rein the dogs trot, and when given full rein they break into a run, and a speedy one. These novel racing animals are only one year old. Their enterprising breeder intends to make dog racing popular.

A WAYSIDE TEMPLE IN INDIA.

The cut represents one of the numerous wayside temples which are scattered along the public roads in India. These rather neglected places of worship are usually in charge of some mendicant holy man, who is anxious to supply the passing traveler with reeds and nuts with which to feed the monkeys that come trooping out of the neighboring jungle. Although all animal life is held sacred in India, the ape, from his resemblance to man, is an object of special veneration. It is considered unlucky to offend one of these highly esteemed simians, and in consequence of the protection they receive they have multiplied greatly and are utterly devoid of fear. It is a saying in India that a native will meekly submit to an insult from a monkey which he would resent were it offered by a man.

AN ASIATIC TUNNEL.

The tunnel shown in the cut is the only subterranean portion of the great Transsiberian railroad system, and as such it merits notice for the suggestive inscriptions which are on the arches over the entrances. On the western side are the words, "To the Pacific ocean." On the other side the legend inscribed over the entrance is, "To the Atlantic ocean." This tunnel is near the city of Harbin, which is the only inland base remaining to the Russian army. It is out through the fortified hills on the west side of the city. At Harbin the road branches, one division going east to the sea and the other south to Port Arthur.

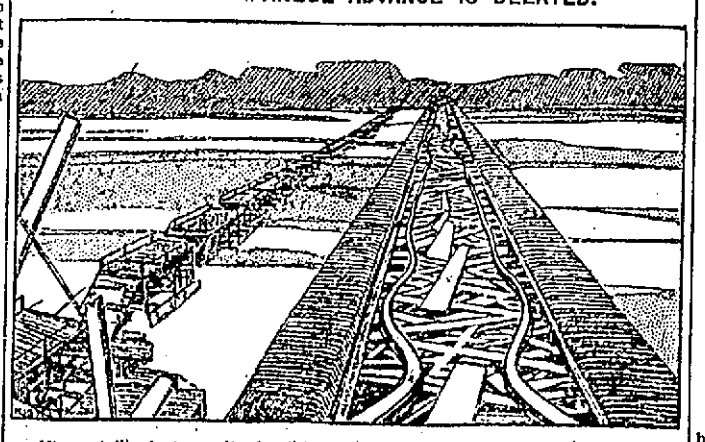
HOW THE JAPANESE ADVANCE IS DELAYED.



The cut illustrates quite forcibly the manner in which the retreating Russians devastate the country as they move. The pursuing Japanese find the railroads badly damaged and the bridges either blown up or torn to pieces. The mikado's engineers are kept constantly busy at repairing these wrecks, and thus much time is consumed. This, however, is precisely what is intended, since the longer the delay the less chance there is to be overtaken. If the streams are fordable and will admit of the passage of the supply wagons the Japanese do not wait to repair the dismantled bridges.

SOME TYPES OF GREAT RUSSIANS.

The Muscovite villagers shown in the cut are at the door of their izaba, or hut, which is made of hewn logs with the intervening spaces filled with mud. The man is the village shoemaker, and he is using his doorstep as a bench. His wife and mother are dressed in the typical peasant costume and wear silk handkerchiefs on their heads both indoors and out. The Russian women of the lower classes all wear the head coverings shown in the picture, while the men seldom have the head covered at all during the warm season. Most of them wear the hair long and, as a rule, do not shave after they reach middle age.

WIFE OF A NOTED FRENCH AUTHOR.

Mme. Edmond Rostand, herewith depicted, is the talented wife of the young French poet and playwright who wrote "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "L'Aiglon." Mme. Rostand possesses great dramatic talent and is one of the cleverest amateur actresses in Paris. She is in great demand in society theatricals, and her own little entertainments are among the most popular and exclusive social affairs in the republic.

CAMBRIDGE MEN

Fifteen Were Indicted in Secret

BOSTON, June 10.—The Middlesex grand jury, which reported yesterday, returned secret indictments, said to be 15 in number, against men prominent in Cambridge politics, and the police are searching for the parties indicted. James A. Montgomery, ex-representative and superintendent of parks, was the first to fall into the net. He was arrested on a capias last night, but was immediately bailed by two friends in the amount of $1000.

The charge against the men, on which the indictments were found, was "taking a false oath and signing a false certificate," in connection with the registration of last fall.

It has been the custom, it is alleged, for politicians to remain in the room where sessions of the registrars of voters were held and to certify indiscriminately to the oaths of would-be voters that they were residents of Cambridge on the preceding May 1.

It is not publicly known who the instigators of the above against these men are, but it has been known that Sergt. Gordon and others have been at work on the case for some weeks. It is claimed that some 15 men were implicated, with the result that indictments were returned against nearly all of them.

Other than Montgomery, the names of those who were indicted have been kept secret, but it is said that when all are under arrest there will be surprise throughout the length and breadth of the University city.

PATRICK GUILTY

Court of Appeals Decides Against Him

ALBANY, N. Y., June 9.—The court of appeals today by a divided court, voting 4 to 3, sustained the lower courts in adjudging Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer, guilty of murder, first degree, in causing the death of William Marsh Rice. On April 7, 1902, Patrick was convicted on an indictment charging him with the murder of Rice by chloroform and mercury administered to him during his sickness on Sept. 23, 1900. The case reached the court of appeals on March 14, of this year, when David B. Hill, who appeared for the appellant, based his argument for a reversal mainly on the contention that the condition of Rice's body revealed by the post-mortem examination, might have been caused by fluids in embalming.

The prevailing opinion is by Judge Gray, with whom concur Judges Bartlett, Haight and Werner. There is a dissenting opinion by Judge O'Brien, Chief Judge Cullen and Judge Van concurring. Chief Judge Cullen filing also a memorandum.

The accused was a New York lawyer and has succeeded in postponing the ultimate decision of his fate for over three years by a display of acumen and resourcefullness that has excited the wonder of the members of the bar and the public at large. The opinion of the court, written by Judge Gray, is exhaustive, reviewing the record in every detail and containing upwards of 16,000 words.

Judge Gray sets forth that the theory fo the people was that the defendant had conspired with Charles F. Jones, the valet or sometimes called the secretary of Rice, to kill Rice and that the defendant procured Jones to administer chloroform to him while he was asleep, in the accomplishment of their joint purpose. This purpose, they say, had as a motive the desire to obtain possession of Rice's estate. Through a will in favor of the defendant and through various transfers to him of properties all purporting to have been executed by Rice ,but which had, in fact, been forged by the, defendant with Jones' aid. The defence is based upon a denial that Rice's death was effected by violent means, or that it was by the procurement of the defendant; and the proposition is advanced that the forgeries were not brought home to the defendant, or if the evidence warranted the finding that they were, that that fact did not necessarily fasten upon him a criminal agency in the murder.

It was not claimed that Patrick personally committed the murder; for the prosecution had the voluntary confession of Jones that it was he who did it, induced and aided thereto by Patrick; but the defendant was a principal in the commission of the crime, under our law if he aided and abetted it, whether present or absent: or if he, directly or indirectly, "counselled, commanded, induced or procured" another to commit it. The trial therefore presented these questions to the jury upon the evidence, whether it was established, that the death was the result of poisoning or whether that result was aided, or abetted, induced or procured by this defendant. Circumstantial evidence was sufficient for their determination ,death being admitted, if it was of such a character, as to leave an inference of guilt the only reasonable one possible from the facts disclosed.

After a review of the evidence, the opinion continues:

"The jury might well find upon the evidence that the death was not the result of natural causes an dthat it was due to some criminal agency.

RUNAWAYS

MANCHESTER LADS WERE IN THIS CITY.

BOSTON, June 10—Two sad, worn out, hungry boys of 14 and 16 years of age are being detained at the Medford police station, where they voluntarily gave themselves up to Sergt. Ewell late last night, claiming that they had run away from their homes in Manchester, N. H., because they were discharged from the mills. After being washed and fed they were put to bed.

The elder boy, Richard Millett, says he lived with his aunt, Nappie Bogle of 200 Lake avenue, Manchester, N. H., and that the other boy is Robert Hughes, son of Barney Hughes, proprietor of a livery stable and blacksmith shop.

When they were discharged, Millett says, they were afraid to go home for fear of being punished, so they came to Boston by electric from Lowell. They reached Sullivan square about dark. Not knowing any one, they camped out in an old team near the playground. Yesterday their money gave out, and they started to foot it back to Manchester.

After reaching Medford both boys were tired, dirty and hungry and decided to go to police headquarters.

ANARCHISTS MET

Strong Talk at the Lynn Meeting

LYNN, June 10.—The anarchist circle held a meeting on the fourth floor of the building at 2 Munroe street last night and fiery speeches were made by men and women. All the addresses were made in Italian and the speakers referred to the demonstrations at St. Joseph's church Tuesday night with glee.

Patrolman Quirk was present during part of the meeting and talked with one man who could speak very good English and who stated that it was a meeting of men and women who wished to talk over their own affairs, and that there would be no disturbance.

"Where's your chairman and secretary?" asked the policeman, and the man said: "We do not believe in having them. Everybody here is equal and we don't choose persons to govern our meetings and we keep no records."

During this conversation the women were talking. There were about 40 including several well dressed and apparently prosperous young women, accompanied by male escorts, in the room. One of these, a bright eyed and apparently intelligent young woman, made a speech received with favor by her companions.

She scored the police and said she was not afraid of any man who wore a uniform and would kick them out of her way if she got a chance. She said she was glad the anarchists, of which she was pleased to be one, had gone to the church and told the priest to his face that they did not believe in God or government. She prophesied the downfall of all government and the reign of anarchy soon.

Several men made speeches along the same line, denouncing the police and authorities and saying they defied the authorities to stop their meetings or compel them to leave the city.

Nearly all the men present smoked pipes, but this did not seem to disconcert the women. On the whole, it was an orderly meeting, except for the inflammatory speeches.

Royal Sheldon's Party Met With Accident

With a crash and rattle of broken machinery that could be heard for some distance, a large DeDietrich touring car, owned and driven by Royal R. Sheldon, of North Chelmsford, and containing a party of five men, came into collision with a tree near the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, last night broke the tree short off, ran against another tree and was overturned and wrecked.

The entire party was thrown out on the boulevard, and while all received a severe shaking up and numerous bruises, two sustained injuries that caused them to be taken to the Newton hospital. They are not believed to have been seriously hurt, however. The others were able to go to their homes.

The accident happened shortly after 11 o'clock, the party being then on their way home from a run.

The machinery of the car was working all right, and they were coming along at a good pace when suddenly the machine swerved on its course. Being but a small sapling, the force and weight of the machine broke the first tree short off.

Citizens assisted the party into the house of Allen Hubbard at 550 Commonwealth avenue. Drs. West, Edwards and Sylvester were quickly summoned and dressed their wounds.

As a matter of medical precaution, it was decided that it would be better for two to go to the hospital, to which they were taken in the police ambulance.

Fearing that an account of the accident might get into the newspapers, all of the occupants of the car refused to make known their names. Even the two who were taken to the hospital withheld their names from the police, and at that institution last night it was stated that the hospital did not know the names and could not learn them.

Besides Mr. Sheldon it is understood that two members of the party were Lewis R. Speare of Newton Centre, and a Mr. Greene, a friend of Mr. Sheldon. Mr. Sheldon is a member of the Massachusetts Automobile club.

FOR THE FAY FAMILY

Building Fund Starts With a Boom

The Fay building fund has struck a popular chord, for only yesterday did The Sun announce that a committee, headed by William A. Ingham, had undertaken to raise money to build a house for the Fay family.

The conditions have already been stated. The family is living in a pasture. The husband is blind and the wife is a courageous woman, who says "We only want a roof over our head, to get along."

The Sun has already conveyed several contributions of money to the family, but the contributions here announced are for the building fund, to give the family a place to sleep and to live, other than the open air.

Already plans are in preparation for a cottage; land has been secured and can be leased at a nominal rent, and the charitable people of Lowell and vicinity are appealed to to help along the good work until this destitute family, evicted from their home, shall be supplied with a new home not encumbered by any mortgage.

The following communication sets the ball rolling:

Office of J. F. O'Donnell & Sons, Market and Worthen streets.

Yours respectfully,

Today's Ball Game at Spalding Park

INNINGS 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

About 1000 spectators gathered at Spalding park this afternoon to witness the game between Lowell and Concord. Almost everyone had something to say about the poor showing that the local team has made of late.

Martin Mack, however, informed the writer, before the opening of the game, that he had secured a new pitcher who would be here on Monday, and he is also trying to get a new first baseman, whom he expects later on in the week.

Today was the best day since the opening of the baseball season and the attendance was all that could be desired. Prior to the opening of the game both teams went through a spirited practice. Umpire McCloud called the game at 3 o'clock.

FIRST INNING.

Concord was first to bat and failed to score despite the fact that Eustace got down as far as third base. Sheets was the first man up and he sent a grounder to McLaughlin and was out at first. Eustace hit to centre field for a single and then stole second. Templin hit to J. Jackson and was out at first, Eustace going down to third on the play. Kane, however, closed the inning by hitting one to Cross who held on to it and then threw it down to first.

The home team started out in a most commendable manner in the first inning by scoring three runs, all of the runs being scored after two men were out. Connors hit a grounder to Eustace and was out at first. Grant then flied out to Hickman. George Bigbie, however, started the ball a rolling by hitting one through Henry who fumbled and George reached first. J. Jackson followed with a single to right field and Owen Jackson singled to left field and Bigbie scored. On Kane's fumble of the ball Jim Jackson went down to third, McLaughlin hit the ball to the right field fence for two bases and both the Jacksons scored. Tierney closed the inning by hitting to Hickman and going out at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Concord 0.

SECOND INNING.

Neither side scored in the second inning. Both teams managed to get two hits, but could not send a man around the bases. Duggan was first up for Concord and he fanned the breezes. Devine sent a grounder which Cross stopped with one hand and then threw to first in time to catch the runner. Henry and Hickman both made singles, but Hartman flied out to Jim Jackson.

Anderberg opened for Lowell by striking out. Cross hit to left field for a single and Connors did likewise. Grant and Bigbie closed the inning by flying out to Kane.

Score—Lowell 3, Concord 0.

THIRD INNING.

There was considerable kicking in the first half of the third inning and Ambrose Kane did some tall hiking around the bases on a foul ball, and afterwards got into an argument with Umpire McCloud and was taxed $5.

Sheets opened the inning by hitting to McLaughlin and dying at first. Eustace foul-flied to Owen Jackson. Templin drew his base on balls and then Kane walked to the plate. He was out to knock the cover off the ball, and when he got one that he liked he sent it into the right garden just beyond the foul line. Despite the fact that it was pretty warm out at the park, Kane ran around to second base before he discovered that it was a foul ball. He then came back and had an argument with the umpire. When the game was re-started he struck out, and not being satisfied with the decision of the umpire walked down the field and got into some hot words with him and as a result was fined $5.

Lowell went out in quick order in the latter half of the third inning. Jim Jackson was the first man up and he flied out to Hickman in short left field. Hickman making a pretty running catch. Owen Jackson followed with his second single. Barney McLaughlin drew a free pass. Tierney flied out to Kane. Anderberg hit to Hickman forcing McLaughlin out at second base.

Score—Lowell 3, Concord 0.

FOURTH INNING.

In the fourth inning Duggan struck out and Devine singled to centre field. Henry hit a hot one along the first base line and Owen Jackson made a pretty stop and sent it down to second in time to catch Devine out. Hickman closed the inning by hitting to Cross, the latter making a one hand stop and lining the ball to first in time to catch the runner.

Lowell went out in one, two, three order in the fourth inning. Cross opened with a grounder to Henry and died at first. Connors sent a grounder to Templin and was the second out. Grant hit to Henry and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Concord 0.

FIFTH INNING.

Concord got a man around as far as third base in the fifth inning, but failed to score owing to the good fielding on the part of the home team. Hartman opened with a grounder which Cross stopped. Connors fielded the ball and sent it to first in time to catch the runner. Sheets then bunted the ball and beat it out to first. Eustace hit to right field for a single and Sheets went down to third. Eustace tried to steal second and Anderberg, by a fine throw, caught him at second. McLaughlin covering the base. The ball was returned to Anderberg before Sheets had time to run home. Templin closed the inning by flying out to Connors.

Hickman made a pretty running catch of Bigbie's fly in short centre field in Lowell's half of the fifth. Jim Jackson drew his base on balls. Owen Jackson flied out to Sheets and McLaughlin flied out to Kane.

Score—Lowell 3, Concord 0.

SIXTH INNING.

Concord got as far as second in the sixth inning but froze there. Kane singled to left field and then stole second, but he got no further for Duggan fouled flied to Jim Jackson and Devine struck out, while Henry flied out to Tierney.

Tierney flied out to Eustace. Anderberg flied out to Sheets and Cross struck out.

SEVENTH INNING.

The first half of the seventh was a red hot one and Concord succeeded in sending one man over the home plate. Hickman bunted the ball and beat it out to first. In sliding for first he spiked Owen Jackson and the latter in trying to get out of the way spiked Hickman, but neither man was badly hurt. Hratman hit to right field for a single and Hickman went around to third base. Sheets hit to McLaughlin forcing Hartman out at second and Hickman scored. Eustace hit over second base and McLaughlin fielded the ball to first base in time to catch the runner. Templin hit one which almost knocked Billy Conhors over, but he recovered in time to catch the runner at first.

Lowell scored three runs in the seventh inning. Connors opened with a hit to left field. Grant bunted to Henry, intending to sacrifice, but he dropped the ball and the runner was safe. Bigbie hit to the pitcher who threw to third trying to get Connors, but he evidently didn't know the location of the bag for he sent the ball several miles over the third baseman's head and Connors and Grant scored while Bigbie went down to third. Jim Jackson hit to left centre for two bases and Bigbie scored. Owen Jackson sacrificed sending his brother to third. McLaughlin bunted to the pitcher and Jim Jackson, while trying to make home, was thrown out. McLaughlin then tried to steal second but Tierney struck out.

Score—Lowell 6, Concord 1.

EIGHTH INNING.

Concord scored another run in the eighth. Kane hit to left centre field for two bases. Duggan hit to Connors and was out at first. Devine flied out to Grant. Henry singled to right field scoring Kane and Hickman hit to McLaughlin forcing Henry out at second.

Anderberg struck out in the latter half of the eighth. Cross flied out to Henry. Connors hit to Hickman and went out at first.

Score—Lowell 6, Concord 2.

NINTH INNING.

Hartman opened the ninth by striking out. Sheets hit to Cross and went out at first. Eustace drew his base on balls. Templin flied out to Grant.

PEACE ENVOYS

Will Hold Their Meeting in Washington

WASHINGTON, June 10.—From an authoritative official source it is learned today that it has been practically determined that the plenipotentiaries of Japan and Russia for the determination of peace terms will hold their sessions in Washington.

Inasmuch as the efforts which have been successful in the bringing of the two belligerent governments into contact were initiated by Pres. Roosevelt and further that most amicable relations exist between the United States and both Russia and Japan, this city is regarded as the "logical place" for the institution of the practical peace negotiations between the warring governments. For obvious reasons, London, it was pointed out, would break the question and for similar reasons Paris would not be considered. Objections to the holding of the conference in Berlin also have been made. Vienna was suggested as a desirable place, but under all the circumstances Washington was deemed by both St. Petersburg and Tokio to be the most favorable place for the holding of the peace conference.

CUT WIDE SWATH

Spotted Fever Claims Many Victims

One case of measles was reported at the office of the board of health today. No new cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis or smallpox were reported. Cerebro-spinal meningitis, or spotted fever, has made a terrible inroad on life since it struck Lowell. Its record is 87 cases and 51 deaths. Four new cases were reported last week and there were four deaths.

BOTH REMOVED

Mayor Gets After City Magistrates

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—Magistrates Robert J. Moore and Leslie Yates who were a few months ago appointed committing magistrates at the Central station by Mayor Weaver to succeed Magistrates Cunningham and Kesherspergér, were today removed from those positions by the mayor. Magistrate Wm. Elsen Brown succeeds Moore and Magistrate Yates' place was filled by Magistrate Kochersheiger. Magistrates Moore and Yates were strong organization men. A city hall watchman was discharged today by Director Potter because of his criminal record. Mayor Weaver and his advisers have decided to place in nomination an independent ticket for county officers at the coming fall election, and plans are also in contemplation for the launching of a complete independent state ticket which is to have as its candidate for supreme court justice Judge John Stewart of Chambersburg.

It was learned that steps have been begun to ascertain the sentiment of the leading citizens of each and every county.

POOR LITTLE CAT

Kitty Sent to Happy Hunting Ground

A very fashionably dressed woman, correct of speech and manners pleasing, called at the police station this afternoon carrying in her arms an cat that was skin and bones and suffering from scurvy. The well dressed woman of excellent address told Deputy Welch that she picked the poor little cat up in the street. "He looked so forlorn, so sick and so sad," she said, "that my sympathies were stirred. I had heard of the asphyxiation process that you have been applying to dogs, and, while I do not like the idea of turning the poor little thing over to the operator of the 'dead box,' so called, I do think it might find more rest and comfort in the happy hunting ground than in Lowell."

Deputy Welch allowed that the woman was very kind and agreed with her that it would be an act of charity to put the poor little cat out of the way.

If there is any one thing that inhabits the heart of Deputy Welch that one thing, is sympathy. He thought it was a very charitable act on the part of the woman to interest herself in a stray, or perhaps, tramp cat. When The Sun reporter called around he found the stalwart deputy in his office philosophizing and moralizing on the little cat.

"I wish," he said, "that we knew more about that little cat. I venture to say that its life's history would make a pathetic story. The woman that brought that cat in here set a splendid example. The puny, sickly thing nestled its head against her silk waist and she carried it with as much care as though it was human. I wish there waer more women like her in the world."

BOLD DEPUTIES

DEFIED CROWD AND TOOK THEIR MEN.

NEW YORK, June 10—Three bold and unterrified special deputies of New Jersey stood a crowd at bay yesterday in Chambers street outside of County court house, where they had replevined Philip Swiller, who runs a stable in Henry street, and Max Goldberg, a coal merchant, in business near Swiller, wanted in Jersey on the charge of stealing horses.

From the story told yesterday by Chief Borough Marshal Foratt of Metuchen, N. J., it appears that Middlesex county has been a splendid field for horse thieves of late. The Board of Freeholders of the county recently offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of a horse thief. From Rahway, New Brunswick, Metuchen, Adelphia (late Turkey), Great Notch and Netcong soon came tales of brave special deputies on the hunt.

One night the valiant deputies held up a trap that the felt justified in suspecting. Stealthily, while one of them kept the driver in conversation, another branded the horse. The branded horse, it is charged, was found peacefully consuming oats a few nights later in Philip Swiller's stable. Goldberg was also identified in connection with the transaction and extradition warrants were obtained.

The citizens inalienable right to a writ of habeas corpus was invoked and both prisoners were brought before Supreme Court Justice Clark. The corridors, steps and rotunda of the county court house were crowded with the adherents and relatives of the men arrested. The Jersey deputies, Foratt, Horan and Primrose, were on hand.

Detective Sergeant Deevy had the two prisoners in tow. It did not take Justice Clark five minutes to decide that he would not interfere with the warrants.

JOHN DRISCOLL

Knows Nothing About "Labor Graft"

CHICAGO, June 10—With neither side ready to make concessions the sixty-fifth day of the teamsters strike was minus the usual programme on the peace conferences. The sudden return of John C. Driscoll, wanted to give testimony before the grand jury on "labor graft" and his disclaimer of knowledge of any of the alleged transactions gave the day's events the single thing of the sensational. Driscoll promised to appear before the grand jury on Monday.

BARRY HELD

HAS CHANCE TO ASK FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

LONDON, June 10.—At Bow street police court today the presiding magistrate ordered the extradition of Thomas Barry who was arrested in Ireland, brought to London and remanded at Bow street the same day to await extradition to Jersey City where he is wanted on the charge of assault. Barry has a fortnight in which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

NEW YORK, June 10—A westbound Twenty-third street crosstown car, did a few stunts on the Avenue of the Americas of Broadway, shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and as a result traffic on both lines was tied up for half an hour while the throngs of shoppers and sightseers saw a fire alarm that was great while it lasted, hoped ahead to beguile us.

Motorman James Cotter felt the car buck as he started to cross Broadway. It had gone but a few feet when there was a report that startled everybody within a block and this report was followed by puffs of yellow smoke down beneath the car and flames showed from the sides of the engine of motor and it did it good.

The car was crowded with women for the most part and almost a rush for the doors set in as soon as the conductor got to the rear platform.

In a very short time the woodwork was ablaze and the windows of the car were smashed by the fists of the passengers. Policeman Henry Williams of the Tenderloin station was one of those nearby. Jarred off their feet by the first explosion of fire, hurried around to Eighteenth street and Broadway and arrived just after the motorman and conductor had succeeded in getting the passengers out of the car. Fire Engine company 7 with four companies arrived shortly after.

SOLD AT AUCTION.

TAUNTON, Mass., June 10.—The Watup cotton mills of this city which have been in the hands of receivers were sold at auction this afternoon to Col. Peter H. Corr, representing the stockholders and creditors, who have formed a plan of reorganization of the property. There were several bids but the highest sum offered was that paid by Mr. Corr, $34,000. It is planned to operate the plant as soon as the work of re-organization has been finished.

LATEST

Germany Is Preparing the Papers

BERLIN, June 10—The German government's draft of the views on the proposed commercial treaty with the United States is in course of preparation for submission to Washington in July. It is based upon the reports of various commercial authorities. The Dusseldorff Chamber, one of the most influential West Rhalen manufacturing districts sent Prince Von Buelow a memorial in which these fundamental principles were laid down:

"First, the old Prussian treaty of 1828 must either be formally cancelled, or extended to the German Empire with binding force for the U. S.

Second, If that treaty be cancelled, it must be replaced by a treaty of comity and navigation between the two countries.

Third, A tariff treaty with the U. S. must be sought in which one concession shall be balanced by another fully or approximately equalling it.

Fourth, In case the treaty negotiations lead to no practicable results that the German customs be applied to imports from the U. S.

Fifth, Some alleviation to the export business of each country could, it is suggested be secured by the U. S. continuing the lower rates of duties on German goods in the list provided for by the Saratoga agreement to which Germany would answer with equivalent compensations but not with treaty rates throughout as conceded to other countries.

Sixth, Whatever arrangement is made must contain provision for supply free of cost information about tariff matters and for the settlement of tariff differences by arbitration. Each country must pledge itself to accept the findings of the scientific bodies of the other state as to the composition of food products.

LITTLE BOY

MADE PEACE BETWEEN HIS PARENTS.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The prattle of Jack Glick, 3 years old, with blue eyes and golden hair, brought about at least a partial reconciliation yesterday between Uriah C. Glick, the Erie promoter arrested the preceding day on a charge of kidnapping the boy, and his wife, on whose complaint the arrest was made. But Jack's charms failed to release his father from prison and the Westerner was obliged to spend that night as well as the night before in a cell at Jefferson market.

Mrs. Glick arrived in town before the opening of court, accompanied by her husband's brother, C. R. Glick, and was on hand when the case was called. Simultaneously with her arrival her husband was led into court by a policeman and their son came in custody of a Gerry society officer. Husband and wife failed to recognize each other, but the boy recognized both with perfect impartiality and greeted them cheerfully.

"Hello, mama," he said to one, "what are they going to do?" and to the other, "Hello, papa, have mother come over here."

The child was nearer his father and it was on his father's arm that he rested while Lawyer Frank A. K. Boland upbraided his father before the court and Lawyer Bruce spoke in his defense.

Lawyer Boland said Glick had deserted his wife in Erie and that his brother had been supporting the wife and child. He added that it was a terrible thing to bring the little boy here to a hotel away from his mother, and asked that Glick be held until word came from Philadelphia.

"A man cannot kidnap his own child," was the retort of Lawyer Bruce. "There has been no separation and no decree. The custody of the child was not given to the wife."

Magistrate Finn said that he had no jurisdiction to go into the merits of the case. All that he could do in the matter, he said, was to hold the prisoner until the receipt of instructions from here. If those instructions were not received within forty-eight hours, he said, he would release the prisoner, but not before.

WOOD ALCOHOL

MAN ACCUSED OF FORCING BOY TO DRINK IT.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Edward Mack, the seventeen-year-old boy who was accused of having forced Charlie Molineux, a ten-year-old boy, to drink alcohol thereby nearly causing his death, was arraigned in the West Side court yesterday on complaint of the Molineux boy's mother. He said that he, Molineux and a number of other small boys, all of whom live in West Ninety-seventh street, found a bottle which they thought was gin.

He attempted to drink some of it and when it bit his tongue he spat it out. The other boys wanted to try it and some of them drank a little. Young Molineux was made sick for the time being by it.

Magistrate Pool threw the case out of court and discharged the Mack boy.

PEACE TERMS

MAY NOT DISCUSSED IN MANCHURIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—3.16 p.m.—The text of President Roosevelt's personal appeal to the sovereigns of the warring countries to arrange a meeting of their plenipotentiaries for the purpose of agreeing on terms of peace which arrived here this morning are in the veil and for the sceptics at St. Petersburg, who refused to believe Pres. Roosevelt's efforts to bring the belligerents together it came like a bomb-shell. President Roosevelt's sole principle to bring about a meeting has been achieved and now it is merely a question whether the results will be the peace "for which the whole civilized world will pray."

It is a diplomatic triumph of the first magnitude and the diplomats here make no attempt to conceal their admiration for the new world brand of diplomacy which acts while the remainder of the world thinks.

The formal replies of Russia and Japan are expected to be transmitted through Count Cassini (the Russian ambassador at Washington), but the situation is such at this hour as to leave no doubt of the acceptance of both and that the question of the selection of plenipotentiaries and place of meeting will follow.

Pres. Roosevelt's urgent expression in favor of direct negotiations exclusively between the belligerents points straight to the battlefield in Manchuria as the scene of the negotiations and the diplomats generally entertain the view that Russia and Japan had best settle their quarrel there beyond the range of possible outside influence. To the policy of non-interference, practically all the powers are committed. Great Britain it is felt here in diplomatic circles will now complete the realization of what the president has begun by restraining her ally and inducing Japan to proffer moderate terms which Russia can accept.

IS BLIND

WOMAN STRICKEN ON THE EVE OF HER WEDDING.

STAMFORD, June 10.—Miss Ethel C. Ford, daughter of Mrs. W. F. Ford formerly of Brooklyn, is shut in a dark room on the eve of the date fixed for her wedding to George A. Jenkins of this city. One of Miss Ford's eyes is sightless.

The cause of the illness puzzles the surgeons. It followed a trip in Mr. Jenkins' automobile. The young lady's illness has necessitated the postponement of the wedding. The marriage was to have taken place this afternoon and great preparations had been made.

Mr. Jenkins is the wealthy young man who was once engaged to Miss Genevieve Hecker, former golf champion. He caddied for her when she was winning championships. The engagement was broken off, however, and Miss Hecker became the wife of Ralph Stout.

The soda fountain at the Towers Corner drug store contains a number of new drinks. Call and sample them.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

NEW YORK, June 10—Substantial progress toward the unity of the faith among Evangelical Christians has been made during the last year according to the 60th annual report of the American Tract Society of New York which was made public today.

Foreign fields which in the past apparently were closed have opened and in addition much work has been done in the newer states and territories in this country. The colored people of the south have been the object of especial attention and the report says the Mormons have been found not inaccessible. A unique distribution is that carried on at Ellis Island where pamphlets in 26 languages are distributed among the inmates.

MURDER CASE

ARGUMENTS HEARD IN THE CASE AT PLYMOUTH.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., June 10.—Arguments in the murder trial of Antonio Carpenito and James Del Grosso, charged with having killed Policeman James Malloy of Brockton were concluded in the district court here today and after Judge Lawton had concluded his charge the case was given to the jury at 1.45 o'clock this afternoon. In his closing address, District Attorney Feiker charged that witnesses for the defence had given much false evidence.

ANOTHER ARREST

Cambridge Man Was Held in $1000

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 10.—John Keane, residing in East Cambridge, was arrested today on the charge of having taken a false oath and having signed a false certificate. Keane was one of 15 men indicted on this charge by the Middlesex county grand jury yesterday and is the second to be arrested. James A. Montgomery, superintendent of parks of the city of Cambridge, and a former state representative, was arrested last night. Keane is a life insurance agent 31 years old and has been active in ward politics. Both men are democrats. Bonds in each case were placed at $1000 which Montgomery promptly furnished Keane had been unable to secure bonds up to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

ACCEPTS

WESTINGHOUSE A TRUSTEE OF EQUITABLE LIFE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A letter has been sent to Thomas F. Ryan by George Westinghouse of Pittsburg, accepting membership in the board of trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Mr. Westinghouse is now in this city, he and Paul Morton being guests of the same hotel in Fifth avenue. After the directors had finished their work by selecting Mr. Morton as chairman, Roger Winthrop, financial manager of the Society, tendered his resignation. It was explained that he did this as a courtesy to Mr. Morton, that the new chairman might not be embarrassed in any way in the plans that he had for the reorganization of the society.

While the result of the director's meeting was widely discussed in the evening wherever men of finance gathered, few of those directly interested cared to say much for publication. In the evening Mr. Morton attended the Pilgrim's club dinner to former Ambassador Choate and was the recipient of many congratulations over his new position.

"When will you take charge of Equitable affairs?" he was asked.

"As soon as I can be relieved of my duties in Washington. My resignation goes into effect on July 1, but I expect from this time on to pay more or less attention to Equitable maters. I was here to look after other offices to which I had been chosen by the Metropolitan Subway syndicate, but any connection with that is now out of the question.

"I do not know who will be put in that place."

Charles Stewart Smith, an anti-Hyde director of the Equitable, who also attended the dinner, denied that he opposed in any way the election of Mr. Morton, as had been stated.

"I am perfectly satisfied with the result of the meeting," said he.

"We have done everything that the public required of us, and more. We have complied with everything that public opinion demanded, and rightly demanded.

"This action means mutualization. It matters not who has control of the stock, mutualization must come and the board is pledged to see that it is carried out unless the court interferes, and I do not imagine that anything of the kind will occur.

"I have had a talk with Mr. Morton concerning the resignations that have been placed in his hands. I have advised him strongly not to accept them all. When a man starts out to run an establishment he cannot afford to throw out all the old servants who know how the place ought to be run. Mr. Morton will be compelled to surround himself with men who are conversant with the details and I believe he will keep at least some of those who have resigned in the service of the society."

THE MASHER

WOMAN CHASED HIM AND GAVE HIM A BEATING.

NEW YORK, June 10.—While Mrs. Mary Grossman of 358 Wythe avenue, Williamsburg, was going along Wythe avenue in the direction of her home, late on Thursday night, she heard footsteps behind her when she reached South Third street. Glancing quickly around, she saw a man beside her. She was about to hasten on when the man, it was alleged, caught hold of her and bent forward as if to kiss her. Mrs. Grossman struck him in the face with her fists, and she kept up her thrashing, until the man fell. When he got up and ran away Mrs. Grossman started in pursuit, and she caught him in the park under the Williamsburg bridge, at Wythe avenue and South Fifth street.

Mrs. Grossman began to beat him again, while a large crowd which had gathered around cheered her on. Policeman Royle appeared, and after the woman had related what had happened he arrested the man and took him to the Bedford avenue police station, where Mrs. Grossman preferred a charge of disorderly conduct. The man gave his name as Joseph Katz. He said he was a clerk, 30 years old, and lived at 3937 Third avenue, Manhattan. He was locked up.

Mrs. Grossman was in the Lee avenue police court yesterday when Katz was arraigned before Magistrate Furlong. She told how the man stole up behind her and how she had thrashed him. Katz denied that he had insulted the woman. The magistrate, in imposing a fine of $5, characterized Katz as a masher, and told him he deserved what he got at the hands of Mrs. Grossman.

INDIAN GIANT

WANTS TO BECOME A PUGILIST.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—John Middlesky was happy when he struck a bed in the Pauly Hotel, Minneapolis, yesterday. For three nights he had been compelled to sit up because he could not get into a Pullman berth. He is a full blood Choctaw Indian and weighs 456 pounds. He is on his way East from Portland to train down and learn the fine points of the boxing game. He is 29 years old, stands 7 feet high and wears 14½ shoes. Middlesky is a natural athlete and despite his great bulk is perfectly proportioned.

PIG OWNERS FINED

where these hogs are kept than any other place in the state. This complaint was made out on May 19th and has been continued several times. Now at the last moment they come in with a physician's certificate and want another continuance. The health department has received several letters of protest that these continuances are simply a make-shift to avoid trial. This is a serious menace to public health and I do not propose to allow this matter to go along."

Judge Pickman in reply said:

"I object to this attempt to prejudice the court."

"That's wholly untrue. That's like the speech up to Plaistow," interrupted Lawyer Donahue.

Judge Pickman then resumed: "We have made no attempt to have the case continued again. I came here to dispose of the case and when I found that the woman could not be here I suggested that her son be substituted as defendant and this was not acceptable to the prosecution. Then I sent for her to come to court and she will be here in a short time. I would suggest that pending her arrival we proceed with the Johnson case."

This was agreeable to the prosecution and the trial proceeded.

THE EVIDENCE OFFERED.

In the case of B. W. Johnson charged on two complaints with keeping pigs within the city limits one complaint was drawn under the statutes and the other under the rules of the board of health.

Mr. Johnson through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

Sanitary Inspector Frank O'Hare testified that on May 15 and 17 he visited the stable kept by the defendant in the rear of 19 Crosby street and found five pigs in the cellar of the stable.

On cross examination Mr. O'Hare was asked if he knew of places in Lowell where pigs are kept and against which no prosecutions have been made but the question was excluded.

Inspector Bates testified that on June 7 he visited the stable and saw three pigs and Mr. Johnson claimed ownership.

Agent H. H. Knapp after producing the rules of the board of health said that Mr. Johnson had had a conversation with Agent Knapp in regard to the case.

At this point Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick, the defendant in the other pig case came in and her case was taken up.

Inspector O'Hare visited her house on June 17, and spoke with her son. He saw one pig in her cellar.

Inspector Bates said that he told Mrs. Fitzpatrick to get rid of the hogs and she said she couldn't, as they were a benefit to her, as she would be unable to dispose of the manure were it not for the pigs.

Judge Pickman put in no defence in either case, but filed a motion to the court to dismiss the complaints on the ground that the government had not made out its case.

Judge Pickman argued at considerable length for the dismissal of the complaints on the claims that the rule of the board was unreasonable. Lawyer Donahue, for the prosecution, argued that the statute and rules are plain and that the violations thereof are clearly shown.

Judge Fisher then found both guilty under the ordinance, but dismissed the cases under the rules of the board. Mr. Johnson was fined $20 and Mrs. Fitzpatrick $10.

Judge Pickman, in behalf of both defendants, appealed, while Mrs. Fitzpatrick said: "They're not my pigs; they're my son's.

"I want to serve public notice on you," said Lawyer Donahue, "that this being a continuing offence, you must get rid of those pigs right away or we'll have you in court again next week. You must get those pigs off that street, Johnson."

SENT TO STATE FARM.

Michael Rogers, a Civil war pensioner pleaded not guilty of drunkenness. Officer Frawley found him lying helpless in the street in Chapel street, early this morning. Rogers was sent to the state farm.

MINOR CASES.

Michael Keating charged with drunkenness and larceny of a watch from William H. Jennings was continued in $200 bonds until Monday.

Two drunks were fined and one was released.

Stephanus Salames for larceny of $7 was continued until June 24.

A NEGLECTFUL HUSBAND.

Jeremiah F. Sullivan was charged with neglect of his pretty and neat looking wife, Catharine T. Sullivan. The latter said that her husband hadn't contributed a cent toward the support of her or her four children. She said that her husband was all right when he was not drinking, but he was drinking most of the time. It was decided to give Sullivan a lay off in jail for a few days and then start him right and accordingly he was held in $200 until June 15.

THREATENING CASE.

Lawyers Fay and Donahue went at each other in the case of Eugene Lavole charged with threatening Mary J. Deans. It seems that the defendant hired some land in Parker street from the estate of the late Thomas Fay and Mrs. Deans lives nearby and used the land at will. When Lavole took the land he ordered the Deans woman off the land. She continued to go on the land until one day Lavole told her that if she went on the land again he would "shoot the legs off her" when she went down and got a warrant out for him and told the court today that she was in fear of the defendant though it was shown that she crossed the land again after the alleged threat was made. The defendant said he meant no harm but simply wanted to keep her off the land. In his argument Lawyer Fay said: "There's no more trouble between them than between two cooing doves."

"Cooing doves don't threaten to shoot each other's legs off," remarked Lawyer Donahue and he then quoted from Bryant's "Belfry Pigeon."

Judge Fisher found the defendant not guilty and ordered his discharge.

THE CLOSING DAY

Of Huntington-DeDeyn Stock Company

This is the closing day at the opera house and the last opportunity to see this clever company of players, this season. The attraction "Moths" is undoubtedly the strongest that has been presented by the company and is well worth seeing. Crowded houses have witnessed the performances during the week and all have pronounced it one of the best. This play gives Mr. Chagnon an unusual opportunity to display his talent and his fine work has charmed his audiences. Mr. Huntington appears in a part different to any others that he has assumed and demonstrates his versatility. Miss Fletcher plays a most difficult part in a manner that defies criticism and in fact nearly every character in this remarkable play is a leading part.

A DOUBLE LIFE

Peter H. Deacon Supported Two Families

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 10.—The Journal today prints a story on the authority of John Keating that Peter H. Deacon who died recently in Chicago had lived a double life for 20 years having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston and Milwaukee.

Keating is a son-in-law of Deacon. According to Keating, Deacon came west 20 years ago and married Fannie Adeline Wilcox. He was known as the agent for a knitting manufacturing firm and had an office at 82 Wisconsin street, Milwaukee. Deacon was a leading supporter of the St. James Episcopal church. At the same time he had a wife and seven children residing in Somerville, Mass., Deacon having been married to Anna J. Tullt in Somerville by the Rev. James Healy in 1868. The second marriage took place nearly 20 years later.

The story of the double life leaked out when John Keating, husband of a daughter born of Deacon's first marriage, came west for the purpose of securing proofs of Deacon's death and adjusting two life insurance policies. According to Keating's story Deacon for many years represented to the wife in Massachusetts that who as a traveling man and that his business kept him in the west most of the time. His visits to his eastern home were limited to about two each year. The only western address known to his eastern family was the Hotel Wellington, Chicago. For a long time, Mr. Deacon supported the Somerville, Mass., family, but shortly before his death his contributions ceased altogether.

Mrs. Deacon left Milwaukee two weeks ago and is said to be now living with Mrs. Wilcox in Chicago.

Resolution Adopted by Board of Aldermen

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was held this afternoon ostensibly for the purpose of acting on sewer petitions, but other business was attended to.

Chairman Grant called to order at 1.45. Numerous petitions were properly referred. Other petitioners were given leave to withdraw. The appointment of William E. Livingstone and Arnold J. Ryan as weighers of coal was confirmed.

An order for a system of surface drainage in the vicinity of Holden and Princeton street was adopted. The drain will cost $350.

The question of a sewer in Chippewa street was taken up and the resolution concerning it was adopted. The sewer will cost $287.

A resolution laying out the precincts in accordance with the recent redistricting order was read. It was stated that it was necessary, under the law, to take action on the matter before July 1.

Ald. Carmichael moved that the resolution be laid on the table until July 28, the motion was defeated and the resolution was adopted. Ald. Carmichael, voting in the minority, gave notice of reconsideration at the next meeting.

KILLED HIMSELF

NO REASON FOR SUICIDE OF ALFRED PICKARD.

BOSTON, June 10.—Alfred Pickard, formerly the head of the A. L. Pickard company, electrical engineers of this city, committed suicide today at the Rexford hotel by shooting. Pickard returned yesterday from Hope Idaho, where for a year he had been conducting a ranch. No reason for the suicide has been advanced.

NOT GUILTY

SAILOR THOUGHT HE HAD DROWNED A MAN.

NEW YORK, June 10—A sailor walked into the Forty-second precinct station at the Battery yesterday and gave himself up to the harbor police because he believed he had killed some one. On Friday last Capt. William Spels of the little American centerboard schooner Marshall O. Wells did the same thing. He was remanded to the coroner and released on $500 bail although there was absolutely no proof of any one having been killed.

The sailor who arrested himself yesterday was Capt. James L. Lenihan of the tugboat R. A. Sumner, from Perth Amboy, N. J. Capt. Lenihan told Magistrate Wahle in the Tombs court later that he was backing out of a Pennsylvania Railroad slip in Jersey City, when a man yelled to him that he had run down some one. He found two oars floating, and so gave himself up. Magistrate Wahle refused to hold him.

"You are discharged," said he. "No one knows that you have killed any one. You yourself admit that you don't know. Anyway, you were really outside the jurisdiction of the court, as you say you were in New Jersey."

RAPID GROWTH

TWO MORE VICAR GENERALS IN BROOKLYN DIOCESE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—It was reported yesterday that Bishop McDonnell of the Catholic diocese of Brooklyn had decided to appoint two additional vicar-generals. Since the establishment of the diocese there has been only one assistant to the bishop with that title, the present occupant of the office being the Right Rev. P. J. McNamara, rector of St. Joseph's parish.

Owing to the rapid growth of the diocese it has been found necessary by Bishop McDonnell to add two more assistants. It is understood that the Very Rev. Joseph McNamee, rector of the Church of St. Teresa, and the Rev. George Kaupert, rector of All Saints church, have been selected for the honor.

CEMETERY CASE

ANOTHER HEARING WAS HELD TODAY.

The case of Gray vs. Manning et al., better known as the St. Peter's cemetery case, was heard before Nathan D. Pratt, master in chancery, at the probate court room in the local courthouse today. The case before the master was commenced last Thursday and continued until today, and the third hearing will be held Monday.

CITY HALL NOTES

George Hubbard who has been chosen chief marshal for the Fourth of July parade was at the city hall today and expressed himself as very hopeful of a big slambang parade. Several letters from societies and individuals who would add to the features of the parade have been received by the committee and it looks as if the slambang parade would be a howling success.

The mayor, today, signed a requisition from the public building department to sell the engine, pump and smoke stack used at Huntington hall.

KILLED HIS BABE

Because It Was Not a Boy

Mother Thinks Babe Died Natural Death

NEW YORK, June 10.—In a two-room back flat in the tenement at No. 213 East Seventy-third street, whose furnishings are a bed, a plain board table, two or three chairs, a couch and a few pieces of crockery and cooking utensils, the dead body of a three-hour-old baby girl is lying upon the table with a single candle burning beside it. The child is believed to have been murdered by its father early yesterday because it was not a boy.

In the small, dark bedroom the mother lies sobbing with a two-year-old baby beside her in the bed. She does not know her husband is charged with murder, but believes the babe died at her side, and constantly asks when her husband will return.

At the East Sixty-seventh street police station the husband, Frank Krijack, is held without bail on a charge of homicide. He was too intoxicated to make a statement. Mrs. Sarah Rice, who lives in the same house, and Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, of No. 217 East Seventy-third street, are held on a charge of intoxication and as witnesses to the alleged murder of the child. They attended Mrs. Krijack and joined in a spree after the spree. They were so much under the influence of liquor that their statements to Sergeant Lehr were too incoherent to be of consequence. A third woman is said to have been present, but was not placed under arrest and could not be found at her home yesterday.

According to statements to the police, Krijack, a large and muscular man thirty-six years old, came home at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in a state of intoxication, and when he heard that his wife had given birth to a girl, took the baby from her arms, carried it to the adjoining room, and, after upbraiding his wife for giving birth to a girl when his heart was set upon a boy, took the new-born babe by the legs, swung it around and tossed it into the adjoining room, where its head struck a sofa. Then he left home. The child died a few minutes later.

The police records hold no parallel of a case where destitution, debauch and death met together under such pitiable, and at the same time brutally criminal conditions. The police themselves were slow to believe that the story told them could be true, and are waiting until the principal and witnesses are sober and can tell their story in the Yorkville court.

Mrs. Krijack is a comely, black-haired woman about thirty years old. She has been married nine years. Both she and her husband were born in this country of Bohemian parents. In 1898 their first baby was born, a girl, who is now seven years old. Another girl came two years later, but died when eight months old. The third child, another little girl, was born two years ago. The father and the mother both had hoped that the little visitor which arrived yesterday would be a boy.

Krijack has been irregularly employed as a driver or helper on ice wagons. Lately he has had employment, but the wife went to Dr. Hill's Maternity clinic, in East Seventy-sixth street, for treatment, and her case was reported there as one of extreme destitution.

Krijack started from his home at 2 o'clock yesterday morning for his work. His wife was then ill and a woman neighbor came in. Later word was sent to the clinic and two of Dr. Hill's assistants, George Lintz and A. J. Price, answered the call and attended the mother. Their report was that the new-born child appeared to be normally healthy.

Mrs. Rice, Mrs. O'Leary and Mrs. Mary Simson, the janitress, waited upon the mother and dressed the baby. Then the mother was given whiskey in milk until she was well under the influence of drink. Mrs. Rice and Mrs. O'Leary drank freely, and it was soon known throughout the house by the loud talk, screams and laughter, that a drunken orgie was in full swing in the Krijack's rooms.

When Krijack arrived home he was quite drunk. What happened then is only imperfectly known from the maudlin testimony of the witnesses. The neighbors had heard stories of how the baby had been killed, but word did not reach the police until Mrs. Simson told Patrolman Mussmacher that a baby was dead in the house.

FANCY LARGE MACKEREL, 22c EACH; FRESH BOILED LOBSTERS, 20c A LB. TODAY AT THE TARPON, 124 CENTRAL STREET.

Boy Drank Acid and Munched Pins

NEW YORK, June 10.—Frank Kamholz, who is fifteen and small for his age, and who lives at No. 749 Tinton avenue, the Bronx, has been a trouble maker since he was a baby in arms, and his latest exploits to give his parents trouble are two attempts at suicide, one by eating a couple of ounces of boric acid and the other, yesterday morning, by attempting to swallow a handful of pins. His mother caught him by the back of the neck and shook the pins from his mouth before he could swallow them.

The boy has been committed to the juvenile asylum a couple of times as an incorrigible, but attempts to reform him have failed. He seems never to be satisfied unless he is making trouble for his parents, and to what extremes the spirit of mischief will carry him is shown by his willingness to fill his anatomy with acid or pins, and even end his own life, knowing that he could die happy if his death would bring worry and grief to his father, mother and little brother.

Yesterday, after the boric acid episode of the night before, because the boy had been teased by other boys about his badness, and scolded for staying out late, his father told him that he would again send him to some reform institution. The boy then walked over to a table where a paper of pins was lying, extracted a handful and put them in his mouth. His mother saw him try to swallow the pins and grabbed him in time to prevent him from carrying out his attempt at suicide.

Mr. Kamholz promptly took the boy to the children's court and told of his two attempts to end his life. He said that the boy was absolutely beyond his control, an incorrigible trouble maker, and asked that he be committed to some institution. Magistrate Olmsted paroled the boy in the custody of his father until June 13, when he will be given a hearing.

FATAL BURNS

WOMAN'S FRIENDS UNABLE TO HELP HER.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mrs. Ricka Hyman of No. 98 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, was fatally burned at her home yesterday. In her agony she rushed to the fire escape, trying to get to the next house, and the tenants of surrounding buildings witnessed the scene, powerless to help her. Several women became hysterical and others were overcome by the horror of the scene.

Mrs. Hyman has four children. Three had gone to school, and Lester, ten years old, was finishing luncheon. Mrs. Hyman was at the gas cook stove. The blaze ignited her skirt, and in a second she was enveloped in flames.

When the woman had almost reached the next building she stood, helpless, and finally fell to the fire escape. Neighbors shouted, and the wind fanned the flames more and more. Finally two women managed to get to the fire escape and carried the unfortunate woman into the kitchen of No. 100.

Drs. Parmenter and Burns, of the Harlem hospital, found Mrs. Hyman burned from head to foot. Every stitch of clothing had been burned off and the hair burned away. The physicians said she could not possibly live.

Mrs. Louise Moran, of No. 424 East Ninety-first street, was taken to the Presbyterian hospital yesterday, suffering from severe burns of the back and limbs, received at her home while cooking breakfast over a gas stove, while she was carrying her 2-months-old baby. Her husband quenched the flames.

GOLD MEDAL

GIVEN BY POPE TO NEW YORK WOMAN.

PAINFUL CANOE RIDE.

Bridget Priscilla Tibbetts Jameson, the queen of Emery street, went canoeing last night and met with a painful experience. It seems as though the owner of the craft did not own any cushions and this compelled poor Bid to sit on the bar dribs of the canoe. She ribs cut their monogram on her well between the sixth arch bridge and the corner of Emery street. It is doubtful if she will be able to assist Queen Lil to pad up this afternoon. Poor Bid will have to eat her meals from the mantel piece for some time.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

ALL ESCAPED

LIVES OF TWELVE PERSONS WERE IN DANGER.

BOSTON, June 10.—The prompt action of a pedestrian saved the lives of twelve persons in the North End today when a determined attempt to burn a four-story brick building was made. The occupants of the house were aroused when the rooms were filled with smoke and when the ground floor was flaming. All escaped safely, through the assistance of police and firemen. An investigation showed that the fire had been started by igniting kindlings which had been placed in a baby carriage on the ground floor. The monetary loss was inconsiderable.

MILL HANDS IDLE

Spoolers' Strike is on at Chicopee

CHICOPEE, Mass., June 10.—About 800 out of 1300 operatives of the Chicopee cotton mills have been thrown out of work by a strike which occurred in the spooling department.

At first the strike had little effect on the large plant but today many of the hands in the other departments are unable to continue because of a lack of warp. The strike was caused by changes in the wage scale of about 40 girls who claimed their pay had been cut about 8 per cent. Agent Lord will endeavor to get sufficient warp from mills elsewhere to keep the plant running, but it is said the other operatives may decline to use it and compel the entire plant to close. Agent Lord and the strikers have held a conference, but they were unable to agree and appear to be further apart than before.

BURGLAR

RETURNED INSURANCE POLICY THAT HE STOLE.

NEW YORK, June 10—After stealing jewelry valued at $10,000 from the home of Chester Jarrett, Park avenue and Eighty-second street, a burglar who signed himself "Raffles," returned a burglar insurance policy included in the loot, and accompanied it with a polite little note, in which he expressed the hope that the insurance company is "not offended."

The burglary was committed last Wednesday, but was not made public by the police until yesterday. In fact, the burglary would not have been disclosed even them but for the receipt of the note. The letter is addressed to N. R. Moray, of the National Surety company, which carried the insurance, and is as follows:

"Dear Sir—I cannot make use of such a good thing as this. I return this policy to the National Surety company, so they can cash up on my job. Trusting you will not be offended, I am, yours truly.

"THE MYSTERIOUS RAFFLES,
"Ex-Amateur Cracksman."

Mr. Jarrett's home was entered through a parlor window while the family was at dinner. Mr. Jarrett and his family, as well as the servants, were in the basement dining room and the burglar worked at his leisure.

The loot consisted mainly of jewlry and bric-a-brac the financier had given to his wife. The jewels had been kept in a chamois bag in a little safe in the bedroom. Mr. Jarrett's home has been robbed several times and upon each occasion the thief made good his escape. The police are inclined to the belief that some one in the house assisted in the last robbery.

SILVER WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. BEAN CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Bean of 15 Hastings street observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Bean is a native of Augusta, Me., the son of the late Rev. G. W. Bean, a former pastor of Paige Street F. B. church. Mr. Willis Bean has been a resident of Lowell since 1875, and has a stair and house finish manufactory in upper Dutton street. Mrs. Bean was Miss Annie A. Simpson, a native of that part of Chelmsford which is now annexed to Lowell. The late Rev. E. W. Porter performed the wedding ceremony twenty-five years ago, and a number of guests present at that time called yesterday to offer congratulations. Yesterday two children assisted their parents in entertaining visitors—Miss Alice Gertrude Bean and Master Winthrop Simpson Bean. Beside a large number of Lowell friends, guests were present from Boston, Southboro, Jamaica Plain and Natick. The gifts included a number of silver articles and cash.

WAGES ASSIGNED

DECISION THAT MAY OVERTURN SOME CONTRACTS.

A case was heard in the civil session of the police court yesterday for the recovery of two weeks' wages assigned to a local credit company. The assignment gave the assignee power to change the name of the employer in the assignment in case the assignor changed his place of employment. He did change and the claim was presented to his new employer. Judge Fisher on the bench decided an employe could not assign wages to be paid by a future employer. An appeal was taken. J. W. McEvoy had the case for the defendant.

JUNE WEDDING SALE.

G. H. Wood, the Central street jeweler's name, is closely connected with weddings because he always has such a large and varied stock of goods suitable for wedding gifts. It has been said that a wedding ring purchased at his store has a peculiar charm about it and that the married life will be one continual honeymoon. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Get wise and trade at Wood's mammoth jewelry store, opposite the American House.

LOSS IS HEAVY

Casket Buildings in New York Burned

NEW YORK, June 10.—A heavy financial loss was incurred in a fire which started in the factory of the New York and Brooklyn Casket company in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, and swept through adjoining buildings, including the six story factory of William Vogel and brother today.

William Sheehan, a casket company employee, was asleep in the fourth floor of the factory. He jumped into a life net and rebounded, falling on the sidewalk, and his leg was broken and internal injuries, which may prove fatal, sustained. Practically every building within the block bounded by Wythe and Kent avenues and South Ninth and South Tenth streets, was either destroyed or badly damaged by fire and 90 families were rendered homeless. The total loss is estimated at $300,000. The Casket company's factory was gutted, entailing a loss of $210,000.

STREET RIOT

ONE JEW KILED AND TWENTY OTHERS WOUNDED.

WINSK, Western Russia, June 10.—The report published in a London newspaper that 100 persons were shot during rioting here recently is incorrect. There was a street riot here Thursday on Cathedral square between soldiers and Jews. It was provoked, according to the official version by the theft of a purse from a soldier off duty: His comrades beat a Jew thereupon a crowd of about 600 of the latter's co-religionists gathered to rescue him. The Jews used stones and revolvers and armed troops were summoned. They fired into and dispersed the crowd, with the result that one Jew was killed and 20 were wounded and a soldier was shot. The chief of police was hit on the head with a flying missile and one policeman was severely wounded.

HEAVY LOSS

DAMAGE CAUSED BY FLOOD IN GRAND RAPIDS.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 10—The loss in this city attributable to the flood which now seems to be subsiding, is estimated at $250,000. The loss in all western Michigan is placed at $1,000,000. The river gauge at 8 o'clock last night showed 17.6, a fall of .4 since last midnight. A fall of .5 is anticipated by morning. Railway service is partially resumed on all lines in the flood district, except the Grand Trunk.

Grand Haven is the critical point of the flood tonight. That city is completely isolated. Grand river is higher there than it was during the spring flood of 1904. So far five lives in western Michigan have been lost in consequence of the flood.

FOUGHT OVER WOMAN.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—In a revolver fight between Edward C. Schneider, a barber, and John Dugan, a sporting man in Kansas City, Kan., last night, Schneider was killed and Dugan was probably fatally wounded, as a result of a feud over a woman.

STOCK MARKET REGAINED.

NEW YORK, June 10—The stock market was revived today by the reports of a settlement effected in the long standing Equitable Life dispute. There was a momentary check to the rise on account of the inviting profits offered on the overnight advance, but the prices then began to go forward again. The holiday in London deprived the market of one usual source of demand. Advances of from 1 to 1½ points became fairly general during the course of the first hour of trading. Metropolitan Street Railway was conspicuous with a gain of three points.

ANNUAL GAME

Between Exeter and Andover Academies

EXETER, N. H., June 10.—Excellent weather favored the players in the annual baseball game between Phillips-Exeter and Phillips-Andover academies today and there were many hundred visitors in town to see the contest. Exeter has made an unusually brilliant record this season and was generally looked upon before today's game as the probable winner. Andover, however, has an excellent team and has made a strong showing in games with the large colleges. Lanigan will go into the box for Andover and if necessary will be relieved during the game by Clow or Merritt. H. Jones was settled upon to pitch for Exeter. The game was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock. It was expected that the batting order would be as follows:

FOR LARCENY

MISS CORTELYOU SAYS ARREST IS AN OUTRAGE.

NEW YORK, June 10—Miss Antoinette Cortelyou, a comely young woman of independent means, who lives in expensively furnished apartments at No. 58 West Sixty-sixth street, was arrested last night and locked up in the West Sixty-eighth street station on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Mrs. Dorothy Auerbach, of No. 60 West Ninety-second street, a friend of Miss Cortelyou, who claims that she lost $2.00 worth of jewelry from a hand bag while visiting the latter yesterday afternoon.

Ruth Bundy, Miss Cortelyou's colored maid, also was arrested and locked up on the same charge.

When taken to the station house Miss Cortelyou was surprised and very indignant. Her indignation increased when Matron Mary Quinn searched her to find if any of the articles of jewelry described by Mrs. Auerbach could be found.

"This is an outrage," she declared. "It is an outrage that I should be arrested and an unwarranted indignity and insult to subject me to this search. Mrs. Auerbach must be out of her mind. I am a niece of Postmaster-General Cortelyou, and there is no reason why I should steal anyone's jewelry. I can have all that I want."

Miss Cortelyou wore only a plain gold ring and a solitaire diamond ring when arrested. She was prettily dressed in a white cloth yachting suit, with straw hat and light blue plumes. Her skirt was of walking length, and she wore champagne tinted silk stockings.

Miss Cortelyou sent out for Lawyer James Smith, of No. 896 Eighth avenue, who soon appeared with "Tom" Healy, proprietor of the restaurant at Sixty-sixth street and Columbus avenue, who furnished $1000 bail for both Miss Cortelyou and her maid. Magistrate Mayo signed the bail bond.

At the very beginning of our greeting, we place the word 'Gratitude,' as best becoming the spirit in which we convene after another year of love and labor."

ATTACK BY JAPS

Is Expected by Gen. Linovitch

TOKIO, June 10, 3 p. m.—General Linovitch is reported to be with his headquarters at Fenghwa busily engaged in the personal inspection and direction of his troops for the purpose of strengthening his line of defence along the Chaucheun-Kirin line, evidently expecting a Japanese onset.

The Russian methods of making reconnaissances in force are said to have remarkably improved. They have ceased to be disorderly but owing to the Russians' over faithfulness to the text book orders they are still placed at a disadvantage, their movements being anticipated by the Japanese who prevent them from realizing results commensurate with the amount of sacrifice.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., June 10.—The preliminary examination of J. R. Young of the Goldfield Bank and Trust company and Francis L. Burton, on the charge of conspiracy and obtaining money under false pretenses, has resulted in their acquittal.

Young was remanded into custody pending his trial on the charge of embezzlement. Cashier Hoales testified that the bank's capitalization, which was said to be $100,000, was only in reality $17,000 cash.

STRIKE TROUBLE

Led to Shooting Affair in Chelsea

BOSTON, June 10.—Because he had been repeatedly menaced and fearing that his wife was in danger, Fred J. Leasard, 21 years old, employed as a cutter at the Charles F. Kelly company shoe factory on Everett avenue, Chelsea, early last evening, whipped a revolver from his pocket while on Everett avenue and fired a 32-calibre shot at Philip A. Smith, 25 years old, of 11 6th street, Chelsea.

The bullet struck Smith in the right side of the abdomen, passing through the intestines and lodged in his back. Physicians performed an operation on him at the Frost hospital, but were unable to locate the bullet. His condition is extremely serious.

PREMIER BOND

ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR RAISING MORE MONEY.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 10—Premier Bond in the legislature this afternoon announced plans for raising increased revenues. He said the Canadian Marconi Co. had established three wireless stations in Newfoundland without authority and that Colonial government believed they were doing commercial business with the Marconi stations at Cape Cod, Cap elfreton and passing steamers. Therefore the government proposed to tax these stations $4000 each if satisfied that it was not the intention of the government to tax the Anglo-American Cable company for more than five Atlantic cables at $4000 each as the extensions to the Canadian continent were regarded as a part of the same cables. It was proposed however to levy a tax aggregating $20,000 annually upon banks doing business in the colony.

THREE NUNS

DECIDE TO GO AMONG THE LEPERS.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 10—Away in the interior of Japan there is a leper settlement known as Kumamtu. Thither Sisters Luke, Adelid and Martha are going. They arrived from Quebec and left on the Empress of India for Japan. Their sacrifice is purely voluntary and they are well aware of their destiny.

The sisters are young, healthy and strong and nature has dealt kindly with them in the matter of face and figures; yet they go bravely to their field of labor with no other aim in view than nursing and caring for Christ's poor and afflicted. The sisters are going to devote their life to caring for the lepers of Japan. The will never leave the leper settlement once they have set foot in it.

A keyring and a receipt for money paid to a P. Parkhurst was found in one of the pockets. Two fishermen were recently reported missing and probably drowned from the schooner Elizah H. Parkhurst.

Y. W. C. A. HOME.

The Young Women's Christian Association opened their new home on John street this afternoon at 2 o'clock for all who desired to inspect it. The ladies of board of directors were present to extend a cordial welcome to all who came, and will receive until 9.30 p. m. They desire to express their sincere regret that hundreds who came to their opening on Wednesday evening could not gain admission, because of the size of the crowd inside. Among those outside closed doors were directors and special friends of the association.

The society acknowledges the gift of sheets and pillow cases enough for all the rooms from Mr. Horace Stebbins of New York.

GIFT OF $40,000.

BOTH MUST HANG

ANNA VALENTINA, THE NEW JERSEY MURDERESS

Two Women Will Pay the Death Penalty

Two women sat in the shadow of the hangman's noose when last night's sun went down; for with the sun's setting there went down also their last hopes of escaping the gallows. To Mary Mabel Rogers in Vermont and Anna Valentina in New Jersey only a few days are left before they pass into the hands of the executioner.

It has long been claimed that no woman ever again would be hanged in the United States.

That such prophecies have been erroneous is proven by the fate that certainly awaits these two murderesses, unless something in the nature of a miracle intervenes to stay the vengeance of the law.

In neither case is there any doubt as to guilt.

Mary Mabel Rogers—young and called pretty by many—killed her husband in cold blood.

Anna Valentina—middle-aged, grim and homely—murdered the rival who stole the affections of the man she loved.

Everything that can be done has been done to save these women from the hangman, but all has been in vain.

Mrs. Mary Rogers, now under sentence of death at Windsor jail for the murder of her husband, Marcus, at Bennington, Vt., must pay the penalty for her crime.

She will be hanged a week from next Friday.

In spite of the extraordinary efforts made to save her from the gallows, her fate was sealed yesterday, when Justice Peckham of the United States Supreme Court refused to grant the writ of error necessary to take the case before the United States Supreme Court at Washington.

No further hope remains to the condemned woman, and her attorneys now admit that her execution can no longer be delayed.

The only hope left was that Governor Bell might grant a further reprieve, but that Governor Bell will interfere no more is evident from the statement made by him when he said yesterday:

"The law must take its course. I was obliged to grant the second reprieve under the law, but I shall not interfere again. This covers my position in the matter."

MR. SILK SUES

Town of Tewksbury for Damages to Land

Mr. Fred Silk of North Tewksbury, has brought suit against the town of Tewksbury for damage done by drainage of surface water through his land. A local morning paper stated that the town has not damaged Mr. Silk's property in any way.

To a representative of The Sun, Mr. Silk said that the article in the morning paper did him an injustice. "I have been living in North Tewksbury for 15 or 16 years, and I am not looking for trouble with the town or with individuals, but I have rights that must be respected.

"A few years ago I put a drain through my farm for my own convenience and it served the purpose well. Later, the town connected a catch basin to my ditch and the result was that an overflow that injured my property. The town did not have my consent to attach the catch basin and I am sueing to recover for the damage that was done my land."

AL DELMONT

KNOCKED OUT WILIE MACK IN SIXTH ROUND.

LAWRENCE, June 10.—The West End A. C. closed its season of boxing last night by presenting in the feature event Willie Mack of Lawrence and Al Delmont of Medford. Delmont won in the sixth round after one minute of fighting in that round.

It was a pretty go, although Mack was outclassed in ring generalship by Delmont. He made a good showing, always having a dangerous wallop, but Delmont's cleverness stalled him from landing it.

Mack made his best showing in the fourth. He sent the Medford boy spinning with a hard right to the chin, but Al was back like a flash and he kept Mack working fast for the remainder of the bout.

In the sixth in an exhange from a clinch, Delmont swung his right over to Mack's jaw, and the latter went down, his head striking the canvas heavily. He was counted out.

Kid Grady and Kid Barrett sparred six rounds to a draw. Johnny Reagan of Andover beat Kid Gray of Boston in six rounds, and Lew Docstader of Philadelphia went down and out in the fifth before Jone Nelson of Chelsea.

The latter bout was the gamest exhibition ever seen in a local ring, the loser, a negro, taking fearful punishment.

WILL PARADE ON THE FOURTH OF JULY.

At a meeting of Passaconawny tribe of Red Men held last night it was voted to ask the Great Council for permission to turn out in full Indian garb in the parade to be held in this city on the Fourth of July, similar to that worn at Worcester last Fourth. The tribe turned out in a Fourth of July parade about a dozen years ago and captured the first prize. They also participated in a Fourth of July parade at Lawrence a year or two later.

Chevalier lodge, Knights of Pythias, has appointed this committee to have charge of the ceremony of decorating the graves of departed brothers a week from next Sunday: Lyman Hodgman, Eugene Collins, Clarence Wheeler, Charles Haskell, Lester Mason. There is no union memorial movement among the lodges this year.

MARY SKIBO

LAWRENCE GIRL IS MISSING FROM HOME.

LAWRENCE, June 10.—Mary Skibo, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Leo Kinchi of 369 Common street, has been reported to the police as missing since Saturday, when she drew her pay in the Everett mills, it is said. The mother fears that her daughter has been enticed away.

The girl is rather tall for her age, light complexioned, with blue eyes. She wore a black and gray skirt and blue coat trimmed with lace, and on her hat were red and white roses.

READY TO MEET

Russia and Japan Accept Roosevelt's Terms

NEW YORK, June 10, 9.04 a. m.—The Associated Press has definite knowledge that both the Russian and the Japanese governments have accepted President Roosevelt's suggestion and that a meeting of representatives of the two contending powers is assured.

JAPAN

WILL INCLUDE AN INDEMNITY IN HER DEMANDS.

LONDON, June 10, 10.40 a. m.—The keenest interest is manifested in President Roosevelt's note endeavoring to bring Japan and Russia to an understanding. While the British government is not taking any part in the negotiations it is giving the most cordial support to the president of whose actions in the matter it has been kept fully informed. Diplomatic and official circles speak in the highest terms of the diplomatic manner in which the president handled the matter and are fully in accord with what they considered to be the only way in which the difficulty could be overcome. The United States not being entangled in any way was really the only country which could take action but even Pres. Roosevelt could not do more than endeavor to start direct negotiations between the belligerents.

Japan, it can be stated, refused to start the negotiations until fully assured of the earnestness of Russia and that her proposals would be seriously considered. Her demands will include an indemnity, the amount of which has been fixed by the Japanese government and on this point the president is urging lenient treatment. It is considered here that Japan is entitled to an indemnity and it is pointed out that while the payment of an indemnity might affect the standing of Russia among the powers it is not so serious as the loss of territory, besides the payment of an indemnity would be forgotten sooner than the loss of territory and would leave no feeling for revenge. Financial circles in London are of the opinion that the Japanese will demand an indemnity amounting to about $1,000,000,000, that being their estimate of the cost to the Japanese of the 16 months' fighting. This is considered in some quarters to be too large an estimate of the expenditures which is thought to be nearer $600,000,000.

M. WITTE

SAYS CRISIS WILL COME WHEN WAR IS OVER.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10, 12.35 p. m.—The radical press which hounds the government no matter which way it turns, is promptly seeking to take advantage of the new situation created by the possibility of peace. Although for months it has been preaching peace and the abandonment of the whole of the Manchurian adventure at any cost, it has already veered around and pretends to be horrified at the fact that Russia can contemplate the possibility of surrendering her position on the Pacific and purchasing peace at the price of an indemnity after the sacrifice of millions of the people's money and thousands of the people's lives and declares that only the people shall decide whether the country shall submit to this humiliation. These tactics will produce all the more effect since so far as the indemnity goes the radical papers undoubtedly reflect the views of the masses of the Russian people as well as those prevalent in official circles. The status of Vladivostok and the question of indemnity are sure to be the main obstacles to an agreement once the belligerents are brought together, but the crisis for which the solid elements of the opposition are waging war against the government and trying to precipitate constitutes the chief danger.

Solemn words of warning such as those uttered by the Moscow zemstvoists and the mayors of the principal cities who joined with them in the All-Russian zemstvo congress cannot be lightly thrust aside although the government is getting accustomed to hard words. The organization known as the league of professional leagues yesterday, at Moscow, threatened to translate their words into acts unless the government yielded and resolved not only to inaugurate a strike of all the professional classes but to arm in self defense. They also bound themselves not to testify at political trials and to provide for each other's families in case any members suffered a railroad accident or exile. Months ago M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, said to the correspondent of the Associated Press: "There will be no internal crisis now or while the war lasts. The crisis will come when the war ends."

His words seem like a prophecy.

GREAT HOPE

BERLIN OFFICIALS EXPECT PEACE WILL BE MADE.

BERLIN, June 10, 2.30 p. m.—The text of Pres. Roosevelt's message on the subject of peace to the governments of Russia and Japan is regarded at the foreign office here as admirable in spirit and phrasin gand positive hope now exists of comparatively early peace. The Russian emperor in fact invited the action of the president and had much to do with the form that the president's representations took. Emperor Nicholas, through the counsel of powerful personal influences in Russia, became disposed toward peace some days in advance of the president's action. It is recognized at the Russian court and at this court also that no man in the world could so well make an appeal for peace as President Roosevelt. His known views, the detachment of the United States from the European system and the good will Japan feels toward the United States, made the president the solitary statesman who could take such a step without either side distrusting him or feeling annoyed by his solicitude. The conviction here is that Russia is now ready for peace and seeks peace, and that the only difficulties not insurmountable by negotiation which might arise lie in the Japanese government's intentions and terms. Emperor Nicholas, now won for peace, would again decide for war should the Japanese attitude be unconciliatory or even one of long hesitation and reserve though it is understand Japan also gave the president some assurances before he acted.

BUILDING NOTES

WHAT THE LOCAL CONTRACTORS ARE DOING.

The city carpenters are busily engaged in laying a new hardwood floor in the office of the chief engineer at the central fire station. The men started ripping up the old floor yesterday and expect to have the new floor laid by tomorrow night. The place was badly in need of a floor as the last flooring laid looked like a crazy quilt, the floor consisting of the odds and ends of the old Huntington hall, the high school annex and some other buildings, many of the pieces being not over a foot long.

When the floor is completed the work of repairing the interior of the central fire station will be practically finished. During the time the workmen have been at the fire house a new floor was laid on the truck side in Palmer street and one where the chief's wagons are kept in Middle street, while stall pans were installed and the stalls repaired. The interior of the building was touched up by the painters and the brick work in Middle street, which was damaged by the falling of the Fell's block, was also repaired.

Attention is called to the John Ayer estate of about 14,000 square feet, corner of Moody and Tilden streets which is offered for sale for the first time for many years. The heirs and trustee are not obliged to sell, but as they have no capital to develop the property for business purposes they have concluded to offer it for sale if a suitable price can be obtained. No better chance could be had for any one wishing to buy the property and either develop it at once for business purposes or do it gradually. Parts of it could be bringing in an income while other parts were rebuilding. It is well rented now and a purchaser taking it now could go on with it as it is until ready to develop it. See advertisement in another column.

Ground for the erection of the new Ennell street school was broken Tuesday by employes of Cyrus Barton, who has the contract for the erection of the foundation. As soon as the excavation has been completed the work of erecting the foundation will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible.

Several recent fires have thrown a little work in the way of several contractors. The fire at the Gray house in Madison street, which destroyed the roof and a good portion of the interior, will cost the owners about $1000 for repairs. A permit to make repairs was taken out at the office of the superintendent of lands and buildings this week.

Carpenters are now at work repairing the buildings of Michael Cohen & Son at 75 and 81 Suffolk street which were damaged by fire last month. The cost of repairing will be about $300.

No permits for the erection of new buildings were taken out at city hall this week, and only three permits for alterations were granted.

During Monday and Tuesday of next week the elevator at city hall will be out of commission as six new cables are to be installed. At the last inspection of the elevator the liability company, which insures the elevator, notified the city officials that several of the cables were wearing, and while the elevator was not in a dangerous condition they would request that new cables be installed before the next inspection or they would not assume any further liability.

TECH MEN

IN FAVOR OF A UNION WITH HARVARD.

BOSTON, June 10.—The corporation of the Institute of Technology at a special meeting yesterday afternoon voted to unite with Harvard university on the basis of the tentative plan which was drawn up some months ago by a joint committee from Harvard and Tech.

There were 32 members of the corporation present at the meeting, with Pres. Pritchett in the chair. The discussion lasted two hours and when the vote was taken it showed 24 in favor of the merger, and 16 against it, including four pairs.

In all there are 47 members on the Tech corporation, including the governor of the state and the chief justice of the supreme court. Neither of these would vote on such a question as it will have to go before both of them later in their official capacities. This left a total of 45 to possibly vote on the question and it is a well-known fact that 20 of these 45 are against the merger. When the vote was polled it showed four pairs, making it 24 to 16 in favor of the merger at yesterday's meeting.

NEW DEPARTURE

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE WILL BE INCORPORATED.

The Lowell Commercial college is to take a long stride in its work as a business educator. The college is to be incorporated, with Mr. Lelbolt E. Kimball, the present proprietor, president; Mr. C. C. Dexter of the Lynn Business College, vice-president; Mr. George P. Lord, proprietor of the Salem Commercial school, secretary, and Mr. F. A. Spence of Salem, treasurer.

Mr. Spence will be actively associated with Mr. Kimball in the management of the college. He is a graduate of Brown university, has had nearly fifteen years' experience as an instructor and associate with Mr. Lord in Salem, and during the past year was assistant manager and "model-office" expert of the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston, also superintendent of the Boston Situation Department, which has become famous for its success in placing graduates of the three schools already mentioned. Mr. Spence is a practical accountant and will assume charge of the Commercial Department. He will also organize and direct the "model office" of the shorthand department.

The penmanship and shorthand courses will be in charge of Mr. N. D. Clawson, who has at present a similar position with the Massachusetts College of Commerce, Boston. Mr. Clawson is an expert penman from the Zanerian Art College, Columbus, Ohio, and is an experienced teacher of both the Gregg and Pitman systems of shorthand. He has also been manager of one of the notable Brown Colleges of Ohio.

Miss Bertha F. Hamilton, a former teacher in Tilton's Business Institute, Keene, N. H., who has given excellent satisfaction in the Lowell Commercial college during the past year, will be retained as one of the teachers in the book-keeping department.

A valuable asset of the Lowell Commercial college will be the free services of the Boston situation department in obtaining situations for those of its graduates who desire to locate in Boston and other New England cities.

Extensive additions and improvements will at once be made in both the rooms and the courses of study, the floor space being nearly doubled.

The aim of the Lowell Commercial college is to illustrate to the youth of Lowell and vicinity the highest business principles, to provide the most practical methods of training for business, and to assist its graduates to the largest possible success in business. A catalogue of the college will be issued about July 1, and a copy will be mailed free in answer to request for the same. Callers will be welcomed at the college office, 7 Merrimack street, over the new waiting room, any day throughout the summer.

GOING TO HENLY REGATTA.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Fourteen representatives of the Vesper Boat club of Philadelphia, who go abroad to take part in the rowing competition for the grand challenge cup at the Henly regatta, sailed on the American liner New York today.

CAME TO LOWELL

A Missing Haverhill Woman Was Here

HAVERHILL, June 10. Jennie Sargent, an actress with whom Arthur Williams says is his missing wife, Lizzie, left this city two weeks ago last Monday, returned to the city yesterday and admits that Mrs. Williams has been with her.

"I had nothing to do whatever with Mrs. Williams leaving her husband," she said, "as she went away voluntarily, having been dissatisfied with the conditions at her home. The newspapers have published stories that I lured her away and that is absolutely untrue.

"Mrs. Williams had made up her mind to leave her husband. She is not 18 years old, as has been stated, being only 16, and I know this as I have known her for a long time. We left here Monday, May 22, and went to several places in this state and Connecticut. Some of the places we visited were Hartford and Newich, Conn. We came back here last Tuesday, intending to secure my trunk and we left again, going to Lawrence.

"I have since been in Lowell, but Mrs. Williams is not with me now, as she is en route to Daytona, Fla., where she is to visit friends. She is coming south again in August, and will join a repertory company, with whom we both have secured an engagement. The company will play in this city late in the fall.

"Before going south Mrs. Williams consulted a lawyer and learned that her husband could not force her to live with him again, and she says she has made up her mind not to, as she has arranged to file a petition for a divorce. She left her trunk with me and I intend looking after it."

Miss Sargent came to this city to try and secure the express company's voucher for the articles that had been shipped to North Adams, but she was unable to, as Mr. Williams said he had lost it. When Miss Sargent confronted Mr. Williams at his photographic gallery, he accused her of having enticed his wife to leave him. She denied this.

Mr. Williams then accused Miss Sargent with having tried to prevent his marriage to Mrs. Williams, and this she admitted, saying she thought then that Mrs. Williams ought not to marry him.

OPEN FRAUD

SAID TO BE COMMITTED AT LEAGUE ISLAND NAVY YARD.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—D. H. Warren, diary and food commissioner of Pennsylvania, yesterday personally furnished to President Roosevelt and the acting secretary of the navy with evidence, alleging that fraud was being committed at the League Island navy yard in the matter of supplying that station with oleomargarine when the contract calls for pure butter. The commissioner furnished the Washington officers with evidence showing that, instead of butter, oleomargarine colored in imitation of butter was being sold at 21 cents a pound by a Philadelphia dealer, who has the contract of furnishing various food supplies to the ships at the navy yard, while colored oleomargarine is being sold in the markets where the law does not prohibit it at a much lower rate.

MAJOR CROWLEY

Rosigns From the State Committee

BOSTON, June 10.—The suggestion was made yesterday that Col. A. A. Pope would be brought forward by the democratic leaders as the candidate for governor this fall.

Col. Guston is authority for the statement that so far as he is concerned nothing definite has been done in the matter and no overtures to Col. Pope have been made or are contemplated by officials of the state committee.

Major Robert J. Crowley of Lowell yesterday morning mailed to Capt. John J. Flaherty his resignation as a member of the democratic state committee.

The Crowley resignation is the result of differences in the democratic state committee. A week ago Hon. Charles S. Hamlin resigned as a member-at-large, and today Capt. Flaherty will send to the secretary of the committee at the democratic headquarters in this city his own resignation.

Mr. Hamlin gave no reason for his resignation from the state committee, and the letter which Maj. Crowley sent to the chairman yesterday contains nothing in explanation. It is known, however, that Mr. Hamlin and his friends have been in a minority on the state committee, the supporters of Col. Guston being in a decidedly substantial majority. Mr. Crowley has always been a consistent supporter of Mr. Hamlin.

Major Crowley has been a member of the state committee five years. He was secretary of the executive committee during the Douglas campaign.

EX-MAYOR QUINCY BRINGS ACTION AGAINST BROCKTON MAN.

BROCKTON, June 10.—Josiah Quincy, formerly mayor of Boston, was the plaintiff in a case which was heard before Associate Justice Fred M. Bixby yesterday.

The case was against a Mr. Cox, and the Campello Box company, Mr. Cox formerly being in the company. Mr. Cox, it is alleged, signed over his accounting in the company to Mr. Quincy. About $2000 is involved, it being alleged that this amount is due on machinery formerly owned by Mr. Cox, and transferred to Mr. Quincy.

The Insurance Commissioners of Three States Examine The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company

The Insurance Departments of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Wisconsin, after a rigid examination made at the request of the Board of Trustees of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, officially unite in a report showing the following:

THE COMPANY HAS MORE SURPLUS THAN IT CLAIMS.
INVESTMENTS OF THE HIGHEST ORDER.
DEATH CLAIMS PAID ON RECEIPT OF PROOF OF LOSS.
NEW BUSINESS PROCURED WITH FIDELITY TO THE INTERESTS OF POLICY-HOLDERS.
THE COMPANY IS PURELY MUTUAL—HAVING NO CAPITAL STOCK.
TRUSTEES ARE ELECTED BY THE POLICY-HOLDERS.
CHARTER PROHIBITS PROXY VOTING.
OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY THE TRUSTEES.
TRUSTEES EXERCISE INTELLIGENT AND FAITHFUL SUPERVISION OVER THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS.

It is given to few institutions, possessed like the Penn Mutual Life of nearly SEVENTY MILLIONS of assets, to boast of such splendid management as is evidenced by the report of the searching investigation to which it has just been subjected. The examiners found no subject whatever for adverse criticism. There were no weak spots but, in every direction, overwhelming evidence that the interests of the company's policy-holders are cared for with fine ability and integrity.

Politics in Glasgow and politics in Chicago are about as different as any two things could be.

NORWAY'S SECESSION.

Norway proclaims her independence, but the king of Sweden has not yet consented. The secession of Norway resembles in many respects the secession of the southern states previous to the Civil war in this country, but the point at issue is the tariff instead of slavery. Sweden stands for a high tariff, while Norway is for free trade. If the two countries could get along under one government, they would be able to protect their common interests much better than they can possibly do separately.

INVESTIGATE ALL SPOTTED FEVER CASES.

Spotted fever has caused more than fifty deaths in this city and yet among the physicians there is no unanimity of opinion as to its origin or the proper mode of treatment.

Some say it is caused by the bad weather, others that it lurks only in unsanitary places; while others hold that it is in some way allied to hog cholera, and still others that it is coincident with the prevalence of hydrophobia in dogs.

At first physicians tried anti-toxin but while anti-toxin is a splendid specific for diphtheria it is of no use whatever for spotted fever.

Hence the best treatment that can be given is symptomatic, viz.: when vomiting appears some remedy is given for that; when violent headache occurs rational methods are taken for that and so when the temperature runs high.

But so far as knowing what treatment is best under the circumstances, the doctors are entirely at sea as it were.

New York physicians who made many experiments with the disease have decided that anti-toxin is useless, while one prominent practitioner has given it as his opinion that the germs which produce the disease find their way into the brain through the soft bone of the nose, while other doctors equally reliable say the germs are in the air and that they find their way into the blood same as the germs of diphtheria or other diseases. Where there are so many conflicting opinions it is useless to favor any particular theory for there is none established with sufficient certainty to deserve general acceptance.

Lowell has suffered more from this disease this year than most of the other cities of the state. Why is this?

Already over 60 cases have occurred here and over fifty deaths have resulted. Under such circumstances would it not be advisable for the board of health to institute an inquiry into the conditions surrounding each particular case. The mode of life, the state of the health, the diet, the sanitary environment, the plumbing in the house, and many other things might be ascertained from which some general deductions could be made that would be of use in the future treatment of the disease and in reasoning out the cause.

Where such a mysterious disease cuts off so many lives it seems but reasonable that the health authorities of every city of importance should conduct investigations for themselves in order to add, if possible, some fact of importance to the general knowledge of this disease now so puzzling to the medical profession.

Such an investigation would cost something we presume; but after all there should not be a great deal of cost attached to the visitation of 60 families and the investigation of the circumstances surrounding each particular case. One physician would be needed and the superintendent of the board of health, together with a plumbing inspector, could do the rest.

We believe that such an investigation would bring to light some common cause in all the cases, and would establish also whether or not the disease is contagious. When the present epidemic disappears, there may not be another opportunity to investigate the disease for a number of years; at least we hope it shall not reappear, but in case it should it would be well to be fortified against it to the extent of knowing the cause and something more about the treatment of the disease.

At the present time the physicians of the city, like those of every other city, admit that they know practically nothing of the disease except its deadly effects. If they knew anything of the origin of the disease they might be able to lay down rules for prevention if not for successful treatment. Thus in every light an investigation of all cases of spotted fever is highly desirable in the interests of science and the public health.

Her maiden name restored by law.

She had been married but three weeks when her husband was brought home in a helpless condition—intoxicated, when she never knew that he was familiar with the taste of liquor. He was put to bed, and she did just what any woman would feel like doing, sat down and cried, relates the Philadelphia Bulletin. That over, she did some hard thinking, seeing the long years stretch ahead with repetitions of that dreadful scene. There was but one question to settle—did she love him well enough to try to save him. She decided that she did, so set her brain to work on a plan of salvation.

A telegram brought to her side the doctor who brought her up, in a medical way, and to him she made a proposition. He was hard to convince, but she pleaded for her future, and he gave in. The "sick" man was doctored, his head shaved and Spanish fly blisters applied where they would be troublesome. Three weeks the man lay in bed, with his devoted wife to nurse him and tell how he had been brought home in an unconscious condition and tended night and day. Not a word about the cause. Whether he believed in her ignorance or accepted his punishment for what it was worth, no one ever knew. Certainly he was a reformed man when he left his bed. She had her reward.

"Any man," said the reformed absorber, "can be cured of a weakness for a special intoxicant. I know, for I had one. My pet drink was brandy, and I was no good in the morning until I had at least a couple of stiffeners. Fortunately for me, I had a wife who was fond of me. I had my own bedroom, and one morning it seemed to me as if the atmosphere as well as the pillows and the bed clothes smelled of brandy.

"There was a bottle of brandy on a small table near the head of the bed, but the cork was in tight. On the same table was a pitcher of ice water. I took a gulp from it and it tasted of brandy, but so weak that it gave me qualms. It seemed to me that the omelet at breakfast and even the coffee tasted of brandy.

"In the train, on the way to my office, I found myself sniffing at my handkerchief; it smelled of brandy. I began to get alarmed, and said to myself: 'The stuff must be coming through my pores.' I didn't have much of an appetite, and waited until I got home for dinner. Every bite and sup I took tasted of brandy.

"This sort of thing lasted for a couple of weeks, by which time the smell or taste of brandy made me sick. 'Sick' is hardly the word for it; not strong enough. I didn't care for any other drink, and I absolutely couldn't touch brandy. Without thinking anything about it, I stopped drinking the stuff.

"My wife kept the secret for two years, and then confessed that the family doctor had advised her to spray my room and my clothes and my food and my drink with brandy."

RILEY VS. EVELETH

CASE REOPENED AND DECISION RESERVED.

The cases of Riley vs. Eveleth were reopened yesterday in Boston, on the motion of counsel for the defence, allowed by Judge Bond.

Deputy Sheriff Eveleth testified in his own behalf, his testimony tending to show that the writ of attachment on the car, in the premises of Mr. Riley, was discharged previous to action on the writ of replevin. His testimony was corroborated by another witness, the keeper in charge of the property at the time. The testimony of the plaintiff, Mr. Riley, offered in rebuttal, was supported by one other witness. Judge Bond took the papers in the case, reserving decision.

EIGHT HOUR LAW

Applies to Canal Work Says Moody

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The opinion of Attorney General Moody regarding the application of the eight-hour law on the isthmus of Panama was made public yesterday. He holds that the act of August 1, 1892, which limits and restricts to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed by the government of the U. S. or by any contractor or sub-contractor upon the public works of the U. S. applies to the employment of laborers and mechanics in the construction of the Panama canal.

That act, however, the attorney general holds, does not apply to the office force of the isthmian canal commission, stationed on the isthmus of Panama, or to any of the employes of the government who are not within the ordinary meaning of the words "laborers and mechanics." Also that the scope of the act is not limited by the territorial jurisdiction of congress, but is co-extensive with the subject matter to which it was directed, to wit: The conduct of officers and agents of the U. S. in respect to the hours of labor of merchants and laborers upon all public works of the U. S. Congress, he says, may fix the hours of labor upon all the works of the U. S. wherever conducted, and make the law binding upon the officers of the U. S., and through the agency of contracts, upon all contracts with the U. S.

In answer to the request of the secretary of war for an opinion upon the additional question of whether the provisions of the act mentioned apply to the hours of labor of "mechanics and laborers," employed in the construction, maintenance and operation of the Panama railroad and steamship line, the attorney general decides in the negative.

As to whether the eight-hour law applies to that class of employes whose services are necessary before and after the regular hours of work such as engineers who must get up steam in the morning before the regular hours begin, and clean the machinery after the day's work is done, the attorney general says:

"It is believed that giving to the words the meaning which is ordinarily accepted for them and having in mind that the act should not be extended beyond its plain terms, the committee will have no difficulty in determining in each case as it arises, whether the employe is a laborer or mechanic, or whether his duties are such as to warrant some other designation of his employment."

FOR SUCCESS

POINTERS FOR BANK CLERKS AND OTHERS.

At a dinner given recently by the Cincinnati chapter of the American Institution of Bank Clerks, Jacob Schmidlapp, president of the Union Savings Bank and Trust company, made an address on "How to become valuable to the institution which employs you," He said in part:

"What I have to say to you is not drawn from abstract reasoning, but has been revealed by recording my own experience, and is perhaps of no more value to you than the observation of others; for that reason, do not take it too seriously, but remember that an intelligent man will always profit by the experience of others. I can make no better beginning than by advising you to always keep to the truth, no matter what inducements, real or apparent, may be brought to bear. I point to the results of the training at West Point and Annapolis. But one of their many graduates who have filled positions of honor and trust has been found guilty of defalcation.

"Another characteristic which is only secondary to that of truthfulness is politeness. Thirdly, while the interests of the employer and employe may not be identical, they are certainly dependent, and a man cannot have his own interest at heart if he does not, at the same time, do all in his power to promote the welfare of his employer.

"These truisms may seem hackneyed and vain to one who is starting in business and working upon a meager salary, but I can assure you that a man who works with an ideal before him is bound to approach—even if he does not achieve—it. These are fundamental principles which must form the basis of every successful business life, and, while you can not all expect to become presidents of banks, either because there are not banks enough, or for other reasons, and some of you may not reach the management of the departments in which you are employed, you can be polite, which means labors lightened, and every one of you has intelligence enough to be attentive to your business. These three basic qualifications alone will be of manifold value to your employer and to yourself.

"If we agree so far, then I am going to tell you what I think you should do in order to make more secure your advancement. The most valuable characteristic which is developed by practice is economy. No matter how small your salary is, save some portion of it. As soon as you have formed that habit you at once pass from poverty to prosperity. Economy is caused by self-denial, than which there is no greater builder of character. Out of every 50 successful business men 49 will attribute their success to saving, which not only makes a man of greater value to his employers, but makes him a better citizen.

"Learn to trade. When I see a young man buy stationery or anything else for his company with an indifference as to its price I feel that there is no chance for him to become the head of his institution. The trader soon becomes versed in the different phases of his business, takes more interest in his work and his mind becomes more active. Remember, you must first become traders before you can become merchants, between which classes I make a distinction. The former is more selfish in his transactions, is influenced mostly in the interest of his own company; the latter finds pleasure alone in the transaction if the profit be mutual, but it is this training in the business man which adds to his ability as a banker and gives him that education which is not usually offered to a clerk.

"Speculation is one of the worst vices open to a man who occupies a fiduciary relation. Among my acquaintances I can not with assurance point to one who has really profited by speculation. Your knowledge of these matters is comparatively little. Take, for example, railroad stocks. The man who sells them has more knowledge of their intrinsic value than you are supposession of, and therefore the percentage is against you and finally absorbs your capital."

Finelite Says He Did Not Marry Child

NEW YORK, June 10.—When the amazing marriage of eleven-year-old Lena Stark to forty-year-old Jacob Finelite comes up again next Wednesday, Magistrate Finn will have to straighten out the truth from a terribly tangled mass of statements and cross statements, charges and counter charges. That the child, a school girl in the primary grade, was married on January 8 last her family tries to prove by a rather curious marriage certificate. The alleged bridegroom wholly denies the marriage.

Here is the story as told by the mother of Lena Stark or Finelite, and by her attorney, Charles Firestone:

Jacob Finelite is a real estate dealer, and he is supposed to be wealthy. Lena Stark's father was an employe of his, and the two families were near neighbors on Henry street. Finelite, who was married at the time took a fancy to Lena from her infancy. Later he used to walk with her back and forth from school. He often said that he would like to marry her when she grew up.

His wife died last year. Lena was at that time 10 years old, very mature and worldly wise for her age, although only a school girl in the second primary grade. After his wife's death, Finelite began to call on the Starks several times a day. The father is an invalid. Mrs. Stark objected to his coming so much and the neighbors began to talk. Finally the Starks proposed that he marry Lena and, following an old Hebrew custom, leave her with her parents to grow up. Finelite consented to this, but insisted, for some reason not stated, that the marriage be performed in New Jersey.

On Jan. 8, the wedding party, consisting of Finelite, Mrs. Stark, Lena and a brother, went over to Aaron Roper's saloon in Jersey City, where Rabbi Garland married them. Roper swore to this in Magistrate Finn's court last Thursday. The Starks have also a document which they call a marriage certificate, printed and filled out in Hebrew. It bears no date, and the only signature is that of Jacob Finelite.

The girl went back to live with her parents. Finelite called now and then. The Starks say that Finelite did not observe the conditions agreed upon prior to the ceremony. When they found this out, Mrs. Stark called on Finelite to acknowledge Lena publicly as his wife, and support her. He refused, and she went to law. The first move was a suit tried last April before Justice Worcester. Mrs. Stark sued for two months' board at $20 a week, declaring that Finelite, as Lena's husband, had agreed to pay for the child's keep. The evidence of the marriage seemed so hazy to Justice Worcester that he threw the case out of court.

The second move was the complaint for non-support made last Thursday before Magistrate Finn. The Stark faction had a physician in court to testify, but the magistrate cut the case short and ordered a private hearing for next Wednesday.

All this, told by Mrs. Stark and Firestone, is corroborated by the girl herself, who is a well rounded, brown eyed, world wise little person.

"Of course I love him," she said with perfect frankness. "He was good to me."

"And we've had the devil's own time getting her to tell anything that would get Finelite into trouble in any way," added the attorney.

In the flat house at 105 East Ninety-seventh street where the Starks have lived since early last spring, the marriage of Lena was common gossip. Among the girls in her class at public school, 96, it was generally understood and Lena used to tell them about it at recess.

The Finelite side of the story is a flat denial. Jacob Finelite would not talk about the matter yesterday. It was the Jewish Feast of the Flowers and he was busy with religious duties at the synagogue. His lawyer, Israel J. Alderman, made emphatic denials, as did members of the Finelite family.

"They want money; that is all," said Alderman. "This Stark family has been helped and partly supported by Finelite for many years. It is true that he knew the girl as a baby. It is not true that he ever walked home from school with her or paid her any attention. If there was any such marriage, our client doesn't remember it. How they got his signature to any such document as that marriage certificate, no one knows. He himself can't understand it at all. It is a most peculiar certificate anyway. Finelite's signature is the only one appended to it. The whole document is most irregular.

"We intend to bring this affair to the attention of the district attorney and to ask the Gerry society to take Lena away from her parents as unfit persons to have her in charge.

"Mrs. Stark has been coaching the child in this story. She's a bright youngster and learns easily."

After the alumni danced about the grounds for nearly 30 minutes the game was called. Eleven brass bands were on the grounds.

The batting order:

TIPSTERS

FORTY-FIVE OF THEM UNDER ARREST.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The race-track tipsters were raided yesterday and forty-five of them were bagged and locked up in the Coney Island station. Capt. Dooley and his men made the raid, acting under instructions from Inspector Cross, who had received many complaints from racegoers and also from the Jockey club.

Tipsters are as thick as flies at every race meeting, and their special camping ground is just outside the gates to the race-tracks. They have appeared to be more numerous than ever at Gravesend, fully a hundred turning up there on the opening day. They were both black and white, and tips could be bought as low as a dime.

THE ACTORS AS THEY MIGHT HAVE BEEN AT THE BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

Chagnon's Actors Acted Very Badly

"To be or not to be a baseball player. That is the question," quoth Correze, the singer, as the drop of the curtain brought him back in an instant from his love affair in the court of Russia to plain democratic Lowell, and a voice from the top of the wings whispered: "Say, Jack, are you going to play with us tomorrow?"

The answer was: "Not to be" for Jack Chagnon, the clever actor of the Huntington-DeDeyn Stock company who led a team of Opera House Indians to Spalding park to do battle with the celebrated Hoban Pets proved conclusively that while a good actor he couldn't even act the part of a ball player, except on the coach line where his great voice aroused the echoes. There has been some talk of late as to the ability of the male members of the company to play the national game, and in order to prevent them from becoming conceited Tommy Hoban uncaged his Pets and "sliced" them at the actors with dire results.

Of course there's an excuse, for at the last moment Messrs. Huntington, DeDeyn, Burit and Sullivan failed to appear. Donald Meek and Tom Carroll showed up but refused to move off the bench. "We kind of like this sort of thing, don't yer know," said Mr. Meek, as he and Carroll munched sandwiches in the shade and watched their perspiring brethren. Thus only Chagnon and Dan McCabe were "the only real Thespians in the east. But not to be undone they formed a team out of stage hands and had all sorts of fun. Dan McCabe caught for the actors and Chagnon roamed about in right field. A young man named Vuillere, who used to be rung in as a French count, landlord, soldier, galley slave, or any other old Job French when the "rep" companies were short a man, did the pitching. On first base was Cookie, the Opera House "rep," who isn't even eligible for a job on the police team. On second base was Frank Devlin, the husky basketball player, who as a member of the Bachelor club minstrels, got by as an actor.

For short stop they had little Deacon Baxter who has been shifting scenes more regularly than the flyest bank absconder that ever hiked away from his native berg. Then the Deacon is an old-time actor for he used to be the Jim Hackler of Centralville politics before little Tommy Gallagher grew up. On third base was "Artie" Devlin, Frank's young brother who nightly does a turn behind the scenes and who used to play the heavies for the South Common Dramatic club a few years ago. In left field was "Bob" Guthrie, the A. C. Wheelock of the bunch, that is, the property man, though Bob is non-taxable. Bob has played a variety of parts during his many years' connection at the Opera House and makes a most valuable addition. Owing to his great length he has to do the stretching whenever "Hands Across the Sea" strikes the town, while he is invaluable in playing the part of a tree in all rustic scenes. Tom Mack, who makes the lightning and thunder and also hands out snow storms to the homeless heroine and in fact regulates all the stage weather banked in the sunshine of centrefield while the mighty Chagnon shagged none in right field.

For the Pets, "Side of Sausage" Casey was behind the bat and "Shiff" Moore on the slab. Jimmy Mulvaney whose dome glistened like the Boston State House in the sunlight, held down first. Tommy Hoban himself played second and is now walking with a cane. Allie Cudworth of High School baseball fame, was at short and Billy Meloy on third. "Jack" Kelly, the heavy hitter and sprinter, galloped through left field. Charlie Beals held down center and Fred Tighe looked more like Charley Armstrong than ever in right field for he worked like him.

Little Jockey Brady had charge of the refreshment booth and poured with all the grace of a society bird. George Callahan wiped the sweat off the bats for the actors and "Frosty" Merrill officiated in a similar capacity for the Pets. "Jack" Barry was brought out as mascot for the actors but he fell asleep and they lost the game while he wasn't working.

The game was full of features. It would take columns to recount them all. There was a barrel of fun and no "scraps" and those who failed to show up missed a fine afternoon's sport.

Mayor Weaver Names His Advisors

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—In accordance with his promise that from now on until the end of his administration he would give to the city of Philadelphia a business administration Mayor Weaver last evening announced the appointment of an advisory committee of 14.

The members of the committee include well known business men, manufacturers, bank presidents, lawyers and one newspaper man, Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press.

One of the developments of the day was the arres tof John A. Acker, general storekeeper of one of the water works stations in this city. He is charged with falsely certifying to the correctness of certain bills presented by the contractors and with accepting bribes while in the performance of official duties. He was given a hearing before a magistrate and held in $2000 bail for further hearing.

Acker was dismissed from the service early in the day and before his arrest occurred.

Another dismissal today for "the good of the service" was that of Robert R. Brontly, the foreman of the machine shops of the water works.

PIG OWNERS FINED

For Keeping Them Within the City Limits

Lawyer Donahue Claims That They Were Responsible For Spinal Meningitis—Both Defendants Appealed From the Court's Decision

Judge Fisher this morning, in police court, imposed two stiff fines for keeping pigs within the city limits, and although both cases were appealed, the health authorities want it understood that this is the beginning of a crusade against persons who keep pigs within the city limits in violation of the city ordinances and the rules of the board of health and both defendants were charged on two complaints, one under the ordinance and the other under the rules. The court did not bother with the rules, finding the defendants not guilty under the rules but found them guilty under the ordinance.

The defendants were Mrs. Owen Fitzpatrick of Chapel street and Byron W. Johnson of Crosby street.

The health department retained Lawyer Donahue as counsel while Judge Pickman appeared for both defendants.

When the son of Mrs. Fitzpatrick was called Judge Pickman appeared in court with a physician's certificate to the effect that she had heart trouble.

Lawyer Donahue then addressed the court as follows: "The existence of cerebro-spinal meningitis in this city is traceable, according to the health authorities, to hogs and it is a matter of record that there have been more cases of this fatal disease in the immediate neighborhood of the place

EMPLOYES OF FOUNDRIES THREATEN TO STRIKE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Demands made by the International association of Foundry Employes on the New York and New Jersey Foundrymen's association, to go into effect on the first of this month, have been refused by the Employers' association. The demands were for an increase in the minimum rate of wages and for the closed shop.

Instead of the foundry employes ordering a general strike they have decided to strike against individual employers and ordered their first strike yesterday in the foundries of Fox & Son, foot of West Thirty-fourth street. Strikes against several independent employers have also been ordered.

Secretary Henry C. Hunter of the employers' association said yesterday that to make wages any higher would be to drive all the business away from New York.

It was a fifty-foot drop at least and it jarred him some, but further than that and a bruised heel Barney wasn't hurt.

"How in thunder did it happen?" asked the ambulance surgeon.

"I prayed all the way down," said Barney.

TOWN MEETING

Dracut Voters Discuss Water Supply

LEADING SECTIONS OF THE BILL

Town Schools Preparing for Closing

A special town meeting was held in Dracut this afternoon in the center meeting house. The gathering was called to order at 2 o'clock and it was announced that the purport of the meeting was to take some action on the question of establishing a water supply for a portion of Dracut. The water supply district will include a part of the Navy Yard, Dracut Centre and Ledge Hill. The district is about one-half mile wide. The legislature passed an act authorizing the town to establish a water supply, the bill providing several conditions, one of which was that it should be accepted by the people before it could be operative, and it was to take action on this that the meeting was called.

In the district which is known as the water supply section there are close on to 300 voters, and it is the general belief among these men that Dracut would be greatly benefited by accepting this opportunity of providing the house in that section with a suitable water supply. It is argued that a system of driven wells can be established, a reservoir erected on Marsh hill, and the system of water works placed in running order for the sum of $50,000. The belief in town was that the act would be accepted by the voters, but should it fail at this meeting, then it can be brought up for action at any town meeting called within three years.

The bill as passed by the legislature contains fourteen sections, the most important of which are as follows, inasmuch as they provide for the method of payment of damages and also for the establishment of the plant proper:

Section 3. Said water district shall within sixty days after taking any land, rights of way, water rights, water source or easements as aforesaid, otherwise than by lease or purchase, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the district in which the same are situated a description thereof sufficiently accurate for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for.

Section 4. Said water district shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any lands, water source or water rights, or by laying or maintaining any aqueducts or other works for the purpose aforesaid, or by the doing of any other act under authority hereof. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, and unable to agree with the said district upon the amount thereof, may have them assessed in the manner provided by law with respect to land taken for highways. Any person or corporation whose water rights are thus taken or affected may apply as aforesaid within one year after the time when the water is actually withdrawn or diverted, and not thereafter.

Section 5. For the purpose of paying all expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this act, said district may from time to time issue bonds, notes or certificates of debt, signed by the treasurer of the water district and countersigned by the chairman of the water commissioners hereinafter provided for, to be denominated on the face thereof Dracut Water Supply District Loan, to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, payable at periods not exceeding thirty years from the dates of issue, and bearing interest payable semi-annually at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum. Said district may sell such securities at public or private sale, at not less than par, or pledge the same for money borrowed for the purposes of this act, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper. Said district shall pay the interest upon the loan as it accrues, and shall provide for the payment of said principal at maturity by making such annual proportionate payments as will extinguish the same within the time prescribed by this act. The amounts which may be necessary to make such payments shall without further vote of said district be raised annually by taxation in the way hereinafter provided.

Section 6: Said district shall raise by taxation annually a sum which with the income derived from the sale of water and the payments from the town of Dracut for hydrants service will be sufficient to pay the current annual expenses of operating its water works and the interest accruing on the bonds issued by said district, together with such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act. Said district is further authorized by a two-thirds vote of the voters thereof present and voting at a legal meeting called for the purpose, to raise by taxation any sum of money for the purpose of enlarging or extending its water works and providing additional pipes, appliances and fixtures connected therewith, not exceeding $2000 in any one year.

Section 7. The town of Dracut may by a two-thirds vote of the legal voters present and voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose guarantee the payment of said bonds, notes or certificates of debt, provided such meeting is held within one year after the acceptance of this act by said district.

The teachers and pupils in the different schools of the town are making great preparations for the closing of the term which will take place on June 23. Exercises will be held and the awards of merit made.

Business at the mills in town is booming and it looks as if the woolen industry particularly has taken a brace. The mills in Dracut, the Navy Yard and Collinsville are working night and day and it is reported that the management of the Collinsville mills contemplates the construction of a new weave room.

Mrs. Benjamin Shaw, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Mark L. Shaw, the well known baker, has returned to her home in Nova Scotia. She was accompanied by Mrs. William Bolton, and Annie Hutchinson, who will spend the summer there.

NO. CHELMSFORD

Temperance Men Have Pleasant Jubilation

The St. John's Total Abstinence society of North Chelmsford lived up to its good reputation last evening when it entertained a large number of friends who were instrumental in making their recent turnout in the 250th anniversary parade a success. The affair was held at its hall in Branch street and there was a large attendance.

The early evening was given over to the pleasures of dancing to music by Leith's orchestra. At intermission tables were arranged about the hall and a farmer's reapst was served. The entertainment following the repast consisted of piano solos by William Leith.

President John E. Harrington then rapped to order and in a few well chosen words introduced as chairman ex-President Stephen T. Ward. Mr. Ward spoke interestingly of the recent event and thanked those in attendance for their interest in the society. Other speeches were made by ex-Rep. William J. Quigley, who was chief marshal of the parade, President Thomas M. Twomey and Treasurer Edmund Costello of the Father Mahews of North Billerica, President John V. Donoghue, of the Mathew Temperance Institute of this city, Miss Theresa McCabe, president of the St. John's Ladies' Auxiliary, all of the speakers voicing the sentiments of their respective bodies for the success of the St. John's Total Abstinence society. After the speaking a vocal and instrumental program was carried out and later general dancing was resumed.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of President John E. Harrington, ex-President Stephen T. Ward, James F. Leahy and Patrick Connolly.

HOUSE EMPTY

FURNITURE REMOVED WHILE WIFE WAS ABSENT.

DUXBURY, June 10—Harvey J. Day, 25 years old, and one of the best known residents of the town, has been missing from his home on Cove street since Thursday, and his wife is prostrated at her home and in a very serious condition. Mrs. Day is about 25 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Mrs. Day left Thursday morning with her mother to attend a circus at Plymouth. Mr. Day having, she says, earnestly advised her to go. As soon as Mrs. Day had taken the train for Plymouth a furniture van drove up to the Day residence and Mr. Day, with the help of one of the men on the team, began to load the furniture into the wagon.

The neighbors were surprised, but said nothing about it, although they had not heard that the Days intended to move. As soon as the van was loaded it was driven toward Boston, with Mr. Day on the seat with the driver.

Mrs. Day came home from the circus with her mother, and found the house empty. She has been in a very serious condition since, and two physicians have been in constant attendance ever since.

PAUL MORTON RESIGNS NAVY PORTFOLIO TO MANAGE EQUITABLE.

MORTON THE MAN

New Head of the Equitable Life

HYDE SELLS STOCK CONTROL

Grover Cleveland Asked to Be Trustee

NEW YORK, June 10.—Paul Morton, who will retire from the secretaryship of the navy on July 1, was yesterday elected chairman of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society.

His election marks the first and most important step in the reorganization of the society and was followed by the tender of the resignations of President James W. Alexander, Vice President James H. Hyde, Second Vice President G. E. Tarbell, Third Vice President George T. Wilson and Fourth Vice President William H. McIntyre.

Mr. Morton, as was last night explained by Senator Chauncey M. Depew, was the unanimous choice of the board of directors of the Equitable, although the meeting yesterday was not altogether harmonious.

It is known that Brayton Ives and Charles Stewart Smith, who were from the outset of the controversy on the side of the conservative element, protested against some of the proceedings and it is believed Mr. Ives voted against Mr. Morton's election.

The new chairman, to further quote Senator Depew, did not consent to take office until he had received positive assurances that he would have a "free hand as to measures and men."

Mr. Hyde "divested" himself of the majority control, but as made clear in his letter to the board, retains a substantial interest in the society.

All of the resignations submitted to the meeting are subject to the pleasure of Chairman Morton, and none has yet been accepted.

Just what action Mr. Morton will take as to the resignations was not disclosed, but it was strongly intimated that President Alexander and Vice Pres. Tarbell, Wilson and McIntyre retired with the belief that their executive relations with the Equitable had ended.

The interests to which Mr. Hyde disposed of his stock number some two score individuals, led by Thomas F. Ryan, vice president of the Morton Trust company, which has close relations with the Mutual Life Insurance company, one of the Equitable's principal rivals.

Mr. Ryan is said to be heavily insured in the Equitable, as are, according to report, many of the others who acted with him in the purchase of the Hyde holdings.

The price paid for the Hyde estate stock, which is to be trusteed practically in perpetuity, was not disclosed, but estimates vary from $3,500,000 to $5,000,000.

In addition to the 502 shares held by the Hyde estate, which includes the widow of Henry B. Hyde, founder of the society, and his daughter, Vice President Hyde is said to hold between 150 and 17 0shares, and it is this holding to which Mr. Untermeyer refers in a statement as the "substantial interests" which his client retains. He has since the beginning of the Equitable controversy acted as Mr. Hyde's counsel.

The men requested to hold the majority stock by Mr. Ryan are ex-President Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse of Pittsburg and Morgan J. O'Brien, recently elevated to the chief justiceship of the appelate division of the supreme court of this district.

Russian People Not Begging Terms

ADDRESS TO THE EMPEROR

Amounts to Threat of Civil War

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10—M. Boutiron, first secretary of the French embassy, had a long conference with Foreign Minister Lamsdorf yesterday afternoon and M. Bompard, the French ambassador, is hurrying back from Paris, France, instead of displaying jealousy at the initiative taken by President Roosevelt with a view to bringing Russia and Japan together for peace, has apparently warmly welcomed it and will give its cooperation.

No further definite development is now expected until President Roosevelt returns to Washington from his trip to Virginia.

Statements in the despatches that the president's sole aim is to bring the warringpowers in direct negotiations have been confirmed. There has been no undertaking on his part to apprise Russia of the Japanese terms nor, it is believed, to find a preliminary basis for negotiations. The main obstacle to the president's efforts has been removed with the emperor's acquiescence in his initiative and negotiations are probably now proceeding at Tokio.

When the question of the naming of peace plenipotentaries is raised, the name of George De Stael, who preceded Count Benkendorff as Russian ambassador at London, and who was president of the peace conference at The Hague in 1899 at once occurs to every Russian.

Notwithstanding the progress already made a great deal of skepticism is manifested in certain quarters as to the result of President Roosevelt's demarches. The public seems reluctant to believe that the emperor could have assented to anything like a movement toward peace. Some cynics even try to create the impression that Russia is only seeking to ascertain Japan's terms, and then, by flaunting the hard conditions imposed in the faces of the representatives of the people when they meet, arousing the whole nation to resist them. Such talk, however, is mere irresponsible chatter. The emperor has cast the die and will make peace if Japan's terms be such that Russia can accept them with dignity.

The commencement of formal peace negotiations, especially coupled with the prompt announcement of the convocating of a national assembly, may avert the threatened crisis which the liberals are forcing upon the government or it may only serve to precipitate it.

Moscow is now a perfect hotbed of protest against the existing regime and the address which the deputation from the All-Russian zemstvo congress held there has brought to St. Petersburg to present the emperor, has fairly stunned the members of the government. Nothing approaching such language used in the document from men of such standing as those who signed it, has ever before been heard in Russia. There is a peremptory ring about it which is ominous.

BOXING GOSSIP

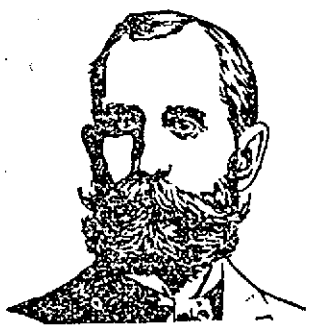
Pugilists as a class are not always ready to praise their brother professionals. Often a victorious fighter will give vent to some nice remarks about a rival, but it is usually made in a spirit of pride. Since Jim Jeffries announced his retirement from the game of hit, stop and get away, there are any amount of bruisers who have come forward with a kind word about the champion. Corbett, until Jeffries came into the limelight, believed that there was no man in the ring who could swap punch for punch with him and win. Corbett did not regard the victory of Fitzsimmons at Carson City over him as anything else but a fluke. He thought that it was a lucky blow that Fitz got home that whipped him and probably harbors the idea today, although it is strange that they have never met again since that time. However, this is no fault of the Cornishman, who has tried every conceivable thing to get the Californian to engage in a return essay, but to no purpose. This is what Corbett has to say about Jeffries's retirement, and in view of Corbett's reluctance in the past to give credit to a rival his remarks are interesting:

"Jeffries will be looked upon as the champion as long as he lives. You cannot take that title away from him because he has decided to quit. He must be defeated first, and tell me, who is to accomplish such a feat at this time? I don't know of any man. He is in a class by himself and always will be. There is no one in sight who can give him an argument, and so naturally he is forced to retire. Jeffries is only 30 years old, and he could come back in five years and go through the list of the men he has already whipped and do the same thing over once more. If in the meantime a good fighter should appear and whip a few of the light heavyweights you can bet that Jeffries will return to the ring and go after this new man. He likes boxing too, well to keep away from it for good. Especially would this be true should any foreign country produce a heavyweight champion. I think Jeffries today is a much better man than John L. Sullivan was in his prime. I fought them both and I ought to know. Jeffries, while he is not as fast on his feet as some of them, is just as quick in other ways. What is more, he has the punch, and this counts the most nowadays in ring contests. He showed that when he beat both Fitz and Sharkey. These two men were supposed to be stiff hitters themselves. But he outpunched them and won."

Regarding Corbett's assertion that Jeffries is a better man than Sullivan ever was in the heyday of the latter's career, there are a lot of fistic critics who agree with him in this respect. In comparing both men physically and mentally, Jeffries holds the palm over Sullivan. Sullivan, when he was the champion was a powerful, rugged man. Nature endowed him with a physique of iron, but by dissipation and riotous living his wonderful frame began to weaken. By the time he met Corbett he was but a shadow of his former self, and it is thought that plenty of big men, not even as clever as Corbett, could have whipped John L. at the time. Sullivan may have been as stiff a puncher as Jeffries is today, especially with his right hand, but it cannot be said that he was as scientific. Jeffries grew from a rough and ready fighter into a capable boxer in a short time and today it must be said that he knows as much, if not more than Sullivan did when he was champion. Looking up Jeffries's record, it cannot be denied that the men he has defeated were better and knew more about boxing than were the men Sullivan conquered. Probably the best man Sullivan ever fought in point of skill was Charley Mitchell. Sullivan fought the Briton a draw. This fight did not redound much to Sullivan's credit in view of the fact that Mitchell weighed less than Sullivan and was badly handled.

Mitchell might have won that mill had he been looked after more carefully in his corner. Sullivan differed in many respects from Jeffries and it must be said that the Bostonian is the more popular of the two. Billy Delaney, after Jeffries became the champion, took the boilermaker with him on a tour through the lower East side. Delaney made Jeffries visit all the saloons in that part of the town, mingled with the real "push," so to speak, and showed Jeffries how to ingratiate himself with the folks that are the real patrons of the prize ring. Wherever Jeffries went Delaney would proudly introduce him individually to every one who wished to meet the Californian. The man in tatters or the sport in diamonds, it made no difference to Delaney. He insisted that they were all the same to Jeffries. This procedure helped Jeffries to become popular, but it was not the popularity of John L. Sullivan. It seemed to be forced and artificial and died away in time. Jeffries is better thought of today than when he became the leader in his class. It may be that the public has come to the conclusion that he is really great and that greatness should be respected even in a prize fighter.

MEN COME TO ME



I want every man that is suffering from any special disease, or condition, acute or chronic, to come and have a social chat with me, and I will explain to you a system of treatment which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in the treatment of special diseases of men. MONEY ENOUGH

Has Been Raised to Buy a New Organ

The committee on church organ and debt fund of the Branch Street Tabernacle met last evening and reported progress. The pastor, Rev. Asa Reed Dills, presided at the meeting.

The committee reported that enough money had already been pledged to pay for the organ and the work of raising the church debt. It was stated that many outside of the church had contributed liberally.

Upon the recommendation of the committee, a special committee on new organ was appointed. The new committee is made up of the music committee of the church, W. F. Hills, J. N. Dows, W. A. Morse, Miss Blanche Hutchins, Frank B. Hill and Samuel G. Stephens.

When it was announced that sufficient money had already been raised to pay for the new organ a rising vote of thanks was given the committee, of which Miss Blanche M. Hutchins was chairman.

Steps have already been taken toward securing the new organ. Estimates from several organ builders have been received. It is hoped that the new organ will be in position and ready for use by the first of October.

"Rump" Meeting Calls It Off

NOT ANY SIGNS OF PEACE YET

In Teamsters' Trouble in Chicago

CHICAGO, June 10.—Peace negotiations between the teamsters and State street merchants, either individually or collectively, are at an end and hereafter all meetings for the purpose of bringing the strike to a close must be arranged through John V. Farwell, Jr., chairman of the action committee of the Chicago Employers' association.

In view of the repeated declarations of the employers that no further concessions will be given, an acceptance in full of what offers may be made by the Employers or a calling off of the strike are now the only avenues by which the teamsters can get rid of the fight.

Declarations by President Shea and other strike leaders are to the effect that the demands of the employers that union buttons must be discarded and that police protection shall continue even if the strike is declared at an end, never will be accepted. With these obstacles remaining the strike hereafter, it is believed, will consist mainly of a test of endurance on the part of the teamsters. Union officials assert that as long as sufficient funds are received, there will be no breaks in the ranks of the strikers.

Aroused by bitter speeches attacking the policy of paying one day's pay each week for the support of striking clothing cutters and garment workers, made at a meeting of clothing cutters' union, local No. 17, two hundred members of the local have held a "rump" meeting after the regular session had adjourned and declared off the strike that has been lost. It was sympathy for the idle men that precipitated the teamsters' strike.

The council finance committee has decided to give the additional policemen employed for strike during a higher salary than ordinarily is paid regular policemen in the first few months of their service. This is a recognition for the men's willingness to serve at the present time and because they hold only temporary positions, with no opportunity for promotion. The new men will be paid $2.50 a day instead of $2.00, which usually is given policemen in the first stage of their employment. As there now are about 1400 additional policemen the city must pay $3500 a day in salaries for the temporary force.

KING ALFONSO

SAYS FAREWELL TO LONDON TOWN.

LONDON, June 10.—King Alfonso left London for Spain this morning. He apparently thoroughly enjoyed his visit and the character of the farewells testified to the cordiality of the feelings of the host and guest. King Edward and the duke of Connaught accompanied the Spanish king to the railroad station where he met the Spanish ambassador, Senor Polo de Bernabe, the rest of the Spanish embassy, foreign Secretary Lansdowne and others. King Edward entered the royal car with his guest and engaged in a few minutes earnest conversation with him. As the train moved out of the station King Alfonso stood at the window waving farewells to the members of the British royal family who stood bareheaded until the Spanish king had disappeared from their sight.

THE CREW LOST

The Brigantine Acacia Went Down

HALIFAX, N. S., June 10.—The relatives of Captain Duncan Munro and crew of the Port Medway brigantine Acacia have given up hope of seeing them again, and it is the general opinion here that they have been lost. The brigantine sailed from this port April 6, for Jordan River. Nothing was heard of her until more than a month later. On May 8 the vessel was sighted in latitude 11.33, north and longitude 67 west, abandoned and waterlogged, by a Gloucester, Mass., fishing vessel. No trace of the crew has been seen by any mariner, so far as known. This month an empty boat, bearing the name "Acacia" was found drifting off Southern Nova Scotia.

Captain Munro's home is at Bay View, near Pictou. When he was home in March he told his family that the trip he was about to go on was the last that he would make, as he intended to retire. Capt. Munro sailed for several years as first officer on one of the Dominion Atlantic railway boats between Boston and Yarmouth. With him was a crew of four or five persons, mostly Nova Scotians.

The Acacia was one of the last vessels of her rig in Atlantic waters. She was built at Port Medway in 1881 and registered 196 tons.

BARN BURNED

LIVELY BLAZE ON SCHOOL STREET LAST NIGHT.

An alarm from box 57 shortly before 11 o'clock last night summoned a part of the fire department to a lively blaze in a barn in School street, near Liberty street, the building being the property of Mrs. David Chase.

When the department arrived the flames were shooting through the roof, but after several lines of hose were laid and directed on the burning building the flames were extinguished.

WINDOW CURTAIN BLAZE.

A still alarm, at 7.35 o'clock last night, was for a curtain fire in a house in High street owned by the Fox heirs. The wind blew the curtain against a lighted gas jet and the curtain was soon ablaze. The members of engine, 4 extinguished the flames.

BADLY INJURED

Fire in House in New York

NEW YORK, June 10. Thirty-five persons living in a West Thirty-ninth street house which had been remodelled into apartments, had narrow escapes early today from death by fire and smoke. One woman was so badly hurt that she may die and several police men were injured.

The firemen and police carried out at least a score of inmates, many of whom were women. Others fled to safety by way of the roof. Mrs. Margaret Donovan, aroused from her sleep by the alarm, fainted and fell where she escaped the notice of the rescuers. She lay on the floor nearly an hour and when discovered she was almost dead from inhaling smoke. The financial loss was small.

PEAK SISTERS.

"The Peak Sisters" of this city went to Cambridge Wednesday evening and gave an entertainment in the vestries of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church of that city. Among those present were: Miss Ella Whitman, who directed the program, Miss Clara Whitman, Miss Ethel Tuttle and Miss Alice Blunt, all of this city, and Miss Hattie Harris, recently of Lowell, and four young ladies of the local church. The Lowell young ladies made a great hit and will always be welcome in Cambridge. The pastor, Rev. F. M. Pickles, assured the young men of the church that if they could induce any or all of the Lowell young ladies to remain permanently in the "City of Books" they would make a fine investment.

THE KING OF ABYSSINIA IN FULL COURT DRESS.

The cut represents Menelik the ruler of Abyssinia, in all the splendor of court regalia. Although he is an African of more than ordinary ability, as was shown by his skill in securing the crown and putting an end to the Italian protectorate, there is a well defined streak of barbarism in his nature. This is especially manifest in his love for glitter and display. When he is arrayed in all his glory—which is at least equal to that of King Solomon, whose relative he claims to be—Menelik might easily be mistaken for an especially gorgeous animated Muscovite icon. His sinewy body is clad in a robe weighted with jeweled embroidery, and his ebony head is surmounted by a tiara whose gems might make a Roman pontiff envious.

A GIFTED ROYAL AUTHORESS.

Princess Feodora of Sleswick-Holstein, the youngest sister of the German empress, has recently published a volume of idyls with the title of "Der Wald" ("The Forest"). The work, although sent out under the pseudonym of F. Hugin, attracted so much attention that it will probably be accorded the distinction of an English translation. The book was so much admired by the German emperor that he had a beautiful edition de luxe prepared, and he has sent copies of it to all the royalties in Europe. It is illustrated by its talented author, and the drawings are remarkably good.

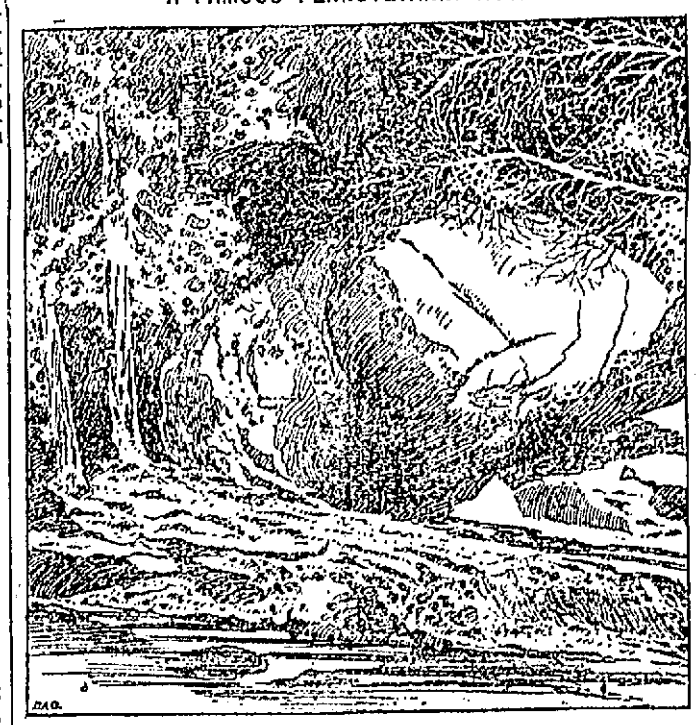
LOST BRITISH LAND.

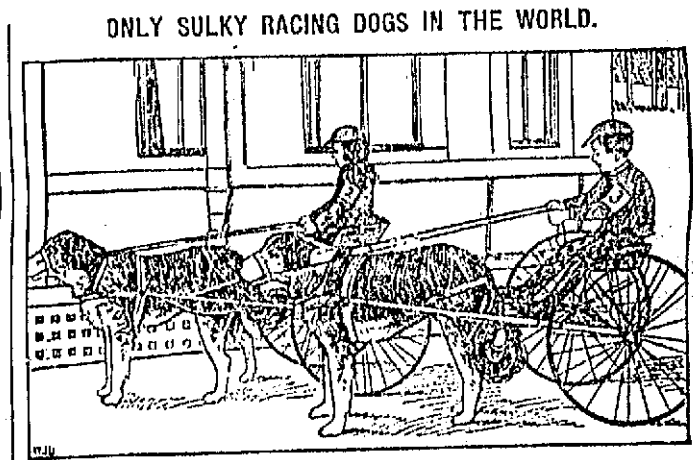
Great Britain lost 148,906 acres between 1867 and 1880 by the encroachment of the sea and 29,165 acres between 1880 and 1890. A survey in the reign of Edward I. gave the duchy of Cornwall 1,500,000 acres, but the ordnance survey some years ago showed that this had been reduced to 829,500 acres. Villages have disappeared in the ocean, as in the case of Dunwich, of which nothing remains but a ruined church on the edge of a cliff.

A FAMOUS PENNSYLVANIA ROCK.



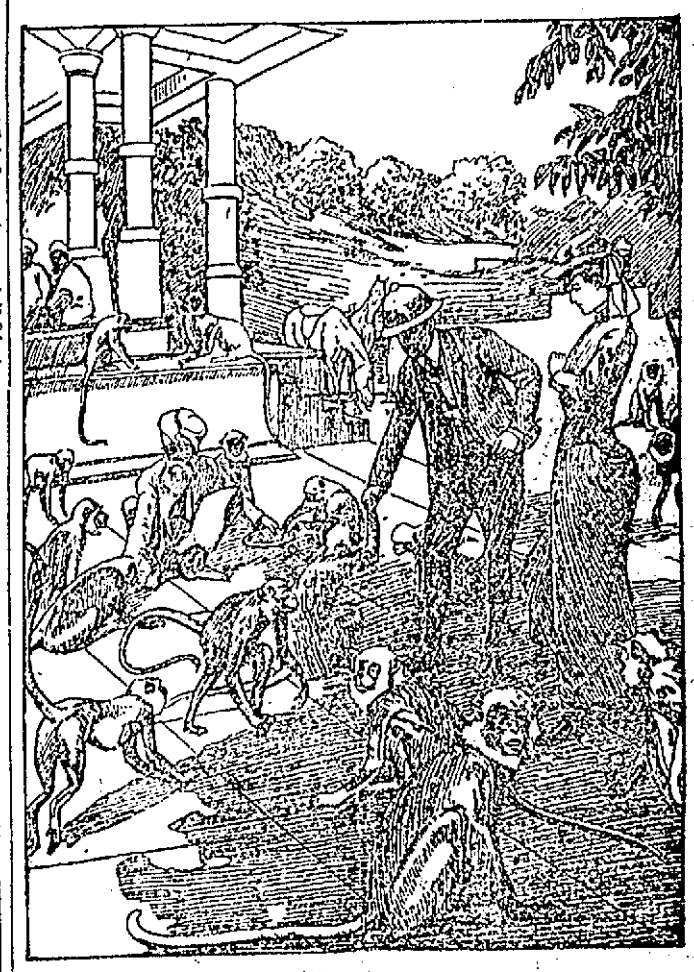
The great rock shown in the picture is a favorite resort of Philadelphia picnic parties. It is near the picturesque Pennypack creek, about eleven miles northeast of Independence hall. It is in a wild and secluded spot and is rather difficult of access, but it has numerous visitors in spite of that fact. Its surface is almost perfectly flat, comparatively smooth and large enough to accommodate a cotillon party. It is known locally as the Rock of Ages.

ONLY SULKY RACING DOGS IN THE WORLD.



As far as is known the two dogs shown in the cut are the only ones that have been trained to follow the race track driven to sulkies. These intelligent and speedy St. Bernards are the property of the little boy and girl who are driving them, the children of M. J. Brooks of Franklin, N. H. Jumbo and Mascot, as they are called, show the true racing spirit and are eager to win. When their young drivers hold a tight rein the dogs trot, and when given full rein they break into a run, and a speedy one. These novel racing animals are only a year old. Their enterprising breeder intends to make dog racing popular.

A WAYSIDE TEMPLE IN INDIA.



The cut represents one of the numerous wayside temples which are scattered along the public roads in India. These rather neglected places of worship are usually in charge of some mendicant holy man, who is anxious to supply the passing traveler with reeds and nuts with which to feed the monkeys that come trooping out of the neighboring jungle. Although all animal life is held sacred in India, the ape, from his resemblance to man, is an object of special veneration. It is considered unlucky to offend one of these highly esteemed simians, and in consequence of the protection they receive they have multiplied greatly and are utterly devoid of fear. It is a saying in India that a native will meekly submit to an insult from a monkey which he would resent were it offered by a man.

AN ASIATIC TUNNEL.

The tunnel shown in the cut is the only subterranean portion of the great Transsiberian railroad system, and as such it merits notice for the suggestive inscriptions which are on the arches over the entrances. On the western side are the words, "To the Pacific ocean." On the other side the legend inscribed over the entrance is, "To the Atlantic ocean." This tunnel is near the city of Harbin, which is the only inland base remaining to the Russian army. It is cut through the fortified hills on the west side of the city. At Harbin the road branches, one division going east to the sea and the other south to Port Arthur.

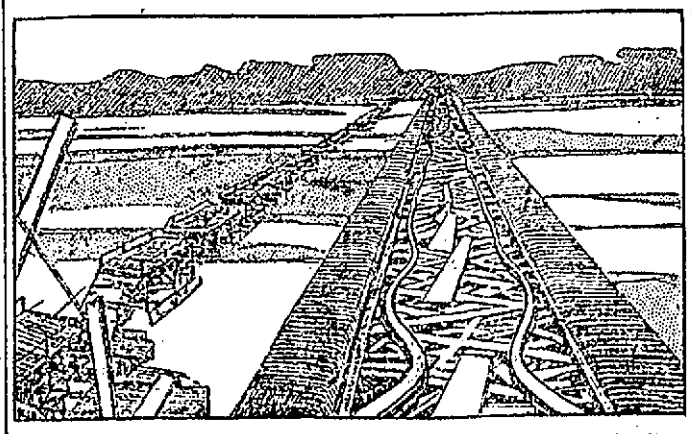
HOW THE JAPANESE ADVANCE IS DELAYED.



The cut illustrates quite forcibly the manner in which the retreating Russians devastate the country as they move. The pursuing Japanese find the railroads badly damaged and the bridges either blown up or torn to pieces. The mikado's engineers are kept constantly busy at repairing these wrecks, and thus much time is consumed. This, however, is precisely what is intended, since the longer the delay the less chance there is to be overtaken. If the streams are fordable and will admit of the passage of the supply wagons the Japanese do not wait to repair the dismantled bridges.

SOME TYPES OF GREAT RUSSIANS.

The Muscovite villagers shown in the cut are at the door of their izaba, or hut, which is made of hewn logs with the intervening spaces filled with mud. The man is the village shoemaker, and he is using his doorstep as a bench. His wife and mother are dressed in the typical peasant costume and wear silk handkerchiefs on their heads both indoors and out. The Russian women of the lower classes all wear the head coverings shown in the picture, while the men seldom have the head covered at all during the warm season. Most of them wear the hair long and, as a rule, do not shave after they reach middle age.

CAMBRIDGE MEN

Fifteen Were Indicted in Secret

BOSTON, June 10.—The Middlesex grand jury, which reported yesterday, returned secret indictments, said to be 15 in number, against men prominent in Cambridge politics, and the police are searching for the parties indicted. James A. Montgomery, ex-representative and superintendent of parks, was the first to fall into the net. He was arrested on a capias last night, but was immediately bailed by two friends in the amount of $1000.

The charge against the men, on which the indictments were found, was "taking a false oath and signing a false certificate," in connection with the registration of last fall.

It has been the custom, it is alleged, for politicians to remain in the room where sessions of the registrars of voters were held and to certify indiscriminately to the oaths of would-be voters that they were residents of Cambridge on the preceding May 1.

It is not publicly known who the instigators of the move against these men are, but it has been known that Sergt. Gordon and others have been at work on the case for some weeks. It is claimed that some 15 men were implicated, with the result that indictments were returned against nearly all of them.

Other than Montgomery, the names of those who were indicted have been kept secret, but it is said that when all are under arrest there will be surprise throughout the length and breadth of the University city.

PATRICK GUILTY

Court of Appeals Decides Against Him

ALBANY, N. Y., June 9.—The court of appeals today by a divided court, voting 4 to 3, sustained the lower courts in adjudging Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer, guilty of murder, first degree, in causing the death of William Marsh Rice. On April 7, 1902, Patrick was convicted on an indictment charging him with the murder of Rice by chloroform and mercury administered to him during his sickness on Sept. 23, 1900. The case reached the court of appeals on March 14, of this year, when David B. Hill, who appeared for the appellant, based his argument for a reversal mainly on the contention that the condition of Rice's body revealed by the post-mortem examination, might have been caused by fluids in embalming.

The prevailing opinion is by Judge Gray, with whom concur Judges Bartlett, Haight and Werner. There is a dissenting opinion by Judge O'Brien, Chief Judge Cullen and Judge Vann concurring, Chief Judge Cullen filing also a memorandum.

The accused was a New York lawyer and has succeeded in postponing the ultimate decision of his fate for over three years by a display of acumen and resourcefulness that has excited the wonder of the members of the bar and the public at large. The opinion of the court, written by Judge Gray, is exhaustive, reviewing the record in every detail and containing upwards of 16,000 words.

Judge Gray sets forth that the theory fo the people was that the defendant had conspired with Charles F. Jones, the valet or sometimes called the secretary of Rice, to kill Rice and that the defendant procured Jones to administer chloroform to him while he was asleep, in the accomplishment of their joint purpose. This purpose, they say, had as a motive the desire to obtain possession of Rice's estate. Through a will in favor of the defendant and through various transfers to him of properties all purporting to have been executed by Rice ,but which had, in fact, been forged by the defendant with Jones' aid. The defence is based upon a denial that Rice's death was effected by violent means, or that it was by the procurement of the defendant; and the proposition is advanced that the forgeries were not brought home to the defendant, or if the evidence warranted the finding that they were, that that fact did not necessarily fasten upon him a criminal agency in the murder.

It was not claimed that Patrick personally committed the murder; for the prosecution had the voluntary confession of Jones that it was he who did it, induced and aided thereto by Patrick; but the defendant was a principal in the commission of the crime, under our law if he aided and abetted it, whether present or absent; or if he, directly or indirectly, "counselled, commanded, induced or procured" another to commit it. The trial therefore presented these questions to the jury upon the evidence, whether it was established, that the death was the result of poisoning or whether that result was aided, or abetted, induced or procured by this defendant. Circumstantial evidence was sufficient for their determination ,death being admitted, if it was of such a character, as to leave an inference of guilt the only reasonable one possible from the facts disclosed.

After a review of the evidence, the opinion continues:

"The jury might well find upon the evidence that the death was not the result of natural causes an dthat it was due to some criminal agency.

RUNAWAYS

MANCHESTER LADS WERE IN THIS CITY.

BOSTON, June 10—Two sad, worn out, hungry boys of 14 and 16 years of age are being detained at the Medford police station, where they voluntarily gave themselves up, to Sergt. Ewell late last night, claiming that they had run away from their homes in Manchester, N. H., because they were discharged from the mills. After being washed and fed they were put to bed.

The older boy, Richard Millett, says he lived with his aunt, Napple Bogle of 209 Lake avenue, Manchester, N. H., and that the other boy is Robert Hughes, son of Barney Hughes, proprietor of a livery stable and blacksmith shop.

When they were discharged, Millett says, they were afraid to go home for fear of being punished, so they came to Boston by electric from Lowell. They reached Sullivan square about dark. Not knowing any one, they camped out in an old team near the playground. Yesterday their money gave out, and they started to foot it back to Manchester.

After reaching Medford both boys were tired, dirty and hungry and decided to go to police headquarters.

ANARCHISTS MET

Strong Talk at the Lynn Meeting

LYNN, June 10.—The anarchist circle held a meeting on the fourth floor of the building at 2 Munroe street last night and fiery speeches were made by men and women. All the addresses were made in Italian and the speakers referred to the demonstrations at St. Joseph's church Tuesday night with glee.

Patrolman Quirk was present during part of the meeting and talked with one man who could speak very good English and who stated that it was a meeting of men and women who wished to talk over their own affairs, and that there would be no disturbance.

"Where's your chairman and secretary?" asked the policeman, and the man said: "We do not believe in having them. Everybody here is equal and we don't choose persons to govern our meetings and we keep no records."

During this conversation the women were talking. There were about 40 including several well dressed and apparently prosperous young women, accompanied by male escorts, in the room. One of these, a bright eyed and apparently intelligent young woman, made a speech received with favor by her companions.

She scored the police and said she was not afraid of any man who wore a uniform and would kick them out of her way if she got a chance. She said she was glad the anarchists, of which she was pleased to be one, had gone to the church and told the priest to his face that they did not believe in God or government. She prophesied the downfall of all government and the reign of anarchy soon.

Several men made speeches along the same line, denouncing the police and authorities and saying they defied the authorities to stop their meetings or compel them to leave the city.

Nearly all the men present smoked pipes, but this did not seem to disconcert the women. On the whole, it was an orderly meeting, except for the inflammatory speeches.

AUTO WRECKED

Royal Sheldon's Party Met With Accident

With a crash and rattle of broken machinery that could be heard for some distance, a large Delbeitrich touring car, owned and driven by Royal R. Sheldon, of North Chelmsford, and containing a party of five men, came into collision with a tree near the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, last night, broke the tree short off, ran against another tree and was overturned and wrecked.

The entire party was thrown out on the boulevard, and while all received a severe shaking up and numerous bruises, two sustained injuries that caused them to be taken to the Newton hospital. They are not believed to have been seriously hurt, however. The others were able to go to their homes.

The accident happened shortly after 11 o'clock, the party being then on their way home from a run.

The machinery of the car was working all right, and they were coming along at a good pace when suddenly the machine swerved on its course. Being but a small sapling, the force and weight of the machine broke the first tree short off.

Citizens assisted the party into the house of Allen Hubbard at 550 Commonwealth avenue. Drs. West, Edwards and Sylvester were quickly summoned and dressed their wounds.

As a matter of medical precaution, it was decided that it would be better for two to go to the hospital, to which they were taken in the police ambulance.

Fearing that an account of the accident might get into the newspapers, all of the occupants of the car refused to make known their names. Even the two who were taken to the hospital withheld their names from the police, and at that institution last night it was stated that the hospital did not know the names and could not learn them.

Besides Mr. Sheldon it is understood that two members of the party were Lewis R. Speare of Newton Centre, and a Mr. Greene, a friend of Mr. Sheldon. Mr. Sheldon is a member of the Massachusetts Automobile club.
